Subject: C-SPAN requests Newsmakers interview with Gov. Haley - Thursday or Friday

Hi, Chaney,

C-SPAN is eager to see if Governor Haley can do our Newsmakers interview from South Carolina this week – Thursday May 5 or Friday May 6. We'll arrange for studio in SC.

Newsmakers is C-SPAN's key policy interview that tapes Fridays and airs Sundays. It's a 25-minute interview. The Governor would talk with a C-SPAN host and two reporters for U.S. newspapers or web publications. The host & reporters would be at C-SPAN, while the Governor would be in SC.

Among the topics would be politics of course, her thinking since Senator Rubio bowed out of the presidential race, as well as Gitmo and the President's plan to shut it down, your proposal for a SC-GA port, and the gender affirmative law that's being talked about, as well as other key topics on her mind.

Can one of these times work for Gov. Haley:

THURSDAY, May 5 -- anytime between 10:30a.m. 12 noonET .... Or between 3:15 & 4PMET FOR 25 minutes.

FRIDAY, May 6 – anytime between 10:30a.m. & 4pmET (9:30a to 3pm Central) for 25 minutes.

C-SPAN's been eager to talk with the Governor, and we hope this week might work. Let us know what we can do to smooth the way for an interview. Glad to answer questions.

Regards,

Leslie Burdick

Hello, Chaney.

C-SPAN's getting in touch again to see if Gov. Haley available to do a Newsmakers interview with this week – preferably Friday... but Thursday afternoon might work, too. Friday is best because of Thursday night's Republican presidential debate.

Newsmakers is C-SPAN's key policy/politics interview that tapes Friday or Thursday and airs Sunday. It's a 25-minute interview. The Governor would talk with a C-SPAN host and two reporters who watch these topics for U.S. newspapers. These folks would be in Washington, DC, while the Governor joins from South Carolina.
