Edwin,

Rhonda and I were just chatting about an idea we had for the press release announcing South Carolina's success in getting SSBCI funds into the hands of the state's small businesses...Treasury is thinking we could try and go big and bipartisan on this to try and garner more news in SC and possibly even nationally.

We'd love to have a release that includes a quote from a senior Treasury official, Governor Haley (as leader of the administration implementing the program) and Rep. Clyburn (as someone who helped champion the bill). We could pretty easily get quotes for Treasury and Clyburn, but would need your help with JEDA/the Governor's office.

Let us know what you think. With these names, we think a Tuesday release would be just fine.

Many thanks!
