

From: Jim Conca <james@ufaventures.com>
To: Charles McCombiecharles.mccombie@arius-world.org
CC: Charles MunnsCHARLES.MUNNS@SRS.GOV
Date: 9/23/2013 1:25:25 AM
Subject: Forbes post on eagle kills by wind turbines

Hi folks,

An interesting twist on wind energy. There's no such thing as a free lunch.

Wind Energy Gets Away With Murder

Wind turbines kill hundreds of eagles a year, but are not held accountable like other industries with the help of the Interior Department. The large physical footprint probably represents the weakest point of wind energy.

<http://www.forbes.com/sites/jamesconca/2013/09/22/wind-energy-gets-away-with-murder/>

Jim