I understand and accept that the Confederate flag is going to be removed from government property. So I am not writing about stopping that. I would like you to "manage" the removal of the flag in a way that respects BOTH opinions of the issue.

Should the flag be removed under these circumstances, the flag will always and forever from this point forward will be associated with hate, bigotry, slavery and yes, the murder of nine people in a church; Whether it is your intent or not, those that see the flag as being a symbol of racism will. This is what will be taught in your schools. So to suggest that people will be able to wave the flag in their personal life, on their property isn't exactly being honest. You know how the progressives are, it wont stop there. At some point, they will began to associate the flag as being a form of hate speech and people that have shirts, belt buckles etc will find themselves getting fired from jobs.

If I could be so bold to make a suggestion, take the political out. Take your time to remove the flag, get some distance from the action and the event that has caused this action. And then word the removal of the flag in a bureaucratic way. Have the legislation worded in a way that only "approved" flags, symbols etc are allowed to be displayed on state property. In this legislation, it would be stated what is approved, the state flag, the U.S. flag .. w/e. Simply omit the Confederate flag. Problem solved. The solution doesn't condemn the flag, but the flag is removed.

Lastly, doing it this way doesn't set the president, that symbols that have a perception of being tainted is enough of a reason to be banned.

I know it hasn't happened yet, but I can assure you that there will eventually be someone that will make the argument that the U.S.Flag waved over slavery long before the Confederate flag did. But old glory also waved over the expansion into the Indian Territories. As well as Segregation, Jim Crow Laws and the Internment of American citizens during WWII.

If you could find a way to removed the flag, without giving energy to other liberal agenda, would be AWESOME!

I think if done in the way it seems to be going, we could be looking to similar movements against the Bible, the Koran as well as the Cross. All are symbols that have been used by hate groups and do in-fact have some aspects of a tainted history.

Thank you for your time

 <MSG>

Hon. Gov. Nikki Haley,

I was honored to meet you and your husband in Myrtle Beach during a welcome to Mitt and Ann Romney. I was glad to meet a member of the SC Guard. My son, LTC Robert [REDACTED] served in Baghdad under General Odierno and graduated a year ago from United States Army War College in Carlisle, PA, so I appreciate the service of all soldiers. I also was honored to ask you a question at a town hall meeting in Socastee. Right now I am expressing my extreme disappointment in your decision to support the removal of the Confederate flag from the capitol grounds, where it flies in a setting honoring South Carolina's past and its involvement in the Civil War. All of these Civil War monuments and artifacts, while offensive to many, are part of our history. America's history is filled with both glorious and inglorious acts and deeds. I do not consider the Civil War either glorious or inglorious, just a tragic part of our history which all students need to appreciate and fully understand. We never understand history by deleting those parts and people we don't admire or like. We teach about them, the good, the bad, and the ugly. We do not remove a flag because it is offensive or objectionable. Today people are finding all kinds of things offensive, including certain words or phrases. The Adventures of Huck Finn, once America's greatest classic and a truly commendable work of literature, is probably taught in very few high schools because it contains the "n" word multiple times. The same word appears in many works by well known black authors such as Richard Wright, Lorraine Hansberry, and many others. We do not abandon those books or delete them from our libraries or curricula because of certain objectionable materials. Many people object to the Bible, yet it contains some of the greatest literature ever written (in Psalms and Proverbs and Ecclesiastes). It had a profound influence on America's Poet, Walt Whitman, and allusions to the Bible fill our literature anthologies. So for people who profess to be godless or atheists, a knowledge of the Bible is still required to be truly educated. The Confederate flag, likewise, needs to be recognized, SEEN, discussed along with all the ramifications of the war, its causes and results. That some sick young man used the flag as a hate symbol should not mean that we all, as a nation, abrogate and eradicate the flag. Immediately everyone jumps on the hate bandwagon. Walmart will no longer sell the flag. Flag makers will no longer make the flag. Will the flag even appear in a history book and, if so, will it be portrayed only as a symbol of hate and not as a symbol of pride for those brave soldiers who died as color bearers leading their regiments into the charge of battle, clutching the flag in their hands as they lay fallen and dying, as portrayed so vividly in Stephen Crane's Red Badge of Courage. Have you read Henry Timrod's "Ode to the Confederate Dead"? Great generals like Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson were among the greatest military minds ever. Many Confederate generals graduated from West Point and were good friends. You may remember General Lewis "Lo" Armistead as he charged across the open field at Gettysburg knowing that he would meet head on his best friend. Lee was a Union officer before he was a Confederate officer. He was a lieutenant in the War against Mexico. He commanded the Union forces that captured John Brown at Harper's Ferry. Later he opted to side with Virginia, his home state, and became the commander of the Army of Northern Virginia. All these soldiers, privates and officers, were Americans. Removing the Confederate flag will be a disservice to South Carolina and its history. Shall we raze all the monuments to the great generals who commanded southern forces, great generals like Patrick Cleburne, who along with twelve Confederate generals, died horrible deaths at the Battle of Franklin (TN) on the dark evening of Nov. 30, 1864. PLEASE, let's not try to change history, ignore history, hide history, remove it all to some dusty museum. For the haters, let them hate but try to change their attitudes and ways. You will not do this by hiding history. PLEASE reconsider your position on this subject. I know you won't do so, but I will ask anyway. The Union flag flew over the South long before the Confederate flag, and slavery existed. Northerners profited immensely from the slave trade, as did many blacks, many of whom were themselves slave owners. The Union flag flew as Sherman burned the cities of Atlanta and Columbia, SC. Was not that flag also highly detested, hated. Was not the Union flag hated by Chief Joseph and the Nez Perce Indians as they were driven across impassable mountains in Montana by the United States Army, flying the Union flag? How did Chief Joseph feel about that flag? How did the peaceful native Americans at Chillicothe feel when George Rogers Clark annihilated their village and their people - under the Union flag? How did the Cherokee feel as Andrew Jackson forced them to follow the Trail of Tears to Oklahoma, with many dying along the way. I personally know exactly where some of them are buried, on private property. Atrocities have occurred under the banners of different armies. You don't change history or get rid of hate by moving a flag off the capitol grounds. You really accomplish nothing noteworthy. The NAACP and the vile, foul-mouthed Al Sharpton will quickly find another object of hatred that he can use to foment and agitate and promote racial animosity and division. Thanks for listening to my message, and I hope I receive a personal response. Sincerely, David [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

The only Confederate Flag I have ever owned was on a Dukes of Hazzard matchbox car. Should the Confederate flag fly next to the American flag at Capital buildings, no it shouldn't. Should the Confederate flag be removed from all government locations, NO. Should we label everyone that owns and flies a Confederate Flag as a racist bigot, NO! Most people do not realize that many of the state flags we see now flying at state capitals buildings also flew alongside the Confederate flag during the Civil War. Those flags were also representing the same thing that the Confederate flag did. They were all fighting for States' rights and yes, one of the rights many were fighting for was the so-called right to own slaves. Should we also remove the State flags from Capital buildings that were used during the Civil War? Many of the Southern State flags have incorporated parts of the Confederate flag into the design of their flags. Should all these flags also be removed? You can also look at the American flag poorly if you choose to. Slavery existed for over 200 years under the American flag. Under the American flag we lead thousands of Native Americans to their death when we forced them to march down the Trail of tears. Under the American flag we forced up to 120,000 Japanese Americans into prison camps during WW2. Sixty-two percent of the internees were United States citizens. Should we also get rid of it? When does this madness and PC stuff end?

It's not the flag that is the problem, it's our hearts and our leaders.

It's a shame that there is all this controversy over the rebel flag because one stupid idiot decides to do something stupid. Yes I do feel grief for the families that lost love ones and for any other person that has lost something because of a pure hate crime. But does two wrongs make it right? For anyone who believes that the confederate flag is a racist symbol needs to open the history books and read a few chapters. Blacks and white fought side by side in each and every war. We stood together in school and at sporting events to say our pledges to the American flag. The confederate flag is a symbol of southern heritage not of slavery. Those who believe that are ignorant and should be forced to take a history lesson on the reason behind the flag and it's meaning. For as long as I can remember the south has proudly flown an American flag and a confederate flag. Black or white you're heritage is the way of life as you live it. Why make all suffer for one's stupidity? I am not racist and never will be!Sorry for the rant but this bullshit is getting old. Leave the flags alone and just focus on the people who did wrong. How can you call yourself the governor of South Carolina but betray your state by removing our flag? I have followed you on facebook since the day I created my account but as of today I will be following your page. You disgust me with your action and the way you are betraying our beautiful state. From a citizens point of view all the controversy over the flag removal is only going to cause more and more problems with the residents of tis state and others. I've heard lots of people say that the president is the cause of Americas downfall bit t is not him alone. It is people like you and your supporters that try to take our free speech and heritage for shame. LEAVE OUR HERITAGE ALONE! God bless each and everyone of y'all and hope he blesses America too!

 <SUBJECT>The Removal of our Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

My name is Alyssa [REDACTED] and I wanted to bring forth the issue of the removal of the Confederate flag. Ma'am I know that the shooting was horrific but that doesn't concern the flag. The Confederate flag has been around for almost 200 years, it is in our history and a huge part of the South's Heritage. A lot of people are upset due to the fact that the flag is irrelevant to the shooting. I apologize for what I'm about to say if it offends anyone, but I am sick and tired of African Americans complaining about everything we do. Every time an African American gets shot by a white person it's labeled as racism, and to be honest it's pathetic. Slavery was so long ago and people just need to let it go. I can't stress enough how we all clearly have equal rights and it makes me so mad when African Americans throw it up in our face and do everything they can to make them still look like the victims: I'm not going anywhere until that flag is back to where it belongs. I do not care who I make mad, because frankly I'm mad myself. All the south wants is their flag back, I'm so tired of people think we're all arrogant rednecks, when honestly if it came down to it, the south could outlive the City folk. Ma'am I am not trying to disrespect you in anyway. I'm just a small town girl that wants the flag back to where it belongs. I can go on all day and try to persuade you to put it back, but I'm not gonna waste your time, knowing that you're not going to do the right thing and put it back. It saddens me that a part of our history is gone, all because some black people wanted to wait almost 200 years to complain about our flag, because that's all they do, is complain. I will make a difference, I don't care what it takes, and I will not go away until the flags back. Thank you for your time ma'am. Have a blessed day.

Sincerely,

Alyssa [REDACTED]

I am shocked at the deception and the lies of the media concerning what flag(s) fly over the Capitol building. The Confederate battle flag does not fly there, as you know. As you know, the Confederate battle flag flies over the Civil War Centennial Monument. That flag cannot be removed as the pole has no trucks or halyards. That square battle flag is a memorial dedicated to the brave men who fought and died to preserve South Carolina from illegal Northern aggression and tyranny. To demand its removal is ignorant and insulting to the people of South Carolina. To give in to the demands of the ignorant is appeasement by means of destroying what the mob hates: white American history. Appeasement in the same manner as Ferguson: give them what they want or they will become angry or worse. Let us also appease our personal guilt. Will that resolve the true issue? "When", I am compelled to ask, is enough "Enough"?

If you have read this far then know this: I am not a white American, I am an American. Period. Pitiful to note that like so many women who are governors you are a sleeve-crying liberal and for such issues as appease your personal and political guilt you are willing to take a leading role. Concerning those issues which honor history and heritage, courage and sacrifice and the preservation of laws in force, such as the men of South Carolina demonstrated as a matter of conscience, honor and law, you choose to be nothing more than a mouthpiece for ignorance and the willful destruction of what those brave men died to preserve. Slavery was not the chief issue in 1861 and today is a dead issue. Reparations in any manner for same including taking down the flag will not resolve the true issue, which is not one of skin color or history and neither of which can be changed or rendered harmless by any legislative act. The issue is this: how much more degradation of American culture "allowing" a certain level of destructive public permissiveness among the anarchists are we going to "tolerate"? America is at the moral tipping point. History avers that appeasement is the stepchild of cowardice. Will appeasement by removing the Confederate battle flag resolve the issue? Ask the anarchists.

Governor Haley, I am writing to urge you not to come to a hasty decision concerning the Confederate flag. As you know the media is exercising their right to spew poisonous propaganda, clouding the real issue, and whipping our state into nationwide drama. The AME church is handling the violent act on their church members with grace and dignity. However, the media and certain politicians and Amazon are running full speed ahead, wielding the huge fist of racism, headed right smack at South Carolina. Please realize that Dylan Roof is a terribly sick man. We highly doubt that the Confederate flag flying on the Capitol grounds had any influence on this man's horrible decision to do what he did in Charleston. Please, please don't jump on the race wagon and hastily take down the Confederate flag? I ask you to look away from where the media would have you look, and see the flag as a rich part of our State's heritage. On the other hand, if you choose to let the liberal media, and Lindsay Graham sway you into removing the flag, you will have sold the people of South Carolina out. We voted for you because we saw strong, righteous leadership qualities in you. We have applauded you as you've stood tough and taken on ObamaCare. Please don't cave to these liberal ideals. Removing the flag will not fix any problem. It will wrongly portray to our nation, and to the world, that we, the people of South Carolina are deeply racially divided. God bless you as you seek do what's right. Sincerely, Suzanne [REDACTED] Pickens SC

Hi my name is Mike. I have been following the Confederate flag debate and I object to racism and hate crimes, but I also object to the removal of the Confederate flag. If it is taken down from who's to say it won't be taken down from soldiers of Confederate fallen? The United States flag as existed under slavery and used under hatred. I have seen African-Americans display the Confederate flag many times. What about Civil War reenactments? If you want to ban or outlaw it on public grounds does that include the same for Civil War reenactments? I don't own a Confederate flag myself, but I am a Civil War buff. I think at the very least it should be allowed to be displayed some on public grounds in the form of a memorial. What about Civil War battlefields? Does the flag have to be removed from those public grounds?

My wife and I have been considering a move to South Carolina. Your decision to ban the Confederate flag truly disappointed us. Your decision has sent ridiculous shockwaves through out this country. You are acting like a liberal. You are not thinking clearly. The flag had nothing to do with the horrible incident in the church. The truth is that the problem is people. People that perpetuate hatred and constantly stir the racial pot are the ones that you need to ban. Jesse Jackson, Al Sharpton, Malcom X, etc. These people are responsible for continually perpetuating hatred and distrust among the races. A true conservative would know this. I can only surmise that you are more interested in getting reelected than doing the right thing for your constituents.

Poor decision making and liberal leaning has led me away from the Republican party. Sarah Palin would agree with me. The confederacy was part of our history. And the Battle flag of the confederacy has nothing to do with hatred. As a southerner, I feel a sense of pride when I see that flag.

You are making a huge mistake. Place the blame where the blame truly belongs. The real problem is ignorant people and racists. It has nothing to do with an inanimate object. Saying that the Confederate flag caused this is like blaming a spoon for making people fat. Ridiculous!!!

Governor,

I have supported you to the point of contributing to your campaign. However, I can't tell you how disappointed I am in your speech regarding removing the flag. You claim in the speech to represent the people and yet this action is nothing more than pandering to a minority group that seeks to force their will on the majority. We saw very few White majority on the stage with you during this speech so again it was pandering to a small percentage of the population.

The claim that this Historic flag caused the shooting is as absurd as a video caused the killing at Benghazi or that the AAA causes drunk driving. They are unfounded lies and should not be given credence. Rather they should be rebuffed. Ironically and sadly the removal of the flag as a result of demands by the NAACP control freaks gives some credibility to murderer Roof's comment about them taking over the Country.

I suspect that removal of the flag will do little other than to foster more anti-Black sentiment. It certainly will not cause the NAACP crowd to now vote Republican and for jobs vs. Obama's unemployment checks.

I guess Democrats are afraid the flag reminds us that it was they who fought to block Republican President Lincoln from freeing the slaves and who after they lost formed the KKK, which they operate to this day. I guess, being arrogantly insensitive to Military families, they want the flag displayed in a museum where they think Blacks won't see it. Hopefully the flag in the Museum will be a large one to show our solidarity.

I know you are in a tough spot and the Legislature will no doubt give in to this absurd frenzy by again showing its weakness and let the minority NAACP again run roughshod over us. What they will not be able to change are our attitudes or our votes.

Amazing that in several years we can't handle a gas tax and fix roads but in a week and we can let the NAACP trample us in the spineless Legislature.

Governor Nikki Haley,

I understand the situation with the confederate flag. My great great grandfather on my mother's side fought at the Battle of Gettysburg and lost one of his legs in the battle of the Wheat fields. My third great grandfather on my father's side fought in the confederate army, and my third great uncle fought for the confederate army and they both died in the Civil War. I feel an idea of putting the confederate battle flag in a museum in this ideal way. The state museum should have a flag room and the idea of this room is to have every single flag that ever has flown in SC, each in its own clear plastic case so each flag is shown in a history lesson type setting with a panel telling the story of that flag and when it flew and how it came about it coming to fly in SC. I know the British flag flew in our state as did so many. I hope my idea can be considered so that so our history isn't forgotten. Thank you for hearing me out.

Dear Gov. Haley: I noted your courage in deciding to take down the Confederate battle flag from State grounds. But WHY did you not order its removal for Sen. Pinckley's casket passing by?

That flag is not a symbol of culture, where did you get such an idea! It is a symbol of white supremacy, racial hatred, KKK, lynchings, Jim Crow. Seeing Mr. Pinckley lie in his coffin (under the flag of hatred) was an ugly moment for this country; the devolution this represented for the US made me feel sick.

You should have taken down the flag. You had the power to do so. Why didn't you? I can only conclude you lack awareness of (or don't care about) the hateful effects of racism as it played out in S.C. You have harmed a lot of people by refusing to take down the flag. ## I will donate to your opponent, whoever he/she may be, next time around. You have failed your state and your country.

Sincerely,

Mrs. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I watched your call for the removal of the Confederate Flag from our memorial on the state house grounds. At that moment in time, I said to myself this is only the start. People with an agendy will want to take down statues and other monuments. They will say take them all down. It did not take very long for some people to begin defacing public property because they are offended.

I do not support the removal of the flag.

Our state and our people treated each other just fine a couple weeks ago. All this debate is doing is driving a wedge between people who respect the flag and those who say they are offended by the flag. History teaches us and I personally feel we need reminders of history in order to move forward.

Why would a 10 year old be offended by a flag? Because they were taught to be offended.

Regards,
 Martin [REDACTED]

PS. I guess we have to get rid of Confederate Memorial Day. That certainly offends people.

 <MSG>

Good day,

I live in Maryland and lived for 10 years in the south. The flag as I know it stood for courage and backbone, created when the North said to the South your people are too stupid and too poor to form a Calvary. Lives were lost, families torn...and while the South "lost", the flag has continued. It has flown through many wars to give that soldier the strength to carry on and face the enemy...as a beware of the Rebel.

This movement has stirred emotions. It is not the flags fault for the actions of Roof. Why is there not a movement to take down the internet that caused his mind to become infected? Most important of this very bad decision, is that this very movement will put Roof in the history books forever making him a legend, infamous. Not because of his act as much as the reaction of this movement. They will not remember your push for this, as much as what he accomplished with his actions. Why should we allow this man ANY notoriety?

You have a civil duty to your state and this country. Removing the flag will not do for you as much as what it will do for Roof. Can you really live with the knowledge that because of you he becomes a part of history? To be known as the man who brought the Confederate Flag down? Because beleive me....it will not be you remembered as the person who brought it down in those history books.

It is not uncommon for a political person to reevaluate their position. We, I, am asking you to respect not only this flag, but the people who have died for its real cause, not a madman's actions.

Sincerely,
 Carol [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Dear Governor,

While I am not from your state (born and raised in the Illinois), I am a soldier, and such I do think the Confederate flag is an important part of American history, correctly used in your state to honor and remember the Confederate soldiers and units. It is not in that way a symbol of anything else, other than a soldiers flag. Union General Joshua Chamberlain was asked what he saw in the Confederate battle flag and he said it represents the sacrifices and service of those brothers on the other side. Remember, it was a war that pitted brother against brother, and in that way the battle flag is integral to remember them. Many in the media today are ignorant of this, so I would keep that in mind.

The Confederate soldiers were all Americans, they were not traitors. Lincoln also emphasizes Southerners were countryman, not traitors, and he believed in malice toward none. Leaders like you should remind the rabid press that stirring hatred against the history of the Confederacy and its soldiers is malice, and not in the spirit of what Lincoln wanted in the peace. It is un-Christian.

If I was you, I would direct the US Flag, the SC flag, and the Confederate flag on state grounds flown at half-mast as a symbol of solidarity to the victims. Certainly, God fearing Christian Confederate soldiers would agree in such a display of condolence for these Christian victims. This mentally ill criminal does not represent the mind of the soldier, not of any American war, and not of those who wore blue or gray.

No, I am not a resident of South Carolina so you don't have to be concerned about my vote. I am a Southerner and am very concerned about your knee-jerk reaction to the recent shooting in the black church which was horrific. However, the Confederate flag did not do the shooting or play a part in the tragedy that occurred. The problem lies with a tragic youth who had been on drugs and was unbalanced mentally. The Confederate flag is NOT a symbol of hate. If you would read up on the history of South Carolina, then you would know that app. 1/4th of the men in South Carolina were killed during the Civil War that resulted in casualties of over 1 million men. This flag is a symbol to honor those Southern men who gave their lives. Do you not care about that? This is not about a flag. Use some common sense instead of being so overly emotionally reactive to a symbol that people have incorrectly judged to be about hate. Stop being so caught up in the hateful rhetoric from the left (are you a Republican?) and think this through logically and rationally. What about honoring the dead men of the South? What's next? Are you going to remove memorials that honor our Confederate generals and other men who died in this horrible Civil War? If you do, then perhaps you should step down. You seem to cater to a certain group and ignore the others who have a reason to honor this flag.

I am writing you today with the pretense of this is a much faster and more efficient way to get a message to the Governor. I am a proud African American who is also a very proud Southern lady. If this flag were to be removed you would be offending not only me but all of the other proud Southern citizens that not only live in South Carolina but also offending everyone from the south that are proud of their history even with the negative aspects of that. I understand that a lot of people are not fluent in history and see this flag as a symbol of slavery, but those in this country that know our history will tell you this flag represents not letting the government oppress us as a people and that slavery became an issue almost half way into the Civil War as a proud Southerner I urge you to not remove the flag from your state buildings. It is apart of the History and Heritage of South Carolina

Dear Governor Haley,

I appreciate you moving to have the stars and bars taken down. Like you I know that it's time to put that part of history behind us. But as one of my friends longly and loudly told me night before last there is also the issue of Confederate heritage. But unlike modern Germans who are stuck with the Swastika as a Nazi symbol we are lucky because we don't have to use the Battle Flag. I have a number of friends that are heavy into being Confederate reenactors.

I asked one of them why he didn't have any stars and bars flags as I thought that was something that he would definitely have. Nope, he has a distaste for the White Supremacists so instead he has a Confederate flag of North Carolina. So when the discussion starts why not replace it with history! Why not raise this flag instead.

This is a Confederate flag that is about YOUR history but it hasn't been used for hate groups. It is a flag that can teach.

You see for people like me the race issue is a lot closer to home. My son married a black lady so I have black grandkids. When I found out you know what I told him. "Son you are going to have some wonderful kids because of hybrid vigor. A hybrid is always more vigorous growing than the two original stocks!" Instead of drinking the racist Kool-Aid why not keep a different model in mind. One based on science because if you go the other way you have only to look at the over breed dogs that have all of the problems this causes. Good luck and thanks for being brave. Next month I have a voting rights meeting to go to. As a nice black man told me yesterday them rags don't matter it's how we treat each other that is!

The people of SC didn't vote for her to cave because she fears being called a racist or bigot, because to democrats she is STILL a racist and bigot. Even though I don't think she anticipated the elimination of everything southern, she as a republican and more so as a politician, should have known by now how liberals operate. She single handily started what is sure to be in the months and years ahead, a purge of any and everything that defines the South. Maybe she doesn't take pride in being Southern and understand what that flag represents, but she should know a lot of people are hurt and upset at what she started. That flag didn't just represent honoring confederate soldiers, it represented states rights, being conservative, conservative values and morals, and much more. She's done what no democrat could have ever done and I call on her to apologize. Also, let her know that because of this and the overall ineffectiveness of the republican party, no one in my family will be voting again for anyone. Now we have nothing to define the South and will be so ostracized and labeled as racist more so then ever if we dare choose to personally fly the flag. She's basically made the flag criminal. Thanks you gut less pig.

Thank you so much for calling for the removal the confederate flag from the South Carolina state Capitol.

I live in Oregon, but my work takes me to South Carolina and other southeastern states very frequently.

I am an active Civil War reenactor, so I can appreciate that there are people interested in the history of the flag, of the confederacy, and of the Civil War.

However, it has been my experience that the most common use of the flag is for the person flying the flag to signal either (A) animus towards non-white people or (B) a nostalgia for an overly idealized past in which the white people enjoyed a privileged position and which minimizes the acknowledgement that this largely came at the expense of black Americans.

I am white and I enjoy history, but I believe the confederate flag is a symbol of exclusion, oppression, and hatred that has no place in our government offices today. I hope the flag is relocated to a history museum where it can be presented and appreciated in context.

Thank you for taking this step. I know in this politicized environment it will stir up opposition you might have avoided by not taking action. I deeply appreciate your leadership on this matter.

The fact that you would want to remove a flag of such historic importance to so many people across our nation is a disgrace. I am new Yorker by birth and I find this act to be disrespectful to all veterans of all wars and a push towards removing our freedom of expression which is granted to us by the constitution of the United States. when you make a decision such as this it solves nothing except appease the black community. The young man that committed these horrible acts does not represent the majority of Americans.

Politically motivated emotional reactions are highly volatile events that soon, in most cases are regretted and repeatedly apologized for. History cannot be changed. Thousands of Carolina sons died in the Civil War, must their memory be shunned? This entire rhubarb over a symbol, the Confederate Flag, will soon pass and become an exercise in futility. A grandiose display of pandering to the African-American community. Who too, will regret that deed and harm wrought by demanding the Confederate Flag be disgraced because of the despicable act by one 21 year old punk.

So I ask you to please consider the rights of all Americans before supporting the flag removal.

Thank You Victor [REDACTED]

This flag issue is very puzzling to me..I am not sure why removing the flag is even an issue..How can we, the people, remove oppression, ignorance, hatred if it is waving in our faces 24/7? The Flag represents the Souths heritage, but in my opinion, it is not a heritage to be proud of..Slavery was evil! The past is the past, but SC is trying to keep it alive..

History is in the past..We should learn about history from books and museums. Slavery represents hatred and ignorance, which unfortunately flies proudly in SC. I have read statements from Senators who feel the flag is in honor of their ancestors heritage..Wow, how can they not see how desecrating this must be for our African American citizens? How can we fly it and say, no prejudice here? Please take a stand and do what's right to end this degrading madness..

Thank you,

It is a shame and a disgrace to allow the confederate flag to fly over his homegoing ceremony. The flag that should be flying at half staff is the USA flag. Governor Haley you do have the power in your pen to change this now. This is sent with upmost respect and honor for the position you hold as Governor of SC. Please remove the flag immediate.

Thank you & God bless you

I believe what you've done with our flag is a huge miscarriage of justice. It is people like you that continue to cause this racial divide. Tell me how that flag got off that pole, went into a church, and shot a bunch of innocent people. You have FAILED the southerners of this state. You are on your own political agenda and you have completely ignored those that you were sworn to represent. Be another sheep on the slaughter table. Removing our flag caused Beasley's failure, be sure you are the next to go. When you take away OUR rights of free speech you can not be trusted with anything else. What's next Haley, everything that has to do with southern culture? Do you want our grits and gravy too? Your actions have left us with regret that you were voted for and know it will not happen again. You should be completely ashamed of yourself. My God in heaven, knows I ashamed for you. You politicians will cause the next world war that you are all hoping for. It's time for the South to go back to the reason for OUR FLAG. Southern rights and independence. I'm so done with ya'll.

Since you have now decided that it is politically correct now to remove flag, I would suggest that you and all the state legislature remove any and everything related to Ben Tillman and Strom Thurmon.

These two men were both racist and segregationist in the purest form, and if that flag creates so much hatred, I could imagine the hatred that these two men create. Once we rid ourselves of all these past symbols of racism and hatred, then there will be no more killings, and nothing more than love and respect. Sounds silly, doesn't it. The Confederate flag killed noone. It is hard to believe that you are doing this. Where were you 5 years ago? I doubt your motive, and you could have done this earlier, But you were up for reelection, and it might not have been to your advantage then. This is wrong, and my suspect is that this will divide, and since you have no relatives who fought and died for their state, I feel you have no idea of what this flag means to alot of people. You say the statehouse is for all people, then why give to one and take from another. I voted for you twice, but I will never vote for you again,if you ever run for public office.

Governor Haley, You have hurt the people of the south so much by your actions of removing our beloved flag, which never stood for hate, but love of our Confederacy, and all because of politics. I am afraid this might hurt all the Republican Candidates, as your actions are spreading all over America, and even talk about removing beloved statues of the Confederacy. You see, Texas is the best place to live as far as economical reasons, so in Houston alone, our population has soared, and these people are certainly not of the south, so have no feelings for our ancestry I had loved ones die for our flag, and for you to spit on it, is like spiting on the American Flag. I hated that the people in that church were killed, but hate caused that, not our flag. I am ashamed of the whole thing, considering I have been a Republican for 59 years, and have many great black friends that saw war arising from your actions.

Dear Governor Haley,

I agree that it is time for the Confederate flag to be removed. However, for many it is a symbol of Southern Pride that isn't easily given up. South Carolina has shown the nation that we handle things differently in the South than the rest of the nation. I believe we should commision a new Southern Flag that all South Carolinians, regardless of race, can unite behind. That flag should be placed on the Capitol grounds to replace the current flag.

Best Regards,
 Mark [REDACTED]

If removing this flag from a government sites would stop racial ignorance, it would be fine. But we all know it will not stop because it is continuing to be taught. This fight for the flag only adds fuel to the fire as separating both sides of the argument. The flag is not responsible and removing it will only be the first thing of many that will be expected to be removed from our history. Where will it end?

I would like to register my vote to leave the flag exactly where it is. It is a part of SC history, like it or not. The confederate flag had absolutely nothing to do with what happened in charleston, and to connect the two items is just trying to seek political mileage out of this tragedy. The Governor should listen to her entire constituent voices, and follow the wishes of those that elected her. Basically, if she pushes to remove the flag, I will not vote for her in any office she is running for.

Governor, I am very disappointed in your decision of the Confederate flag! The killing of the 9 people is very, very bad! This was done by a crazy person and hopefully he will get the death penalty. This incident has absolutely nothing to do with a flag. This flag is a historical thing of the South and has nothing to do with racism! I grew up in NC and I am not racist and I despise people that are! Please don't bend over and act like Obama and most of the liberals and liberal media! This is America for God sake, let us all act like it!

As a retired member of the us air force and a Vietnam vet, I do no agree with your backing of removal of the battle flag my great, great grandfather fought in the Civil war with the 69th Virginia calvary I consider it a part of my heritage.I can understand some peoples views of this matter, but in my opinion the flag was not responsible for this tragedy,this guy is a nut case. So today the flag,what is next on their agenda for removal.Do not get me wrong I have a lot of black friends that I am proud to know. By the way I voted for you both times, and I think you have been one of our better Governors. thank you for your time.

Dear Governor Haley:

We should never outlaw any speech, action or mode of behavior by private individuals, just because it is "politically-incorrect" or otherwise offensive and unpopular. Nothing in the U.S. Constitution guarantees us protection of emotions against all possible injury, it is up to us, how thin or thick our skins are. I support 100% the right of private individuals and organizations to display the Confederate flag, so long as we also allow other signs, symbols and publications, perhaps offensive to some of us for other reasons, to exist. One man's trash is another man's treasure, and we therefore cannot define "offensive speech" in a way which satisfies the U.S. Constitution 14th amendment.

However, I support government effort to abolish display of the Confederate flag on any government properties, lest the flag's presence on government property be interpreted by the public as government endorsement of the Old Southern Confederacy, with all its abhorrent policies and practices.

Sincerely,

Lawrence K [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, I wanted to suggest that you speak to Congress, or encourage them in other ways, to concentrate their efforts for now ONLY with moving the Confederate flag inside a building perhaps to give it its place in our history rather than on our building. I think if they do just that one thing, the removal of the flag from the State House grounds, they will be successful and they will have peace. Conversely, I think if they continue to talk about other places where the flag is or other Confederate memorials, like the Generals' statutes -- I really believe things could quickly go very badly and the peace that we are trying to maintain could be lost and replaced by divisiveness.

Thank you for considering my suggestion. Whatever you do I will support you in it. Thank you for your service to our great state!

Sincerely,
Sherry [REDACTED]

I commend the Governrnor's decision on SUPPORTING the removal of the Confederate Battle Flag since it so offensive to many people. I am wondering why no one has considered making everyone happy by flying the confederate state flag instead? It is the flag of Georgia minus the state seal and there has been no outcry since it was adopted as it is not offensive. Just an idea to consider that could satisfy everyone.

How is the gay and lesbian flag (rainbow) free speech and the confederate battle flag not? I think it's ridiculous to take that flag down. It means what you want it to mean to you. If a person has a southern heritage and that flag is part of that, they should have the right to see it when they visit a Confederate Memorial. If that flag offends, look past it, like white people do when Al Sharpton says something stupid.

I'm a republican, and would likely vote for you if I were a citizen of your state, but I am not. Still, your stance has a national effect, so I feel I have a right to question you.

Dear Madam Governor,

As individuals, in order to understand who we truly are, we need to understand where we have been. Our history needs to be remembered; so past mistakes are not repeated. Taking the battle flag off of the war memorial at our Statehouse will not be enough to appease its opponents. Other Confederate reminders will need to be removed as well. Attacks are already being made on Confederate monuments, license tags, welcoming signs to towns; and Confederate merchandise is being removed from stores. No, opponents of the battle flag will not be content until all Confederate history is erased from memory. The same assault is even being carried out on earlier American history. Opponents want to rename buildings and places named after our forefathers too; because they were slave owners. Maybe these people will be content when all history is erased. Then, history will be doomed to repeat itself.

It is truly a shame that this flag issue has resurfaced at this tragic time; when our attention should be focused on the pain and suffering of those affected by the actions of a very mentally ill young man. Those pushing their agenda are taking advantage of this situation; and don't really care about respect and tolerance for their fellow man.

I really don't expect my comments to make much of a difference; but at least for now, I have the freedom to express them. I also think that my "one vote" will not matter to anyone, except me; but I always exercise my right to vote. And, I will remember how you choose to represent the people of South Carolina.

Sincerely,

Charla [REDACTED]
 Moncks Corner, SC

Governor Nikki Haley

Dear Governor Haley,

You missed a very significant opportunity in moving forward in race relations today. To have not removed the Confederate Flag before the casket of Rep. Clementa Pinckney passed by, was not only insulting to him, his efforts and service but to many of us as Americans who fly one flag. Be assured that I will support a boycott of South Carolina.

 <SUBJECT>Keep the flag</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

I'm from Atlanta. Never been a good ole boy; thought Lester Maddox was insane, Julian Bond a voice of calm and reason.

The flag has never directed my thoughts to racism. At worst, it reminds me of a mistake that we should never repeat.

To me, the Confederate flag is a reminder of Americans' willingness to fight for independence: the South's hopeless fight against a superior foe. It would have been disastrous to have won, but I'm still very proud of being Southern.

The flag also represents to me a time of hospitality and a genteelness that no other part of the country has since matched. I'm happy to see those qualities in every color.

Trying to change history to please others is wrong. The flag represents the 13 Southern States. Just as anything other thing in life, some have chosen to use the flag as a hate symbol. That is not the way everyone feels. It's people that hurt others, not a flag.

 <MSG>

Most Honorable Governor;

The Confederate Flag is a symbol of freedom of all citizens who resided in our Southern States before and after the Civil War and continue to reside in our Southern States. It represents the entire brotherhood and sisterhood of everyone who lives in South Carolina and in the other 12 States whose stars are represented on the famous flag.

When President Lincoln signed the Proclamation of Emancipation, the document only freed the so-called servants of the Southern Plantation owners. The ones controlled by the wealthy families were not required to release control of their servants who were forcibly brought to our nation by selfish self-centered men who sought wealth by selling the men, women, and children kidnapped from their own countries. The sad part of this is how women are being kidnapped and sold to foreign leaders and wealthy men in other countries especially in the Middle East for illicit physical abuse and assaults from their owners.

In essence, to pull the flag down over the hate expressed by the descendants of those who were part of the issues in our nation before 1861 or by those who have been triggered to induce more hate will change our nation into a greater hate environment.

Mrs. Haley,

While I respect your negative view of one of the many battle flags used in the former Confederate-American Army, I wonder if we should also ban the use of flags with the Star of David, the flag of every African nation, the flag of Iran, and every European flag since every nation has had slavery at some point. Also, we should ban religions of Judaism and Christianity since they teach slavery is not wrong. In fact, they teach how a slave and the owner are to treat one another! Is this not wrong in 'modern' times?

Kind Regards,

Kevin

I'm sending this because I'm a concerned South Carolinian whose heritage is under attack. While I am saddened by the fact an evil Boy committed a horrible attack on church members, the Flag has nothing to do with the crime. The swift punishment should be pointed at the boy, after all, he pulled the trigger. I ask that we have a state wide vote on the removing of the flag issue. Don't let outsiders with their view of what We should do, according to what they think. There's only one group of people that continually call the flag racist. Again,I ask that the residents of South Carolina have a say(vote) in this democratic society we live in.

Thanks

I know the decision made in the Confederate Flag was a very hard and no win situation for you and your administration. The soldiers of your State that died for The CSA though do deserve to have memorials with the flag of the Nation that they served and died for flying above them.

My only suggestion would be to replace the "Battle Flag" with the original CSA "Stars and Bars". It was an authorized CSA Flag and would be less offensive than the current "Battle" flag flown.

I think that this would be fitting in recognition for the lives lost in service of the State of South Carolina and the C.S.A. They deserve respect and recognition.

Thank you for your time.

Dear Governor,

I want to thank you for taking a stand on removing the Confederate Flag from your state house.

I realize that the flag is a tribute to those southerners, who fought valiantly for the ideals that they believed in, during the war between the states and, as such, should be honored. However, every time I had the opportunity to visit Charleston, my overriding feeling was that the Civil War was still being fought in South Carolina.

As a Northerner, who has visited Charleston several times, I loves the area, it's history, beauty and grace, and I am contemplating making it my winter home in retirement. It truly gladdens my heart to see that one of the symbols that continually reminds the vast majority of people of the evil of slavery will be addressed. I truly agree with the President and, unfortunately, feel that rascism remains a constant issue in this country. Whether it is overt and blatant, or insidious and implied, in the North and in the South, we as a people still have a long way to go to insure that all of our people are treated equally and with the respect any human being deserves. By removing the Confederate flag from the state house, you will have taken a huge step in the right direction.

I applaud you.

Sincerely,
 Catherine [REDACTED]

Why do you wish to remove a flag that is a symbol of your State? It is a major part of American history. If you review the history of the Civil War, it was not totally about slavery, but primarily about state's rights. You cannot bend to the wishes of a few people who have too much time on their hands. I'm sure that you (Governor) and your State legislature have many, many more pressing items on which to spend your valuable time. If there are those that do not want the flag flown over State Capitol grounds, they are free to leave the State and go elsewhere.

Would you discontinue flying the American flag if a group of people thought it was offensive to them? Please think long and hard on your decision regarding this situation. Thank you for your time.

 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

My name is Ben Norman and I will do my best to keep this short.

I have lived my whole life in SC and attended the University of South Carolina, even though I am an avid Clemson fan. I want to stand up and defend the Confederate Battle Flag as I was taught at a very young age the difference between the flag's heritage and the flag's slippery past. However, I feel that it may come down regardless of those efforts. My questions is that when it comes down, could I have it, or one that has flown before? I have heard of people getting flags that have flown on the Statehouse before and this is my best attempt at doing the same.

Please let me know if there is a formal process behind this.

Thank you for reading this.

Sincerely,

Ben [REDACTED]

IT IS REALLY UPSETTING TO ME THAT YOU AND YOUR COHORTS IN SC ARE CONSIDERING BANNING THE CONFEDERATE FLAG. FIRST OF ALL LET ME TELL YOU THAT FLAGS DO NOT KILL PEOPLE PEOPLE KILL PEOPLE NOT GUNS OR KNIVES OR ANYTHING ELSE EXCEPT CANCER ETC. THAT MAN HAS NO CONTROL OVER. IF YOU ARE A TRUE CONSERVATIVE YOU WILL TELL THE KNEE JERK LIBERALS THAT YOU WILL PROUDLY FLY THE CONFEDERATE FLAG AS ALWAYS AND THAT THIS IS A SYMBOL OF YOUR STATES HERITAGE JUST AS BLACKS HAVE THERE SYMBOLS OF THERE HERITAGE. THE SAD FACT IS THAT WE LIVE IN A RACIST COUNTRY AND THE POLITICAL LEFT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS AND THRIVES ON IT AND GARNERS VOTES ON IT BY KEEPING BLACKS AND LOWER ECONOMIC CLASSES BROKE. IF PEOPLE REALLY WANT TRUE ECONOMIC FREEDOM WE WILL RECOGNIZE THAT PEOPLE ARE RACIST ALL OVER THE WORLD BUT THE ONLY THING KEEPING US FROM BEING REALLY FREE IS DEMOCRATS. IF WE HAD A TRUE DEMOCRACY WHERE MORE THAN 52% OF THE PEOPLE VOTED AND WERE ABLE TO RID THE COUNTRY OF THE LIBERAL ELITE MEDIA AND THE RACISTS LIKES OF AL SHARPTON AND BARACK OBAMA THE COUNTRY WOULD THRIVE. I WOULD HOPE THAT YOU WOULD STEP BACK AND REALIZE THAT THE CONFEDERATE FLAG DID NOT PULL THE TRIGGER ON THE 9 BLACKS IN THAT CHURCH BUT LIBERAL SOCIETY DID ALONG WITH THE NUT THAT PULLED THE TRIGGER.

Governor Haley,

I previously voted for you, and feel you are doing a great job for South Carolina. But while I don't believe in capitulating to the call for removal of the Confederate Flag, I do feel that it is time to remove it, and place it in the SC Historical Museum. It is a valid part of our heritage, and I was born and raised in the south, so I don't personally see the flag as something negative, but I understand why others do.

I think it is in South Carolina's best interests, both economically and socially, to remove the flag soon, because delaying it to a vote, would show that we really didn't mean what we said. And, I believe it would be a deterrent for new business/companies, considering moving here. With that being said, I feel it is time for it to be removed, and relocated to the state historical museum, immediately. Otherwise, I am concerned for SC's future, in terms of how the rest of the World sees us. Please don't let this matter get be-labored in the government. You made your decision, now I believe it's time to see it through, expeditiously. Thank you for listening.

Hello, people want to remove the state flag because it's considered "racist"? Why? You can't please them. If you remove Black History month They say they're being oppressed. Leave it and you offend them. I feel like the best way to handle this is to give proper history about the flag, and remove all doubt.

Governor Haley,

We need to remember and honor the people that died in the civil war. I believe more people died in this war than all wars put together. And this war was fought on American ground. Keeping the flag up would do this. It's a shame that a hand full of individuals use the flag as a sign of racism. We do not need to give in to the NAACP and other groups that only see the small picture or want to apply their agenda. Thanks.

To say that what happened with the rioting in Baltimore was caused by a statement of a flag would be erroneous. Pride runs deeply with individuals, and as such NAACP should be not only for people of color, but an organization for ALL. To have a reflection of not a Piracy Flag; but one who real people died! We need to stick together more than ever of all colors of all races!!!! This could be a major game changer for the good of all. I wish no one ill-will; and I truly pray for all who have had a tragedy during what has happened. To say that the flag was what caused this young man to cause this tragedy is wrong and has caused discord with many. I am truly glad we can reflect on the United States Flag, but I truly believe that we need to appreciate the past for what we have today and not blame what one person does; whereas it could have been any power item that he had in his possession at that time.....

<MSG>

Governor Haley, I applaud your forthright spirit on the issue of the murders of nine innocent human beings who were in Bible Study at Charleston's Emanuel AME Church on the evening of 17 June 2015. Your efforts to displace the Confederate battle flag from state grounds--as a strong, visible icon-- is commendable. Please excuse me if I am incorrect in the following statement: Your heritage is Sikh; and, you are also a dedicated Christian, a United Methodist, which I also think is wonderful. A Sikh nationalist assassinated Mahatma Gandhi at one of his prayer meetings on 30 January 1948. You know the POWER OF PRAYER in the Mahatma's nonviolent movement and in your own personal life, and all parts of your life have compelled you to raise the issue of the flag as a statement of healing that does connect back to Mahatma Gandhi and his Ahimsa Movement. What you are doing is more important for human beings generally. I taught the sons, nephews and cousins of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. at Morehouse College. My BEATITUDES (1983) form the afterword of a King-family volume, DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.: A KING FAMILY TRIBUTE (2013) that is available on Amazon. May you labor to do greater good for humanity every day.

Dear Governor Haley,
My wife and I have supported you, donated (not a lot but what we could) to help you when running for office and voted for you twice . We are completely against your decision to remove the flag. It is not a symbol of hate as the liberals have said. It is a remembrance of a great many brave and honorable men and women(many of whom owned no slaves at all) who lost their lives fighting for the principles of our Republic. The Confederate States were fighting for more than slavery,(in fact slavery was not even in the declaration of most of the States that joined the fight) they were fighting for States Rights. To keep the Federal Government and possibly an emperor (maybe similar to the one we now have) from running our lives. The way the left and Washington are herding us right now requires some backbone to stand against them or our Republic and the States Rights we have left will be lost and our Country will end up no better that that mess in Europe, if we don't go broke first. We're most disappointed with your decision. The people of Charleston made us proud as they suffered through their sadness and pain. Their action were outstanding and an example for the rest of our Country. You and the politicians, rather than celebrate their bravery and christian actions, took the easy way out and gave into the unwarranted (the flag had nothing to do with the actions of the nut job that killed the innocent people)ranting of the left and the crone press. The liberal left now decides on each and every topic what is PC and drives it down our throats and you have given them another victory. It is time to Stand against them. We expect better of you and our other elected officials.

Gov. Haley;

I respectfully ask that we keep the subject banner in place on the Capital grounds next to the Confederate Memorial. Each of these serve as a reminder of our history of self government and neither is evil in the minds of most South Carolinians I am sure. Of course these symbols had nothing to do with the sick mind that conceived of the plot to kill people in Charleston and they do have much to do with the best parts of our Southern heritage and pride.

It also seems to me that a compromise, if it comes to that, could be to display the true flag of the Confederate States of America instead of the battle flag thus creating much less of a negative feeling on the part of some people.

Governor Haley,

While I do not agree with the removal of the battle flag from the state memorial to Confederate Soldiers it may be time to place that flag in a museum. I do believe that the citizens of SC should be allowed to vote on the decision instead of it being made at the government level.

I take great pride in my Southern heritage. My ancestors came here from Ireland and I am also part Cherokee. I have always been proud of being a citizen of this state and right now I feel that as a person my thoughts and rights do not count because I am not black. I do not care what race a person is, where they work, what they do behind the closed doors of their bedroom or what church they attend. I believe that we are Americans first and foremost.

Now I see people calling for the removal of everything that has to do with the Civil War. Are these people, who are spreading their own bigotry and hate, going to be allowed to destroy all traces of Southern history? Today I see that they also want to remove the American flag. Where does it all end?

I do pray, that as the governor of this great state that you will not allow all traces of Southern heritage to be lost. Charleston, being number one on the destination list for tourist, will cease to exist if these symbols and memorials are removed.

As the leader of this state I believe that you can put a stop to some of this. Call for a vote of the people concerning the flag and issue a statement that other memorials will not be removed. I know that we do not want a race riot here. There are going to be a great number of people who will be extremely angry if all traces of our heritage are erased.

Please keep this from happening.

Thank you for listening,
Stephanie [REDACTED]

You have served to divide South Carolinians with your decision to use your bully pulpit to declare the Confederate battle flag needs to come down from its' present position. After reading your facebook page the FACT of this divisiveness is clear. If you are so eager to deny our first amendment rights, why don't you go ahead and use this tragedy to deny our second amendment rights as well? You have reacted to this tragedy in an overly emotional manner and now find yourself in the position of using the blood and grief of this heinous event to shove a purely POLITICAL agenda down the throats of the MAJORITY of South Carolinians. We swept you into office because we thought you were a conservative. Apparently, you were misjudged. You refused to use your bully pulpit to speak against common-core which is now re-packaged and alive and well in S.C. schools, but you use your powers to promote this anti-flag agenda. SHAME ON YOU!

Governor Haley,

My family roots go back over 200 years in the Great State of SC. My family served in the Revolutionary war, civil war and family who served in World War 1 and 2 and I served in the US Navy for 20 years. Everybody has an opinion and the more fuel that is added to a fire the longer it will burn. Taking down the Confederate Flag will not only bring more hate from a element of people who basically have remained mostly silent. History is what reminds us of our victories and also of our mistakes. Slavery was abhorrent I am sure that somewhere in my ancestors past they probably owned slaves and I do not respect them for this, but also it is a part of our history and we have learned from those horrible mistakes. Keep the flag up to remind us of our heritage and also to remind us our our shame.

Thank you.

The Confederate flag represents a wrong decision made by my ancestors to leave the United States of America. I think most everybody alive today is glad that their efforts failed! The Confederate flag should be taken down because it is a painful reminder of that very poor decision. I support your efforts to move it to a more appropriate location.

I am writing to your office in defense of the Confederate flag. Although I have many reasons that I believe it should stay on the capitol grounds, I have a simple question. Since more acts of racism have been committed under the stars and stripes, (i.e. the slaughter of native american tribes and the japanese internment during world war II to name a few), would you support the removal of the American flag from the state capitol grounds. I am moving to your fine state shortly and I can promise you that you and your like minded associates in the G.O.P. will not have my support. I am asking you to reconsider. Thank you.

Hello governor Haley in my opinion taking down the confederate battle flag down is a huge mistake. If the flag does have to be removed at least but up one of the other flags that the CSA adopted such as the bonnie blue, the stares and bars they are more to choose from that takes the (hate) you call it away but still keeps the SC heritage just a thought Think you for your time

I am so very disappointed in you and the other Republicans. You are trying to change history. I have no idea how we even got on the topic of removing the Confederate flag from the state house. A lunatic kills people and some how it is a flags fault. The only people spreading racism is President Obama and the rest you who are jumping on his band wagon from Ferguson to Charleston. With Senator Tim Scott and Congressman Trey Gowdy voting for TPP and you starting this flag nonsense, our state and nation are doomed. It is a sad day in South Carolina. I wish I could take my votes back.

<MSG>

How dare you cater to political correctness and ignore a rich fabric of southern and American history by calling for the removal of the Confederate flag. I am cancelling a planned vacation to your state for this fall and I am hearing of a wave of backlash coming your state's way thanks to your cowardice to stand up for free speech! Halloween is offensive to some Christians but your state has not outlawed that holiday. The cross of Christ is offensive to many, as is the American flag. I could go on and on, but, as a journalist, I'll leave you with the words of Benjamin Franklin: "If all printers were determined not to print anything till they were sure it would offend nobody, there would be very little printed."

Dear Gov. Haley,

May I suggest that you take the flag down for nine days in honor of the nine victims of this horrible unspeakable crime against fellow citizens. Then... put the flag back up! You will have kept your promise and, at the same time, preserved a proud heritage for it is symbolism v. symbolism. Then prosecute the deranged perpetrator to a just end. Case closed.

 <MSG>

Governor Haley is deluding herself and the public if she thinks that banning Confederate flag from SC capitol ground will change anything. Sales of flags skyrocketed after Haley came up with this idea. Haley has merely poured gasoline on the fire. Many people who don't own Confederate paraphernalia such as myself--would have marched with Sherman through Georgia to free the slaves--don't like government officials telling us what we should and should not buy and use. Next thing, Haley will try to ban guns, a clear violation of the Second Amendment. Tell Haley to concentrate on what governors should, which is maintaining law and order, protecting civil rights, and helping put in place conditions for a growing and diverse economy, and stop focusing on trivialities such as some idiot kid waving a Confederate flag and wearing a Gold's Gym T-shirt. Now that would be something. Haley holding another phony-baloney, teary-eyed press conference to announce a government shut-down of all the Gold's Gyms in South Carolina.

I know I don't live in South Carolina but if you bow down to people pressuring you about your flag then they will just go from state to state doing the same thing. They've got our police so scared now that they can't do their job. It won't be long until we will need to isolate the law abiding citizens. This is the best country in the world and it is spinning out of control with all this craziness.

Thanks for your time.

I am writing to suggest that when your legislature fails to meet or fails to remove your flag from the state capitol, that the governor takes the following course of action. Issue an executive order to cover it with a plastic "sock" made of a tarp like material and post a 24 hour guard on it. The legislature would need to pass a law to remove your executive order but by only a 51% margin.

I live in rising sun, Maryland the site of the last Klan rally in the north. It is a stigma that although weak still exist 50 years after the fact. Please! move on governor!

Dear Governor - I want to express my profound disappointment in your "caving in" to the politically correct left by calling for the removal of the Confederate Battle Flag from the statehouse grounds. Our heritage as well as our Christianity, our freedoms and the Constitution itself are under coordinated attack by the left. Your decision to remove a major part of South Carolina's heritage has only added momentum and encouragement to the success of the progressives. It was a total "knee jerk" reaction to a human condition that has existed since the beginning of mankind.

Mind altering drugs, hate and man's SINFUL condition are what led to the murders - not a flag that thousands died to defend. Removing the flag WILL NOT CHANGE MAN'S SINFUL HEART. Only faith in Christ can change the hearts of men.

We have become a nation of "the offended". You adhered to the adage uttered by Rham Emmanuel - "Never let a crisis go to waste". You followed the progressive playbook to the letter.

Regards - Tommy [REDACTED] - Laurens, SC

I see where you are wanting to remove the confederate flag, now this flag had nothing to do with that young man killing those folks. If you look you would see he was burning the American flag he also had two other flags on his shirt. Now they are banning Gone with wind, because it has slavery in it , will if that is the case I am offended about Black history Month, while the whites have not a month. If we all are to be treated fairly , and the Africa American gets certain things their way then want do we can in exchange. Fair is Fair, right is right. Would you not agree? This is solely my opinion.

 <MSG>

As a descendant of someone who had a family member die in "The War Of Northern Aggression", I ask why erase my southern heritage if you get to keep yours?

My family in Virginia was poor then and are now. I can assure you that there were no slaves owned by my family and that the war was fought because of states rights also. A fight that you have given up for the state of South Carolina. If you would study history then you would know that only two percent of southerners owned slaves and that the issue of slavery was not argued as the war began in 1861. It later became an issue to divide the north and south even more.

In A letter to Horace Greeley (1862) Lincoln wrote:

"I would save the Union. . If I could save the Union without freeing any slave, I would do it; and if could save it by freeing all the slaves, I would do it. . What I do about Slavery and the colored race, I do because I believe it helps to save this Union."

So do you think that the war was fought for a year and then it was decided that it was a war about slavery. Slavery stunk then and it stinks today under our ever more dictatorial state and federal governments.

I wish you the best but after voting for you twice I will not do so ever again but that's ok by you as I am sure you have decided not to run for SC Governor again. I mean I'm sure you have different plans as you are into your second term and the Battle Flag now seems to bother you.

I'm sure you have made this decision because you plan to throw your hat into the ring as President of the United States and think it will garner you votes.

If you do run please drop the Indian American from your bio. I mean if you take away my souther heritage then you shouldn't be allowed to share yours either.

Your stance on removing the Confederate Flag as a symbol of racism is just wrong. It is part of American history and should not be forgotten and politicized as racist. This is America, it's time to get back to our founding principals and keep the political pundits in check. I'm appalled as a Republican you have this misguidance. I will never again cast a vote for you.

Dear Governor Haley,

I have lived in South Carolina since 1986, and I am proud to call it home. I am proud to be a southerner, and I am proud that my children are being raised here. I value symbolism and history, and I am rather conservative about changing traditions, however, I feel strongly that the confederate flag needs to come down. I appreciate your courageous leadership on this important issue. Thank you!

It's no secret about your uneducated statement about removing the Confederate Flag, and I have my two cents for you. While not a South Carolina citizen, I was born in the south (Texas.) You are not representing your people at all by coming out with this garbage. Go back and check your history again, then either fix your prior request or resign for the people. What's next? The U.S. Flag? Washington and Thomas Jefferson were also slave owners, which is NOT what the flag is about. Leave it alone.

I did not know which field to select. Perhaps you should have an "Other" field available.

I think you are missing the point re:the young man who killed the 9 people in Charleston. Do not blame it on the Confederate flag. That boy has serious mental problems. Better care should be given to the acquisition of firearms. But the more I think about that, then that type of person would obtain the weapons illegally. He needed mental help years ago. Where are the agencies that can actually provide help? How do we find them? Do they actually exist? Some people do need to be institutionalized to protect us, the general public. I would like a reply to my email, not something that is lip service, but something that is intelligent and pro active.

FIRST OF ALL, GOVERNOR, YOU SHOULD NEVER HAVE BEEN ELECTED IN SC. I HAVE A FEELING THE FINE WHITE PEOPLE OF SC WON'T MAKE THE SAME MISTAKE AGAIN. ALTHOUGH YOU WERE BORN IN SC OF INDIAN IMMIGRANTS, THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO WAY YOU COULD UNDERSTAND AND APPRECIATE THOSE OF US WHOSE ANCESTORS CAME TO THIS COUNTRY EARLY ON, IN MY CASE, IN 1676. YOU CAN NOT POSSIBLY UNDERSTAND THE DISTRUST OF GOVERNMENTS, ESPECIALLY FEDERAL, THAT WHITE SOUTHERNS HAVE. AND THE WHITE SOUTHERNS THAT I AM REFERRING TO ARE THE ONES WITH DEEP SOUTHERN ROOTS NOT THE NE'ER-DO-WELL PETERFUNKERS THAT HAVE MOVED INTO THE STATE. WHAT THE SOUTH FOUGHT AGAINST IS WHAT IS HAPPENIG RIGHT NOW: RECKLESS DISREGARD OF LIBERTY AND FREEDOM BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. LIKE SLAVERY OR CONDEMN IT, THE SOUTH HAD AN ECONOMIC SYSTEM THAT DEPENDED ON SLAVERY AND THE SYSTEM COULD NOT HAVE COMPLETELY BEEN ABOLISHED WITH A PEN AND THEN EXPECT THE SOUTH TO SURVIVE ECONOMICALLY. SLAVES SHOULD NEVER HAVE BEEN BROUGHT TO THIS COUNTRY. HOW MUCH BETTER OUR COUNTRY WOULD BE IF SLAVES HAD BEEN LEFT IN TRIBAL AFRICA. LINCOLN WAS A TYRANT. HE DID NOT WANT HIS KINGDOME DIVIDED, MUCH LIKE THE CURRENT TYRANT. I WISH YOU NOTHING BUT THORNES AND MISERY FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE, AND THAT OF YOUR INDIAN PARENTS, AND CHILDREN. GET A REAL JOB AND STOP MASQUERADING AS SOMONE CAPABLE OF GOVERNING. A POX ON YOU AND YOURS. MAY THE CONFEDERATE FLAG ALWAYS FLY HIGH.

One of my great-grandfather [REDACTED] was a major in the Confederate Army. One great-grandmother, Mrs Ellison [REDACTED] knocked a drunken Yankee soldier down a flight of stairs. Another, Mrs Jenny [REDACTED] demanded -- and got back -- her cow which had been impounded by the Federals in Charleston. All my ancestors owned slaves.

But the "stars and bars" was not the only flag of the Confederates, and it Has come to represent -- not the struggles of my ancestors -- but racism, bigotry and the worst excesses of "good-ol'-boys."

I oppose any state, including my ancestral and once home state, displaying the stars and bars on any state property, including license plates. I abhor churches that would allow the same.

It is time for time for this vestige of officially-condoned racism and hate to disappear.

THanks you for any action you may be able to take to help this happen.

 <SUBJECT>Observing Federal Memorial Day in South Carolina</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I wish to congratulate you on your decision to push South Carolina to remove the confederate flag from government buildings in South Carolina. South Carolinians have so much to be proud of in our state's flag, but only shame from the confederate one. I grew up in South Carolina though now live in Virginia, thanks to my husband's active duty status in the US Air Force. My family has had the good fortune to have been stationed twice at Charleston Air Force Base, and one of my children was born in Charleston. My mother still lives in Fort Mill, where I grew up and had the best education imaginable, in a completely integrated school system. I want to encourage you, once the offensive flag is removed from the Capitol grounds, to also end observance in South Carolina of Confederate Memorial Day. As a child growing up, I recall friends moving to my hometown of Fort Mill, SC and being bewildered that the state did not observe the federal holiday of Memorial Day, a holiday set aside to honor those who have died serving in our nation's military. Now, as an active duty military spouse of nearly 25 years, who has attended memorial day services to comfort the family of dear friends whose son was killed on active duty in Afghanistan, I am offended that South Carolina chooses to honor confederate soldiers but not the thousands of South Carolina heroes who have died giving freedom to our nation during the Revolutionary War, and defending our nation and protecting true freedom during World Wars I and II, Korea, Vietnam, Iraq and Afghanistan, as well as the global war on terror. I cannot imagine how any mother or active duty military in South Carolina must feel when confederate soldiers are honored but not their loved one or friend killed on active duty. I also cannot imagine how state and county employees must feel having to observe confederate memorial day. I recall driving up once with my children to a library in Summerville, SC and reading the signs stating the library, a place of free thinking and education, was closed in observance of Confederate Memorial Day; I had to have a long talk with my kids that day, just a couple of weeks before their dad was to deploy for several months. Honoring Confederate Memorial Day sends a horrible message that dated and misplaced pride are more important than honor and volunteering to serve your country. If anything, maybe there should be a state day of pride, service and peace in lieu of confederate memorial day; the state has come such a long way with regards to cultural diversity, and has so much to celebrate and be thankful for, including its natural beauty. I wish you all the best as governor of my home state. Thank you for your leadership. Please consider a move to honor all of South Carolina's heroes who have died defending freedom and our nation, and encourage our state legislature to begin observing the federal Memorial Day holiday.

Dear Governor Haley,

Although I am not a constituent, nor a Republican, I still wish to express my appreciation for your courage and integrity in deciding to remove the Confederate flag from the State Capitol. I also wish to extend my sympathy and disgust at the abhorrent treatment you are receiving, particularly from your own party and political commentators. Ann Coulter recently called you an "immigrant", and not able to understand U.S. history. She later went on to more closely identify you as a "2nd generation immigrant", and comparing you to terrorists, and "Octomom."

As a fellow American, I am embarrassed by these insults. Civility needs to be the American Way, not brutal, mindless character bashing. You, as an elected official, the highest office in the state, should not be treated this way. I personally want to apologize to you for this mistreatment.

Again, thank you, and well done.

Best.

Governor Haley,

Your push to take down the confederate flag after the tragedy in Charleston is not helping to unite us all as a people but is causing more anger, bitterness and division between the races! That flag stands where it is as a monument to our fallen ancestors (black and white). People now feel like their heritage is under attack and they are rightfully angry and feel betrayed by you for not representing the voice of the people of SC. I am asking you to reconsider your stand or at the very least allow this to be voted on and decided by the people of SC. That flag represents our history and heritage NOT hate!

respectfully,
 Michelle [REDACTED]

I am angered by your support of removing the Rebel Flag from the state grounds. It is not a symbol of hate or racism, but it is our heritage. FYI, George Washington and Thomas Jefferson were slave owners, so are their monuments also going to be removed and history re-written? You and all the people with this knee-jerk reaction should go back and study your history. I am sorry that those people were killed in Charleston, SC, but what would have been the reaction if a black man had killed 9 white people? I hope you will reconsider your support. If not, how about removing all things related to Black history. This includes putting a black person on our currency.

Best Regards,

Charles [REDACTED]

I have never been a racist ever to many races that live in our state SC,I have admired you and always rallied for you, You all (Government)that have chosen to erase our History,Heritage are going to see you are not uniting the people of SC, you have just made it so much worse (so very sad)We were making headway once the blacks wall was built and placed on State House Grounds, there have been no major issues, All I do know,If we are going to erase our Heritage and our history then do away with any trace of all history from any State building, American Flag get burned in the USA all the time it represents hate in many races, take it down and place one that reps all races that live in the USA. Does this even open your eyes Governor? Our State House has battle scars from that war,are we going to tear it down an build a new one?Is the Black Memorial wall coming off the SH grounds? And everyone calls whites racist,who really are the racist Governor,You smiling and all joyous after you made your speech, Who are you? Not the governor we elected, she would had never touched any races Heritage or History.

Governor Haley, It is a sin that you could not remove the Confederate Flag for the Senator's viewing at the Capitol. It was like a slap in the face to his memory. I am appalled at this and how a black covering had to be put up to try and block this atrocity. You need to take a stand and get this symbol of hatred down and not worry what the voters think. Don't sell your soul for votes. Do what is right. This is not heritage. It is hate. To honor the memories, take it down before the funeral Friday. Do what is right. Sincerely, Karen [REDACTED]

I'm still trying to figure out how that mean old flag talked that man into killing people. I am sick and tired of that flag and guns being blamed for the actions of people. That flag represents an attempt by brave people to prevent the loss of states rights and prevent total federal rule. James B [REDACTED]

The flag has never meant to degrade or offend anyone and people are not realizing the fact that black folks also fought in the war on southerners side in the confederacy. Also as southerners when times were hard blacks were offered some of the food as crop shares to feed their families while the war was on. It is major part of everyones history not only white but black folks as well should not dwell on the negative and cant rewrite history. Thank You for letting me express my opinion Wylie

Thank you for your stand regarding removing the Confederate flag from the State House grounds. My ancestors fought for the Confederacy but they have been dead for over 100 years and the war ended 150 years ago. We are now Americans - no hyphen needed.

The drop-down list needs to be amended to include a none of the above category.

 <MSG>

Gov. Haley,

How dare you to take it upon yourself to speak for all South Carolinians and declare that the flag of our heritage be removed from the State House grounds! It is NOT you and your other progressive buddies' decision to make. This is, sorry to inform you, not a kingdom over which you rule. Your ancestors did not fight under that flag and you don't understand that it has nothing to do with race and definitely not the shooting in Charleston. If you think this is going to advance your political career, then you are sadly mistaken. I am not alone in letting you, Sen. Tim Scott, and Rep. Trey Gowdy know that your political aspirations end here. You are all done. The people of this state are sick of being told what is going to happen TO them without their having a say in it. You and your buds DO NOT speak for me and no, you do not know what's best for me and you don't make my decisions for me. Enjoy your 15 minutes of fame. That's all this debate is about.

It is not a great day in South Carolina when those we have given our votes and support to, turn on us. I, for one, am sick of it! You will all understand when the time comes that you ask for our votes and support next time.

Have a great day.

I'm Daniel [REDACTED], a counselor at Palmetto Boys State and student at [REDACTED]. I've had the honor of meeting Governor Haley on two different occasions when PBS came to the state house for our annual parade (she may remember me as [REDACTED]). I'm working on a younger angled story for my internship with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] about whether there's a potential in the future for regulating student possession of confederate flags on college campuses. Going along with that, I'm wondering if states could play a role in that extended policing on campuses. I would love to talk to Governor Haley over the phone if she's willing to help me with my story. If not, a comment would be extremely helpful. Thank you so much for your time.

Best,

Daniel [REDACTED]

I am very disappointed that its almost July and still no word about fixing our state roads. However, we have time to go back and forth with everyone's opinion on the confederate flag. Let's leave the matter of the confederate flag up to the voters.

Then we might have time to get to important state issues. I drive on I-85 daily. It is awful. There are (3) lanes from Spartanburg to Greenville & back. Two lanes are taken up usually by trucks. That leaves one lane for passenger vehicles to get back and forth from work. I am all for raising the gas tax to pay for the roads. That way everyone that uses the roads will be paying for them. Truck drivers now are filling up in SC because its cheaper. I would like to see them start helping to pay for the roads since they use 2/3 of them the majority of the time.

Twice my friends, family and I have voted for you; and, have supported your agenda, until of late. Apparently, term limited, you have revealed your true persuasions: lower taxes for the wealthy and higher taxes for the poor; now, an assault on our honorable southern heritage, which, of course, you don't share. I had thought that your apparent white genealogy and white family, by marriage, was some indication of shared values. But, alas, it appears that as with most people of color, you feel you must band together against the white bogeyman. A study of true history, vs. that recorded of the civil war victors, will enlighten you to the broad deceptions, regarding that war; regarded by southerners as the Northern war of aggression. Many unjust atrocities were committed against citizens of the Confederacy, under the United States Flag; so, maybe that is the flag to be removed; and, the Stars and Bars occupy the place of supremacy upon the flagpoles of our state.

Gov. Haley, Apparently, you like a great many others either choose to ignore history or learned only the revisionists history taught in public schools. I am extremely disappointed in your decision, no in your capitulation to the Left, to remove the Battle Flag of the Armies of VA from the Stare Captiol. Sadly, the Stars and Bars has been vilified as a sign of hatred, racism and mistrust by people who lack a basic Middle School, education.

It truly saddens me that our heritage, our history is being stripped away under the guise of racism and even sadder that our elected leaders are allowing themselves to be used as tools of the current administration. Since you've already made the decision to remove the flag, please at least refuse to allow any more of our Southern heritage to be violated. Please prosecute to the fullest any person or persons caught vandalizing our monuments and for the love of God, do not allow the names of our Confederate heroes to be removed from Streets and schools.

This has become a serious issue, and I fear that unless we stand our ground, our heritage, our history will be erased.

Sincerely,
 LL [REDACTED]
 Cleveland TN.

My family and I were planning a family reunion in Myrtle Beach. Since you have the mental ability to be simple minded in reference to the history of South Carolina, we have canceled our plans to go to South Carolina. My family, approx. 200 people, has agreed to ask all their friends and family members to boycott your state. I promise you that would add up and multiply to several thousand people. I will also publish this on Twitter, Facebook and mass email.

I have many relatives that sacrificed their life during the Confederate War. Since you have no sense of heritage, let's let the people speak to you thru your economy.

 <SUBJECT>Voting to start a discussion about guns</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Your legislators voted to begin a discussion about taking down the confederate flag. The flag isn't what killed all those innocent people a gun did.

How about having a conversation about the piece of equipment that actually killed them, and the fact that the monster, who held that instrument of death, had openly conveyed his intentions to many people, black and white, and no one said anything.

Governor Haley. I want to thank you for your time in office thus far. You have been a great leader for SC. That is why I have voted for you twice. Now, I will no longer support you. No matter my stance of the flag issue, your call for making a decision based on emotions is uncalled for. This is not how to handle this problem. I guess the cowardly soul that killed those 9 people in the holy city got what he wanted. And the divided we are becoming. God have mercy on SC.

The true story of the South has always been our enduring commitment to the spirit of democracy, the highest principles of this land, the right to make our own decisions, for better or worse.

Let us reaffirm that commitment by example. If the people of South Carolina are permitted by their leaders to vote on the fate of the flag, then let us not only respect their decision but also defend their right to make it - no matter the outcome. If history is repeated and the democratic process is disregarded, then it falls to us once again to step up in democracy's defense. This is what the descendants of the Confederacy stand for. This is what all Americans should stand for. Let us now reach out to the nation and illuminate the truth that has waited such a long time to shine. Let us be the authors of our own story this time, and let us make that story a beacon so pure and strong that the forces of hate cannot touch it - ever again.

Democracy. for better or worse,

Michele [REDACTED]

Why don't you call for the immediate arrest and trial of Hilary Clinton for all of the laws and trusts she has broken while representing the American people. But no.....you would rather waste your time as the leader of this state in a self satisfying ploy to make you, Nikki Haley seem to be such a caring and concerned governor of this state. Lets all pretend that a piece of cloth killed those 9 people in Charleston so that we can justify giving the black population of SC one more thing. Hell, Ive got some furniture in my house lets just invite them over to get that too. We all know that we as WHITE AMERICAN CITIZENS that we owe ALL BLACKS something as their family members were slaves some 200+ years ago. Lets just keep giving in to that premise and giving them everything they want more and more and more and taking from those who contribute to this great nation. While we are on the subject, maybe you can tell me why our judicial system fails on a daily basis?? Why is the government so ready to take guns from all Americans when the laws already on the books against say MURDER are not enforced???? So there is video of this ROOF person shooting the members of the church in Charleston??? So why give this man a trial?? A tall tree and short rope would fix all the problems associated with this issue? Why do we as a nation allow criminals caught red handed in the act of committing a crime to lay around in jail for years while the taxpayers feed and pamper him.

If SC dosent have the balls to put this Roof guy to death bring him over to my house and I will do what the state of SC hasn't got the balls to do. I must say that for the first time in my life, I am truly ASHAMED to be a South Carolinian and even more ASHAMED AND SORRY to be an AMERICAN.....I can not believe that our county has sunk to this level of corruption and I blame leaders like yourself for the decline. How do you sleep at night? Pray to God for forgiveness as you will be called to pay for your sins and the way that you have treated the residents of this state one day. You can walk on us as Governor of SC but you can't walk on God. You will pay for your evil deeds when the time comes.

 <MSG>

Before removing or even discussing the removal of Confederate flags the names of Democrat defenders of Jim Crow, lynchings and segregation should be removed from all public buildings, parks, roads, etc.. Below is a partial list of those who stand-out as leaders of racism in America.

Woodrow Wilson, a racist, who furthered and championed segregation in the US.

John F Kennedy (D MA) voted AGAINST the 1957 Civil Rights Act

Ernest "Fritz" Hollings (D-SC) was a staunch racist and segregationist. He placed the flag on the SC legislature building that Republicans later removed to a war memorial.

Gov. Orval Faibus (D-AR) Bill Clinton's political mentor

Racist Senate Democrats who supported segregation and opposed 1964 Civil Rights

Carl Hayden (D-AZ)

Richard Russell Jr. (D-GA)

Harry F. Byrd Sr. (D-VA)

Allen J. Ellender (D-LA)

Joseph Hill (D-AL)

James Eastland (D-MS)

John Little McClellan (D-AR)

J. Wm Fulbright (D-AR)

Olin D. Johnston (D-SC)

Spessard Holland (D-FL)

A Willis Robertson (D-VA)

John Sparkman (D-AL)

John C. Stennis (D-MS)

Russell B. Long (D-LA)

George Smathers (D-FL)

Albert Gore Sr. (D-TN)

Sam Ervin (D-NC)

Alan Bible (D-NV)

Herman Talmadge (D-GA)

Ben Jordan (D-NC)

Robert Byrd (D-WV) The longest filibuster of the 1964 act was conducted by Senator, Robert C. Byrd (Exalted Cyclops of the WV KKK), who personally spoke against the legislation for 14 hours and 13 minutes on June 9 & 10, 1964. Democrats had the audacity to call this lifelong racist the "conscience of the Senate."

The Honorable Governor NikKi Haley
 State of South Carolina

Dear Governor Haley:

I am saddened by the tragedy that has befallen our State in the shootings in Charleston. It has broken my heart that this mad man murdered my brothers and sisters in faith and brothers and sisters as citizens of South Carolina. It was with great joy to see the faith they have in Jesus Christ lived out in front of the world. My prayers are with them and our great state.

I am very concerned that there is a rush to remove the confederate flag from the state grounds because of one deranged young man. I know from personal experience that decisions made in the heat of the moment through enormous emotions are almost always wrong. I am not sure how long we need to wait to make this decision but it does not need to be done in the heat of the moment. Where will it end if at the turn of every tragedy our state makes hasty decisions. We are better than this.

I implore you to slow this process down. Lets make the right decision. I am in great hope that my letter will find you in time.

Thanks for your kind regards.

Mike [REDACTED]

Your order (on the occasion of the horrifying event in Charleston) to remove the Confederate flag from the Statehouse is courageous. But in addition, could you not call for serious, thorough background checks on those seeking to buy hand guns? You might seriously consider rallying others in the GOP (and Democrats) to speak with a common voice about actions to curtail gun violence, much of it hate-driven. It is long past time for politicians in both parties to stop turning a blind eye to the daily deadly toll taken by guns (not hunting rifles, shotguns or the occasional "collector's item"). I will forever keep the visual in mind of the funeral procession today in sight of your state's disgusting Confederate (& not buying the "heritage" excuse!) display. As long (again forever) as the memory lingers so will my intent to boycott not only your state but all businesses & products associated with it. There was plenty of time and opportunity to make the morally correct choice and take the flag down!

 <SUBJECT>Issues facing South Carolina</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

I congratulate the Governor on her well written and extremely well delivered "Take down the flag" speech. The vast number of SC residents will support this initiative.

On a slightly more negative tone, 2 major issues still facing SC are the infrastructure and the quality of state education.

Regarding infrastructure improvements, I urge the Governor to reconsider her stated policy of demanding a huge tax break in return for an increase in the gas tax. I feel SC residents will not particularly like an increase in the gas tax but they will support it. Now is the time to convert a reasonable gas tax increase into sorely needed $ for infrastructure repair. If the Governor can develop an argument convincing residents that a significant portion of a gas tax increase will be borne by either Florida residents heading North or New York residents heading South, South Carolina residents will back a tax increase!!

Obviously, the quality of our state supported schools is not the best. And as usual, it's probably at least partially a money issue. But if the Governor feels that the state education organization is "broken" and is in such a bad state of affairs that additional monies is just like pouring money down a huge black hole, possibly a solution would be for the state to further support private industry initiatives in education. Here on Hilton Head Island, private schools from K-1 to K-12 are very successful at being able to educate students comparably with other states and students rank very well in national comparisons. The cost of private schools although high is not ridiculous and upper middle class families currently can afford the tuition. If this cost could be decreased somewhat by some type of state assistance similar to other state initiatives that are intended to bring in new industry to the state, the end result could be that private schooling could be more affordable and attract more lower income families which in effect would take some of the burden off typical state educational facilities. Possibly consider a property tax credit for families who send their children to private educational facilities.

I have supported the Governor in the past and I will continue to do so. Thanks for doing a great job overall and keep up the good work for SC residents.

Sincerely,

Larry [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I am just writing to thank you for calling for the removal of the Confederate flag from your capital. It was the right thing to do.

As a Northerner, and a woman of color who likes to travel, I have considered going to South Carolina in the past, but was told that it was a very prejudiced state, and maybe I would not feel welcome.

After your speech, I feel confident that South Carolina is a place that I would like to visit, and a place where there is acceptance.

Thank you for standing up for what is best for ALL the people of South Carolina, and trying to make this country an easier place for all of us to live in.

Sincerely,

Michelle [REDACTED]

I'm a resident of Arkansas and am not racist by any means. I am however amazed at how easily the state of South Carolina gave up its heritage and our heritage to the "perpetually offended." I guess I expected a little more wisdom and knowledge of history to shine it's light. It didn't. Instead you handed it over like a child in the face of a few whiny complainers who will never be happy with you no matter how much you give. I'm disappointed in the decision of the state of South Carolina to remove the southern battle flag.

Lets just keep giving in to that premise and giving them everything they want more and more and more and taking from those who contribute to this great nation. While we are on the subject, maybe you can tell me why our judicial system fails on a daily basis?? Why is the government so ready to take guns from all Americans when the laws already on the books against say MURDER are not enforced???? So there is video of this ROOF person shooting the members of the church in Charleston??? So why give this man a trial?? A tall tree and short rope would fix all the problems associated with this issue? Why do we as a nation allow criminals caught red handed in the act of committing a crime to lay around in jail for years while the taxpayers feed and pamper him.

If SC dosent have the balls to put this Roof guy to death bring him over to my house and I will do what the state of SC hasn't got the balls to do. I must say that for the first time in my life, I am truly ASHAMED to be a South Carolinian and even more ASHAMED AND SORRY to be an AMERICAN.....I can not believe that our county has sunk to this level of corruption and I blame leaders like yourself for the decline. How do you sleep at night? Pray to God for forgiveness as you will be called to pay for your sins and the way that you have treated the residents of this state one day. You can walk on us as Governor of SC but you can't walk on God. You will pay for your evil deeds when the time comes.

You were elected in as a Republican, I know many have lost their spine but we thought you were different. Some nut goes off on some insane mission created in a disturbed mind and you now crack and crumble like a cheap hookers dress on a johns floor. The Confederate flag is used as a memorial to those who fought in the civil war on the southern side. Most all of those who fought did not own slaves, anyone owning slaves were mostly let out of service to the confederacy. You now show that you bow to the what ever the political winds are blowing and have not spine to stand up to the convictions you were elected on. You show your no different than Hillary Clinton, a pure opportunist looking for any chance to get yourself ahead. You should at least admit your only in your office for personal gain not for those who elected you. Remember what your doing is not for those who voted for you but those who voted then and will vote against you in future. Your lost. You will obviously bend on guns when the winds blow in that direction.

<SUBJECT>Please reconsider your decision on Medicaid expansion for South Carolinians. Please!!!!

</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

I am one of many South Carolinians who, thru no fault of my own, am not able to work at this time. I have worked and have had health insurance my entire adult life. Due to unfortunate circumstances I find myself without the health care I have counted on. At age 56, I have medical conditions that require a doctor's care and oversight; and I have received that care until now. This is a temporary situation that may last another year or more. However, I cannot go without care for a year or more. It could mean a slow death at worse and at the very least, it has affected my quality of life and what I can contribute to my community, my family and the state of SC. Please make health care available to folks like me who could only qualify for Medicaid if it is expanded. You acted so responsibly for our state when it came to the Confederate flag. You were thinking of what is best for your citizens and our future. You can do the same here by implementing the expansion of Medicaid under the ACA. The political battles are over on this. Please do the right thing. Thank you, Respectfully, Sonia T.

Governor Haley,

I was shocked and saddened to hear about the church massacre. But, I am also aware of attempts once again to remove Confederate symbols. I think you should be focusing on the reasons why this young man was able to commit this horrible crime. The Nazis practiced acts of discrimination against the Jews. So, after this do you want all people of southern heritage to report to the gas chambers? President Lincoln was responsible for a war of aggression against the people of the south that killed literally thousands of her sons and daughters. So, when you attach an act of violence with attacking the symbols of the lost cause this is deeply disturbing. By taking this action you will only make us fight you even harder.

Let me get this straight; the only way to get treated fairly, in the state of South Carolina is to be well connected. I thought the revolutionary put an end to that and was fought for just that reason. Apparently one has to shoot at something to get anything done in this state. One can arrive the conclusion, "in order for the state to get the traffic lights synchronized one has shoot at out the lights". Do realize that if one born in any other country and one lives that given country one is citizen of that said country. Not so in America, the powers that be divide us and pit one another against one another by by calling us a ? - American or American - ? When in another country an American Citizen is just that an Citizen of America and not a label or another statistic. It is time to quit arguing over inane things and provide liberty and justice for ALL.

Gov. Haley. I reside in Georgia so I am not a constituent but I wanted to express my regret regarding your emotionally driven change of heart involving Southern history. You took the easy route concerning the Confederate Battle Flag. You are correct that it is a part of SC's history, but for the many millions of us who have a deeper connection, the flag will always be a part of our future along with the Stars and Stripes. I expected you to take a stand in support of Southern history. Too much D.C. in you I guess.

Twice my friends, family and I have voted for you; and, have supported your agenda, until of late. Apparently, term limited, you have revealed your true persuasions: lower taxes for the wealthy and higher taxes for the poor; now, an assault on our honorable southern heritage, which, of course, you don't share. I had thought that your apparent white genealogy and white family, by marriage, was some indication of shared values. But, alas, it appears that as with most people of color, you feel you must band together against the white bogeyman. A study of true history, vs. that recorded of the civil war victors, will enlighten you to the broad deceptions, regarding that war; regarded by southerners as the Northern war of aggression. Many unjust atrocities were committed against citizens of the Confederacy, under the United States Flag; so, maybe that is the flag to be removed; and, the Stars and Bars occupy the place of supremacy upon the flagpoles of our state.

Madam Governor, with respect, you have NO concept of your states heritage. You have no information as to why the 9th and 10th Amendment of the United States Constitution played such an enormous roll in the secession of your state and the beginning of the civil war. You have no courage to stand up for your state, thereby, Madam Governor, you have no honor. I do respect your office and the great state of South Carolina. I pray for your decisions.
