All,

Please find attached for your review an advance copy of the draft Committee report that Kara and I drafted on behalf of the membership of the Joint Capital Bond Study Committee. In addition to the report, here's the link to the draft's "Appendices": <http://scstatehouse.gov/CommitteeInfo/JointCapitalBondStudyCommittee/AppendicesReview/AppendicesToTheReportOfTheJointCapitalBondStudyCommittee.pdf> (note the link is not "live" but given the size of the appendices, it is easier to provide the members a link to the document rather than a series of multiple pdf attachments which is what would be required.)

In order to give ample time for everyone to review the draft, we plan to forward it to the members tomorrow afternoon so that they, along with staff, are assured plenty of time for review over the upcoming holidays and are able to suggest changes, if any, they want considered by the Committee prior to 12/31.

Happy Holidays!

Craig
