Dear Governor Haley,

SC has shown the world how people should unite just as people united when 911 occurred. Please do not fall prey to the media buzz. It will harm the healing of overcoming this horrific act of violence. Please allow the grieving process time for total healing to take place. These families deserve our respect, love and honor for their great loss.

The issue of the flag should not be used for a political and media agenda during this healing process. Keep the agenda on these families who promoted forgiveness for their enemy. They refused to let evil harden their hearts.

Regards,

Dear Governor

I saw you on TV crying I was crying too. I began to think about how the Republican Party has blocked voting rights, you should cry about that. You should think about guns laws and how the republicans allow so many guns in the wrong hands and cry about that. Cry about the lack of mental health care in this country too. You as governor have the power to do more than cry be a leader and do what is right take down the flag of treason and slavery.

Okay....Do we now all agree that racism is alive and well in this country, not just the South but everywhere. Can we also agree that it is bloody time to stop be hypocrites and start trying to be and act like the people we think we are and say we are to other countries!!!!!! First of all, take down the Confederate battle flag period. Put it in a museum where the rest of the history is and belongs!! It would go a long way in proving that the people is power are not just talking out the side of the face!!! Also, when are we going to grow you and face the fact that guns, not just in the South but all over the country are out of control. We keep getting out innocent citizens killed and all we do is talk about it. The police are out of control everywhere and we just hang our heads for a couple of days and the back to business as usual. I AM ASHAMED TO BE AN AMERICAN THESE DAYS!!!! If the South thinks it is superior to the rest of the country, why not prove it and take the lead in some real change!!! Start respecting all peoples like the constitution says and create the toughest gun policy in the county that does not allow extremists to have GUNS!!! The South has always stood up for what it believes in. NOW IT THE TIME TO PROVE THAT RESOLVE.

Governor Haley,

You have made quite a show of your concern following the massacre at Mother Emmanuel. Why not back up your words with action --

1. Take down the Confederate flag
2. Take down the Tillman statute
3. ADMIT that you sang "Dixie" with other elected officials at the Hibernian event on St. Patrick's Day.

It would be so easy to stop being a hypocrite. Hope you will give it a try.

Respectfully,
 Embarrassed to live in South Carolina

Hello,

I just wanted to let you know, as the summer vacation season is upon us, that I will no longer be including South Carolina in my vacation plans until the Confederate battle flag is taken down from all government buildings. Citizens are free to display whatever symbols they wish but flying this symbol of white supremacy and sedition on government grounds gives it a legitimacy that it does not deserve. If and when South Carolina chooses to join the rest of us in the present and stop glorifying a shameful past, then I will consider visiting and spending my money in your state.

Sincerely,

Paul [REDACTED]

Dear Governor,

I have never written a letter to an elected official before. It is passed time to take down the Confederate flag. It is a horrible reminder of slavery for both black and white. Everyday racism cannot be over looked anymore. The spotlight is on South Carolina(although this symbols days in every state are numbered) you can be the official who is remembered for doing what is right even though it was at the time controversial. This how we became America. Thank you for your service, I can't imagine having your job Governor.

Sincerely

Laura [REDACTED]

Also I cannot support South Carolina's industry/commerce etc. if it continues to support this remainder of violence and inhumanity.

Dear Mrs. Haley,

I recently had a conversation with a good friend who had a confederate flag the he thought might offend me. It was something given to him by a southern family member with a civil war history. He asked me what it was that offended me. It was simply this: That flag stands for people who wanted people like me to remain a slave. He asked if I thought that he felt that way, and the answer was no, for we are good friends. I then asked him, if his relative was a Nazi, would he have that flag up. Of course, he responded with an emphatic "no way, that guy murdered millions!". I then asked him how many died on slave ships, or were lynched because the law allowed it.

I implore you to please remove this flag from this country's memory. To see it fly high while the state and country flag are at half mast in respect for the deceased AMERICANS, is an insult to any American in this land. Please, be the one that leads the way, put yourself out there, crush this symbol of hate and intolerance.

Bravo for standing up and doing the right thing for the people of South Carolina. The ability to change a viewpoint is a sign of both maturity and leadership and you have shown both....dragging Lindsey graham along with You! Proud to have you as my governor and I am what one would call a "liberal"!

I'm a resident of New York City, home to the largest population of South Asians in any city in the country. As a child of Indian immigrants, I am shocked and outraged by the shooting of the AME Church in Charleston. I urge you to not tokenize your personal success as a South Asian, or the representation of non-Black people of color, in order to erase or neglect the rampant structural anti-blackness that pervades South Carolina, and the rest of this country. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American, I stand against racism, and in solidarity with Black communities. I hope you will too. Please make a public statement during this critical moment, and take action.

I'm counting on the fact you are educated with true history of Southern States. Myself raised in North Carolina. I'd like to point out where all the hatred is being displayed. That is coming from the crowd of undetermined beginnings. I hope your decisions will be based on on the history of the state and not aligned with those who are not well advised of this matter beforehand.

Black and white men fought and died for this flag. It has nothing to do with hate. One man shot that church. Don't blame the rest of us. And now they are trying to say that the cotton in pill bottles is racists too??? They need to grow up. Black peoe are finding any excuse to call something racists and its not fair to the rest of us. They are the racists ones. Blaming us for something our ancestors did. Calling us "Crackers". Why don't you make a law against them?? If your going to do something, at least be fair about it.

That flag never once stood for racism or slavery. Just as many blacks that were free died defending it as the whites that fought right beside them. The world needs a history lesson on a lot of things that got us the freedom we have today. Not to mention I think Abraham Lincoln was white. He set the slaves free.

I would like to bring you and our ENTIRE country's attention to the above issue. Please look up the case of Mattie Rice (Clyborn). This woman lobbied our Veterans Administration to honor such men including her father, and they did. I am a Veteran, and do not wish to further diminish the work of this woman or anyone else. Please use what I have provided.

The news has reported the thing who killed 9 people at the church is Charleston, SC can bail out for $1,000,000.00. Thats utterly absurd| And to think the church stupid folks want the state government to take the Confederate flag off the top of YOUR OFFICE BUILDING. How can the confessed murderer of 9 people even get bail? SC is SOS i.e. STUCK ON STUPID. I an a black American mind you with a mind that would be a terrible thing to waste. Those bible thumpers need to sit dow sit down cause you are rockin the boat and the colored girl said don't rock the boat tip the boat over. The issue is whats his name who deserves no claim to fame is a pathetic lonely wretch. Obviously he hated that allo he could nuster up for a friend is that black guy with dread locks. I bet the rednecks teased ham and called him a nigger lover and wouldn't let poor redneck play in their redneck games. So the pathetic redneck decided he would get a web site to make himself a powerful person by preaching hatred. So what makes this redneck any different than all the otherpowerless lonely people who kill people to make the 6 o'clock news for fame. That includes the ones you call terrorist and the ones you call gangs and the brainiact white men and the Dodge City cops on the wanted dead or alive mission. Back in the day President Jimmy Carter sent Mohammed Ali to Africa. His mission was to tell his African Brothers and sisters to boycott the Olympics in Moscow. Good thing we are not all stuck on stupid, an African brother told President Jimmy Carter not to ever send a sports figure to talk world politics with him again. So, you people i.e. need to stop talking to the black churches about serious issues that they respond to with prayer vigils. Who deals with nuts? That's who you better discuss these types of issues with. Those folks have the Minnesota Wasserman test, it asks if you hear voices to qualify people insane. Find some black people with an IQ over 69 to discuss such matters with. Please respond.

Sincerely, Doriene [REDACTED]

Dear Honorable Governor: While I am not from South Carolina I have been greatly affected by the recent violence and I prayed for you and all those who resident in your dear state. While I know that God is able and will make a way out of no way I also believe that he uses each of us to serve one another and make a difference. It is my hope that you all of your powers to have the Confederate flag removed, because you see it doesn't just affect and bring hurt to those Black American's and other's who live in your state but it also causes discomfort and pain to those who reside far away and know all to well what that flag fully represent's and means. Please hold your ground on the Confederate Flag issue and not cave to the liberal media. Nothing that you do will make them happy or stop their hatred for SC and all things Southern. They will never be happy and no matter what you do for them or give them they will want more.

Monuments, Streets, Parks and even the name "Fort Jackson" will be next. Liberal Yahoo News, prior to the shooting, has been running at least three "anti-Confederate flag" articles a week. Hold fast and please remind people that this is a South Carolina issue and we will not be bullied by the liberal media.

Dear Governor:

It is up to you, your legislature, and the people of South Carolina to decide what action will happen concerning the flag, which once flew over South Carolina for four years

I just wanted to offer another twist to this whole subject. Nothing can change history--that's the way it was....

Second, are you aware that the British Union Jack is part of the Hawaiian state flag. Personally, the idea that that state incorporates a symbol which brought so much hardship and tyranny to the people of the original 13 colonies, one of which was South Carolina, upsets me as well...One can only imagine the hardship and suffering those peoples of the 13 colonies suffered by the nation that that symbol represents. Perhaps there should be an outcry in South Carolina towards Hawaii to remove that Union Jack and replace it with, maybe a surfboard.

I trust you get the point on this. History is history... What has happened has happened in history and it cannot be changed. It can only be explained.

Thanks for listening.

Very respectfully,

Chuck [REDACTED]

I am appalled by the South Carolina official response to the terrorist assault on nine innocent people. The use of the confederate flag, a flag representing people going to war to preserve slavery, says all that needs to be said.

I just cancelled a planned vacation in Seabrook.

I just wish our conference of 300 people had been scheduled in SC, so that I could cancel that.

The notion of being in your state makes me physically ill.

"The Honorable..." Good luck with that.

My family was to have a family reunion in Myrtle Beach SC next month but with the ongoing controversy about the Confederate Flag and South Carolina we have decided to cancel our plans to have the reunion in South Carolina. Instead we will have it in North Carolina. You really need to get rid of the Confederate Flag as it is a sign of discrimination and very offensive to all colors.

I moved to Florida several years ago and have had South Caroline of my list of places to visit. I hear Charleston is one of the most beautiful cities in America rich with culture, history and architecture. In spite of this I have decided not to ever set foot in you state as I am appalled at the blatant hate, disrespect and bigotry that is being willfully and proudly displayed by flying the Confederate Flag at a government building. Every state has a state flag but your state has decided to fly a remembrance of times in our history when our nation was polarized and at war. War is truly one of the worst things a nation can experience, but civil war is laden with so much more as it shows a nation that is divided against itself. Do you wish for the good ole days? Do you long for slavery? Is South Carolina wanting to be its own nation? The Civil War is over, the North won. There are no more white and black drinking fountains. No one is being forced to sit at the back of the bus anymore. It is time for South Caroline to step up and rid itself of this disgusting symbol as flying this so proudly demonstrates your administration's consent to freely hate. If you are wondering, I am white and I feel I represent the majority of the nation. I hope that other citizens of this wonderful country boycott your state until you decide to change your values.

Although the confederate flag is not the reason Mr Roof murdered the 9 people in Charleston, this is a great opportunity to move it to a museum where it belongs. It is a symbol that divides us, and it does not help our state in any way. My family settled in Orangeburg county before the American Revolution, family members fought in the Civil war, and I have lived here most of my life. This is an opportunity to lead as Governor. Please be the bold leader that you should be, and make an effort to get the flag off of the State House.

Sincerely,

John W [REDACTED]

Please remove the confederate flag from all government offices. It was raised over the state capital in the 1960s as a deliberate counter-protest to the Civil Rights movement. Although I admire SC for taking a stand against Northern Oppression during the Cival War, the confederate flag is a symbol of hatred and racism. Please help us heal and show the rest of the world that we are not backwards southern hicks, but instead that we are a state committed to equal rights and compassion for the feelings of our fellow citizens.

 <MSG>

Dear Madam Governor, Please know that my opinion to you is support to leave alone any negative knee jerk reaction against the confederate flag of the south, wish people would know the truth of what it stands for, that civil war should have never been fought It was the northern war of aggression against the south's states rights position only sold under the false guise of slavery issue. The union should never be defended against secession via such an immoral high cost of brother against brother. We are all Charlestonions. And this is from a color blind white Canadian citizen legal immigrant since 1981 from Oklahoma City, OK. I just want to voice my support not to unfairly attack this flag symbol, keep it all positive for southern heritage, separated from hate, but we are all one family of mankind, color and race do not matter or divide us, but that we all should love one another as our creator desires us to. Respectfully yours, Edward Ray [REDACTED]

I am a Southerner - born & bred. My great-great grandfather was a Confederate Captain in The War Between the States. That being said, I believe it is wrong, for whoever is in charge of the Confederate flag, to refuse to lower it. The flag has enough said about it being racist & they are just perpetuating it by refusing to lower it. There was no reason for these precious people to be gunned down and killed and respect should be shown to them by all people!

Please hold a special session to remove the confederate flag from the state house grounds.
 Thousands of South Carolina citizens want this relic removed to a museum and away from public grounds as a sign of respect for the community members murdered last week in a horrific act of violence committed by a man who was racist and recognized this symbol as a racist symbol.
 Please show your solidarity with the victims of this horrific crime and ask for the flag to be removed!!

Hi Ms. Haley; How are you? Fine I hope. I do want to commend you on taking a stand on the flag issue. I pray that the legislature and others who might be involved will see that this flag will be taken down, and just move on, and this will be a thing of the past. May GOD continue to help guide you in your governorship, and to do what you know is right when others may think otherwise. Stay focused, and GOD bless. Truly yours, Howard

After the shooting that so sadly occurred as a horrific result of bigotry, prejudice and hatred. South Carolina was the birth place of the civil war!!!! Your state thought it was " ok" to OWN OTHER PEOPLE!! HOW TRULY SICK IS THAT!! Flying a confederate flag that is NOTHING MORE than a symbol of everything horrible about what mankind does to one another is disgusting!! SHAME ON YOU AND MOST WHO LIVE IN SOUTH CAROLINA!! To hide behind saying this is a symbol of your heritage and should proudly be displayed is comparable for an entire state of mostly German decent flying the swastika PROUDLY, and at government BUILDINGS no less!!! This makes my heart ache and my stomach want to vomit!

I watched you tell the nation you would not take down this disgusting flag because you wouldn't do that to " your" people. You have shown the nation who " your" people are. WHITES ONLY.... Still seems to be the backward way YOU and the whites of South Carolina think! Do you honestly believe that ANY black person sees that flag and feels PRIDE? Pride for all the poor souls who lost their lives fighting for the right to own another? If you think because they lost their life for a SICK notion of what is RIGHT should be celebrated, I think you and all who support this twisted thinking should be voted out of office! Since I don't live there I can not cast my vote to take it down and get YOU OUT OF OFFICE!

What I can do us so little, but it's what I MUST!! My husband and I scheduled a vacation to visit South Carolina next May. We were planning on moving there when we retire next year!! Even though I lost my $1000 deposit, it was worth it knowing your state will NEVER receive even 1cent of my $. We have reconsidered living in such a state that finds the confederate flag something of PRIDE!!

After posting your statements on FB I HAVE SEEN HUNDREDS of thousands who feel as I!! When we ALL decide to boycott your backward thinking state and vacation somewhere else, maybe just maybe the loss of tourism dollars and the loss of all the income one brings to a state when they move there, South Carolina will begin to care about ALL THE PEOPLE!! I know I intend to plaster your disgusting message everywhere. You said it all. When you made THAT statement!! In such a short time since this horrible event I know 3 families who say they too, we'll NEVER set foot there. If I know 3 in my small world how many who feel as I are out there. Hopefully enough to make you do what is RIGHT! If not, maybe enough to vote to take it down and vote you out!!!

I'm sure it pleases you that I will NEVER SET FOOT there, but my hope is enough people feel as I do. Maybe even some will finally be so ashamed they will move away!!

SHAME ON YOU AS GOVERNOR AND SOUTH CAROLINA FOR YOUR BACKWARD, BIGOTED SICKENING WAY OF HANDLING YOURSELVES. AND YOU CLAIM TO BE A CHRISTIAN???? Again... SHAME ON YOU!!!

I cannot tell you how upset I am with the seeming grave insensitivity of the people of South Carolina. The US and State flag fly at half mast to mourn the terrible tragedy visited upon the people of Charleston's Emanuel AME Church, and indeed, upon all of SC- and all of America. However, the Confederate flag flies high. BY LAW cannot be lowered to half staff? That alone tells us something about the bigoted nature of many in the South. Why someone didn't just realize it needs to come DOWN - and do it - is beyond me! If that breaks a "law" so be it. That it still flies is an amazing affront to the the folks of that church who are suffering so.

Thank you.

Dear Madam Governor,

I believe the Confederate battle flag should be taken down because Article I, Section 9, Clause 4 of the Confederate States Constitution prohibited the Confederate government from restricting slavery in any way. Furthermore, Article IV, Section 2, Clause 1 prohibited states from interfering with slavery. In conclusion, Article IV, Section 3, Clause 3 offered protection to slavery in all future territories conquered or acquired by the Confederacy.

For these reasons, it is morally wrong to honor a symbol of racism. I plead with you to please honor the slaves of South Carolina and the descendants of those slaves by joining the cause of taking down the Confederate flag.

I beg to be, Ma'am, your humble and obedient servant,
Gilson J. [REDACTED]

That disgraceful flag of slavery, segregation and hate needs to come down today. My family has been in this land since before it was a country. We have fought in every war since independence was declared in 1776. I love America and can't understand why you sit idle while a flag meant to destroy this country flies on the state grounds of South Carolina. It was placed there not by confederate veterans but rather by racist opposed to integration. Check your history. I realize that as a republican you resist any change to help minorities. You would also never support sensible gun control because you do not have the moral compass or sensitivity to take actions not beneficial to your career. I hope you prove me wrong and take the action a strong governor would take and have that hateful symbol removed this week. What will be your legacy Governor? I'll wait to see what you are made of.

I am a 72 year old from the south who grew up with the Confederate flag and grandparents who lived to almost 100. I think I understand the meaning and feelings behind this symbol ----hatred and superiority. It's time for the leaders and good people of the south to get rid of this flag and put in a place of history. Living in another state now, I can tell you your tourism will be greatly effected if you do not make the right decision.

For more than 98% of the time that the State of South Carolina has existed, citizens of your state have owed allegiance to the United States. Your citizens have died for this country in the American Revolution, the War of 1812, the Mexican War, the Spanish American War, WW 1, WW2, Korea, Vietnam, the Gulf War, in Afghanistan and Iraq. The Confederacy existed for 4 years and ended 150 years ago. No person of color in your state or any other celebrates the heritage represented by the Confederate battle flag. It is time for all citizens of South Carolina to move forward together under a banner in which they all can take pride in. It is time to retire the battle flag to a museum.

Dear Governor,

regarding the issue of flying the Confederate flag, especially in the face of the slaughter that has just happened in your state, don't you think it's time to retire the stars and bars? It's no longer a symbol of the proud south or an emblem of the freedom to fly this flag. It is in my opinion, the perfect example of the worst kind of taste you can possibly display and a slap in the face to the wonderful families of the recent victims. Not to mention the victims from generations ago. If ever the time has come to bring this terrible symbol of racism down, it is most definitely NOW!

Most sincerely,

Janus [REDACTED]

It is time to remove the confederate flag from the statehouse and consign it to museums. It is a symbol of hate which has no place in SC life today. SC should not align itself with such a symbol whether misunderstood or not. Symbols are very important and perception is reality. We moved to SC this past year and have come to love it due to the friendliness and inclusiveness of its people. Please do not allow this symbol to corrode the reputation of this state and, particularly Charleston. I believe it is important from a moral and economic perspective to take this action now.

You can make a difference. Don't wait for public pressure to force you to do the right thing - consign the confederate flag to history where it belongs. Show the courageous leadership for which you are capable.

Dear Governor Haley,

Today I write to urge you to take this 'unique' opportunity to speak out about moving the flag. You have this moment to be the hero for all South Carolinians...all colors. I was a staunch Confederate flag supporter until 15 years ago when I formed a friendship with a thirty-something black man in our gym in Columbia. I had one opinion, he had another. In our conversations, I began to realize that my argument about SC ancestors from the 1700's and history did not match his hurt about oppression for an entire segment of our citizens. I am an older Christian woman and my love for the Lord surpasses everything. I understand you're speaking today at 4. I sincerely hope you will ask yourself, "what would Jesus do"? This is "a defining moment in time" for you and SC. Please continue to shine on our state and country as the Emanuel Church did yesterday. Something important is happening here. Please let it grow across this land. Sincerely...Joanne [REDACTED]

Republican

Show the world you have the leadership and skill to do the right thing. Get on the flag issue NOW - front and center - a REAL priority. YOU must get it moving and they will follow. Now is the time. The flag must be lowered for us as a state people to move on. Don't let corporate America dictate the inevitable. It will happen. We know it. Lead us in this time of crisis.

My ancestors fought for the south in the Civil War.

Message to the Governor's Office.

I applaud the Governors efforts to remove the Stars & Bars. Maybe a new initiative would be to design a new flag displaying solidarity. Or, designing a completely new state flag. Make a contest of it, and see what response comes of it, make it fun.

Certainly after this past week's events the people of South Carolina deserve to return to a more leisurely southern lifestyle. But yet, not to forget what brought them together.

Governor, with the executions in Charleston, and the executioner's focus on a time past, it presents an oportune time for the Confederate Flag to be lowered. This should be done out of the respect of those murdered and their families along with everyone else in our State who do not want another idiot to use the flag as fuel to start more fires or even bring back unhappy memories. I do not like some people telling me or my leaders what we "have" to do, and I am as southern as anyone else who graduated from Clemson(class of 61), but the time is right, the reason is there, and let's please put this issue away once and for all. And I feel a very high percentage of other citizens feel the same way.

Thanks for what you do. You have been an outstanding Governor, and I am proud of you!

I am glad you attended the funeral of the nine people murdered by a vicious brain-washed (by whom?) young man.

Please remove the confederate flag from the Capitol grounds ASAP as it symbolizes racial hatred. Can you do this by executive order if SC law allows this?

It is shocking that the flag is waving high rather than at half-mast. I am sure the murderer and racists will be most pleased at this sight.

No item on your drop-down list of concerns covers this subject.

As an annual visitor to South Carolina (Isle of Palms), I would hope that the terrible events in Charleston of this past week and the outpouring of loving concern and solidarity shown by and for the AME Church would inspire rethinking of the flag issue by the SC legislature and administration.

It is well past time for the flag of the Confederacy to come down from the grounds of the state capitol. Change of policy on this would show meaningful official concern and response to the tragedy.

Please assert your leadership in this matter. All of us Americans need to transcend the old partisan politics and come together.

The battle flag belongs in a museum. It does NOT represent 'a southern way of life' NOR does it represent 'freedom' of any sort. It represents a people who wanted to 'protect a way of life' which included slavery. That way of life has no place in a truly free country.

Dear Governor Haley,

As a former resident of Charleston, South Carolina, I ask, why is the Confederate flag still flying at the State Capital, Monday, June 22, 2015? I was encouraged to hear that you feel the issue should be revisited and hope that you will take the steps needed to remove it from this public space. This flag continues to divide us as Americans. You have my support to remove this icon.

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley, I am a U.S. citizen and am appalled by the amount of racist murders that defeat the efforts of decent Americans to get along with their neighbors. You may not be interested in my opinion as I live in another state but since the recent murders of 9 South Carolinians IN THEIR CHURCH affects me and all Americans, I felt the need to write to you.

NOW is the time to take down the Confederate Flag from your capital. By continuing to fly it atop the highest seat of S. Carolina government, you condone ALL of the actions taken by those who seek to use its historical, hateful power to terrorize and murder African Americans. That flag denotes a history and a contemporary "club" of haters and murderers. On top of this you should be gathering your black citizens together in the Capital to find meaningful ways to rid your state of the evil of racism once and for all.

I urge you to take action now and make a positive difference in our country. Don't allow your state to continue to tear our country down. Thank you.

Gov. Haley:

I was born in Louisiana and I have plenty of pride about where I'm from, but the confederate flag has no place being flown from state government buildings. This is, after all, the United States of America. If people want to fly that flag, or any other, they can do it on their own property.

Dear Governor,

It is time for South Carolina to take down the Confederate Flag. While some claim it is a piece of heritage, in the present day it is a stark symbol of racism and white supremacy. If it's heritage, put it in a museum somewhere. But to fly it over the statehouse is very offensive.

I am very selective about where I travel. I refuse to travel in states that have open-carry in airports, and I refuse to travel in states that celebrate racism. As long as the Confederate Flag flies in South Carolina I will not visit your state and I will strenuously avoid purchasing any products made there.

It is time to do this.

It is past time for South Carolina to give a history lesson regarding the Confederate Flag.

The Civil War was not started to abolish slavery, It was to determine the survival of the Union or independence for the Confederacy.

The Confederate flag represented The Confederate States of America (CSA), the 11 states that seceded from the Union due to the trade, tariffs, and states rights.

Thank you.

In light of the recent tragedy in Charleston, the citizens of the state of South Carolina need to acknowledge the pain that is associated with the flag of the confederacy. As an American citizen who wants very much to combat racism, I am pleading with the citizens of South Carolina to do the right thing. Put the flag of the confederacy in a museum, rather than honor it by flying over the people's legislative house. Thank you.

I am hoping you are already aware of who is behind the controversy over the Confederate Battle Flag, taking full advantage of the tragedy in Charleston. In the event that you're not, it's George Soros and his one-of-many trouble-making, radical left-wing organizations, MoveOn.Org. Please make this known among the legislative body and I urge you not to let Soros and his minions succeed! Peace at any price is a formula for disaster.

Thank you and,

Gov. Haley,

I am a 63 year old white female republican. I was born and raised in SC by by loving, but prejudiced parents. It is time for all of us to no longer let our history dictate our future. The Confederate Flag causes pain to a significant portion of our state's population. Those with the power to do so, need to remove it from a place of honor in our state. My brothers and sisters in SC are more important than a piece of cloth. The time has come to make a choice. The choice must be to "take it down."

Sincerely,

Jeslyn N [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

While listening to your speech on Thursday after the shooting of 1 of the 9 your employee Senator Democrat Clementa Pinckney you stated that the people of your state needed to heal. I agree with you however I think that the healing will begin by honoring Senator Pinckney and removing the Confederate flag. I agree with President Obama, Mitt Romney and Jeb Bush that it is time for the Confederate to be take down to become apart of history only. We are praying for the victims families and the state however in this situation we would like to see you make history in this healing by starting the process of having the Confederate remove. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Harriet [REDACTED]

Nazi soldiers were a part of history in Germany. Many Germans fought on the side of Hitler's Germany. Even though Germans fought and died, they enslaved and executed Jews, Germany does not fly the Nazi flag outside the capital, in fact it's against the law to speak of it. How can anyone be proud of the Confederate Cause. It was human slavery, and Racism.

Learn from Germany, and please, quit glorifying the confederate cause, It's over, all people are created equal. This is modern America, you will never take it back.

God loves everyone. Red and Yellow, Black and White, we're all precious in His sight.

Please do the right thing.

Thank you

Dear Governor Haley,

I am writing to implore you to use your unique position and leadership to push effectively for the confederate flag to be removed from the Capitol grounds in South Carolina. This is the moment that ethics and statesmanship should reign, not a symbol of racism. Removal would be a statement that the heart and soul of South Carolina are in fact not broken, but that people are coming together as one and are, together, rebuking an unspeakable act of evil and the symbolism that surrounds that act.

I hope you will reply to me.

Thank you,

Brooke [REDACTED]

My church prayed for the victims at Mother Emanuel this morning and challenged us to pray for God's guidance on what we could each do to help the survivors. I am a Republican and a Conservative and I believe that it is time to take down the Confederate Battle Flag. Put it in a museum where it belongs. This would be one very small step that would symbolize to people of African heritage that we offer peace and ask forgiveness for the sins of our forefathers. It is only complicated if we want it to be. Take it down. It's way past time!

Dear Governor Haley,

My name is Mari [REDACTED] and I live in the San Francisco Bay Area. I am a devout Christian woman, and I do not have political agenda or any other motive for writing other than love and concern for our great Country, and all who are hurting over this horrible shooting.

I respectfully ask consideration be given to removing the confederate flag in honor and memory of the nine people killed and their grieving families, the church congregation, and also your State, our Nation, the first responders, law enforcement, the cleaning crews, yourself and your colleagues, All who have felt so hurt and betrayed by this horrible violence against the family of God ( in the House of God).

Thank you. You all are in my most fervent prayers.

God IS Great.

Bring down that flag from the state capitol. Much admiration from the entire world for supporting such an action and doing whatever you need to do to make it happen. It is a part of accountability, one of your priorities.

 <SUBJECT>Reconciliation</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

It is my idea, that this is time to go to the higher hypothesis: instead of focusing on whether the confederate flag should be removed, focus should be on a Civil War healing process for ALL peoples.

As you are likely aware, there were many issues involved as the United States' Civil War ended. One is slavery. I ask you to consider a variation on the theme of just slavery and Confederate flag--to first address the need for a process of reconciliation for Confederate ancestors as well as ancestors of slaves. A process similar to the one implemented in South Africa.

Distant slave ancestors remind the world of their family history on a daily basis. They are a people still grieving, and for some, using it as an example of everything that goes wrong. Then there are the victors--the Union supporters. No grief on their part. Soldiers marched home with pay in their pockets, "reading the glory in their Nation's eyes." Fortunes were made. Not a peep out of those guys or their ancestors. A third group are the peoples of the South and their army. "Marched home in defeat...What did they find? Houses in ruins, farm devastated, stock killed, barns empty, trades destroyed, money worthless---a people without law or legal status." Ancestors of the Confederate states whose families were either actively involved or not in the rebellion, even today feel the results of this horror due to geographical location and what happened to their ancestors and their states. They recall their destroyed culture, scoured land, destroyed homes, decimated businesses, pillaged households and businesses-For the South---state after state, Union acts focused on annihilation which continued even after Lee signed at Appomattox. At no point was there a time for grievance. To day, there is increasing black pride, but for the South, it is almost a taboo. Their dilemma was clearly stated by Georgian Henry Woodfin Grady (his monument graces downtown Atlanta, Georgia). He pondered the sad situation when he was asked to deliver an address at a New England dinner in New York (1886): "The New South". It is said that he pondered how the "South could honor its living heroes and cover with flowers the graves of its sleeping dead, and yet be loyal to the flag." It was a delicate situation he had to address. Comments above come from that address. Like 21st century Black community members, that period of time represent family recollections and ramifications that are still carried.

21st Century. Isn't it time we started a formal reconciliation process for all our people. It would be wonderful if you were the one to initiate such process now.

Who am I: neither Confederate nor Union heritage. My ancestors came from Europe and Eastern Europe early 1900's. But I have an extensive pre-Civil War, Civil War and post civil War library and an avid reader. I am a 21st century Patriot and elder. The above issue is a disease for our people---all people. Time for reconciliation, though late in coming, must be addressed. Thank you for reading this and responding. I have time on my hands as my husband is again away for the summer studying Alaska's bears (bear-viewing-in-alaksa.info). Both my husband Dr Stephen [REDACTED] and I are hopeful that you will champion our cause. With much appreciation for your positions, Jackie [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

Please do not bow to pressure on the flag. It is not or ever was a symbol of racism or slavery. It was a symbol of a time in our history where the south was slammed by the north over trade policies, and financial policies. It is a part of our history. Georgia should have never bowed to the pressure. I am not a racist or a bigot. With the recent events at the church, that man should be put to death as soon as he is convicted. I am a firm supporter of Dr. Ben Carson, and have talked with (and met Herman Cain), this is not a race issue. I strongly admire your fortitude, and in my opinion your are a great conservative and would love to see you throw your hat in the ring. With the current state of affairs in our country, I am not so sure that the south didn't have the right idea. GOD bless America, and may the south rise again.

May God bless you Governor,

I voted for you both times and think you have done a great job. I really like the "no nonsense approach" you have to problems.

Since the tragic shooting in Charleston, the issue of the Confederate Flag has come up again. Please do not cave! This is an issue that needs to be decided by South Carolina voters not by someone from New York! This is not other people's business. let south Carolina voters make that decision.

Thank you for listening and thanks for making South Carolina a great place to be.

Dear Governor Haley:

Please take down the Confederate Flag and place it in a museum along with other civil war-related items. It is a symbol for our State and our Country that should be retired and place with other civil war relics!

Thank you,

The Confederate flag is a symbol of, at best, history...at worst, racism, and treason. It is outrageous for any state in our union to fly it over an official government building. Shame on you for attempting to justify keeping that offensive symbol flying in my Southern ancestors' state.

Take her down and leave her down!

My husband and I rented a house in South Carolina near Greenville for two months last winter and were looking forward to doing so again with the possibility of buying a winter home. However, we have decided that as long as the Confederate flag flies on government property in South Carolina, we will not visit, much less establish a permanent residence in, your state.

I have had the good fortune to visit Charleston twice in the past 10 years. It is a beautiful town with wonderful people. Growing up in a small town in Oregon, it was quite a history lesson. Understanding its past is not a thing of beauty, our history of enslaving and brutalizing human beings. The Confederate Flag present in the State House is a symbol of tolerance of that history. I would be aghast to see the Nazi flag in government buildings in Germany, rather than in Holocaust museums where it belongs. I hope this terrible mass murder will result in one good thing, the Confederate Flag being put away, except as a teaching example in history never to be repeated.

America's Spiritual Illness

While I do not know if the 21 year old white man who has been charged, (but who is still innocent), of killing the 9 black people in Charleston earlier this month is an untreated alcoholic and/or an addict or not, I understand that he spent at least the morning of the massacre drinking vodka with a friend and that he has a number of drug charges pending against him. That kind of a history, especially in someone of his age, would certainly lead anyone with any knowledge of alcoholism and/or drug addiction to conclude that if nothing else he certainly shows a number of the usual signs of these illnesses. His apparent lack of any remorse for what he did would further the cause of his being an untreated alcoholic and/or addict or at least someone with some serious untreated or at least under treated mental health problems.

America's history is full of all kinds of alcohol, drugs and mental health problems showing up in public massacres of many types and kinds to include at least one attempted presidential assassination. This exact same history also shows up in the numbers and percentage of people in our jails wherein some 90% of all serious crimes in this country are committed by our citizens either while under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs or while attempting to obtain such. In response to this very serious problem we have gone thru Prohibition which turned out to be a failure, a "War On Drugs" which was lost before we ever started it, tough sentencing laws which has filled our jails up to the point where our current president says we cannot afford such any longer wherein he has already started his program of "pardoning" prisoners who did not hurt anyone during the commission of their crimes, as well as a time when we collectively spent literally billions if not trillions of dollars on both public and privately funded alcohol and drug rehabs which also failed at least in part when it was discovered that most of them were run by criminals whose fraud was finally discovered which in turn caused at least 95% of all public and private funding for "rehabs" to dry up. Ever since America's "rehab" try literally went bust, we've basically done nothing to help alcoholics and/or addicts get help except to send them to already existing Alcoholics and/or Narcotics Anonymous "Meetings" which are 100% funded and run by their own members'. In short, during just the past 80 or so years America has spent untold amounts of our time, efforts and money on it's alcohol and drug problems wherein the result of such is that we still have people with alcohol/drug related problems creating headlines in the worst ways possible with both no end in sight to the problem, nor even any plan, program or government hand-out, to properly address it. In fact all we can come up with is to take down flags, discuss hate, have our president use the "N" word and then have our state governor promise us that they will make sure the government kills, (executes), those of us who are sick!

I hope & pray that as a nation we are finally ready to at least "see" the truth of our problem, so that we can then move on to finding a solution. In order for this to happen we're going to have to first of all realize that our problem is "spiritual" in nature wherein only a "spiritual" solution will solve it. Permit me to now present the spiritual solution which millions if not by now billions of individual people throughout the world have used to successfully solve their alcohol and/or drug problems.

1. As a nation we admit that our government is powerless over alcohol and/or drugs and that therefore the business of our nation with regards to alcohol and drugs is and always has been, unmanageable,

Based upon our nations' history since Prohibition thru to the most recent massacre in Charleston, South Carolina with regards to how we've attempted to outlaw, criminalize, arrest, incarcerate, treat and otherwise rid ourselves of the many very serious public problems we've had with alcohol and/or drugs, I do not see where there can exist any doubt that as a nation, all of our efforts have utterly and absolutely failed. I would also suggest that anyone who fails to recognize these facts is suffering from either delusion(s) or is an active alcoholic and/or drug addict themselves. If it is not possible for America as a nation to admit our failure and our unmanageability of our alcohol and/or drug related problems then there is simply no hope of our ever recovering from our collective illness. We are doomed.

Doesn't anyone else find it at least interesting that the public's response to the recent massacres in Charleston, South Carolina are to "promise" to execute the person charged with the crime--before his trial and not by law enforcement personnel but by our governor whose office, thank God, is separate from our Attorney General's Office, and take down the Confederate Flag, while not even mentioning anything about alcohol and/or drugs which the suspect has a history of using and abusing? To further demonstrate how blind we have become as a nation and society to alcohol and drugs, let me suggest that the Confederate Flag would continue flying where it is today, or in fact anywhere else, if we said that it would be taken down as soon as we prohibited the sale of alcohol, (prohibition all over again), to everyone.

There are numerous other concepts that America must work thru before her spiritual illness could even be considered as resolved.

However, until America as a nation recognizes her "real" problem, (actually has very little to do with hate, flags, alcohol or even drugs), and then also recognizes that all of the incredible consequences, time, money and efforts we have already spent has had very little to actually no positive impact on the problem; which in turn has left America unmanageable when it comes to alcohol and/or drugs, it is actually impossible for us to even begin the process of recovering from it.

Most American's, to include our government, fail to recognize the seriousness of our alcohol and drug related problem, which ought to also be considered as a "National Security" issue as there are many examples of very advanced and powerful civilizations that no longer exist because they too failed to resolve their alcohol and/or drug related problems.

If you would like to hear how you could help to put America on track to identifying our alcohol and/or drug related problems and then move forward towards our national recovery from them, I would be happy to share them with you. If not then please understand that someday you'll come face to face with the fact that you had a chance to be part of the solution to America's Spiritual Illness but instead chose to remain as part of the problem. A problem that once again is rampant because no one even talks about it on a national basis and because no one seems to be willing to discuss the ONLY known solution to it.

Sincerely,

Paul

Governor Haley,

I have been the director of the [REDACTED] of South Carolina, for 37 years. I support your administration and your stand on many issues, including many of the cuts you have recommended to the SC Arts Commission over the years. The [REDACTED] has survived for 107 years from its box office revenue and private contributions and we will continue to do so. I ask you to please turn your attention to removing the confederate flag from the statehouse grounds. This action is long past due and I believe you have the power to make it happen. Please do something ...now.

I have lived in the state of SC 15 years and have spent much of my time feeling ashamed of our allowing the Confederate Flag to fly over the capital grounds. The symbol is one of hate, disgrace and intimidation of so many of our citizens. For God's sake (that is for the sake of love and charity) take it down. And please let us not pretend great concern for the black population after turning away Medicaid that allowed so many the health care they can otherwise not afford. Enough is enough.

I am a 67 year old white male, registered voter, staunch Republican.

I ask that Governor Haley lead the initiative to Take Down the Flag from Statehouse grounds.

I would be proud to see her and other elected Republican officials standing shoulder to shoulder calling for its removal.

If not now, when?

Dear Governor Haley,

I am writing to implore you to use your unique position and leadership to push effectively for the confederate flag to be removed from the Capitol grounds in South Carolina. This is the moment that ethics and statesmanship should reign, not a symbol of racism. Removal would be a statement that the heart and soul of South Carolina are in fact not broken, but that people are coming together as one and are, together, rebuking an unspeakable act of evil and the symbolism that surrounds that act.

I hope you will reply to me.

Thank you,

 <MSG>

I have just come from church where our priest spoke with emotion about the brutal and senseless killing in the Episcopal church on Wednesday. I truly believe if there were fewer guns available in our population there would be fewer killings, as evidenced in other countries around the world. That is one difficult issue related to this terrible case. Another is the sobering realization that racial relations & prejudice are still part of our country. I am blessed to live in the most diverse community (Queens, New York) in this glorious nation. Race and religious tolerance is the norm, although there are pockets of ignorance and hatred to be sure. We celebrate our diversity and I know there are good people in South Carolina who do also.

You have been a strong and gracious leader during this awful week. I want you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers as you deal with this painful situation.

I heard you say that "now is not the time" to consider removing the confederate flag from public locations, including the state house. I respectfully disagree. We may want to cling to the idea that the flag represents a cultural past, but the ugly truth is that it represents the worst part of our shared history. I can think of no better time than to advance the idea of removing this flag as a powerful gesture to what South Carolina means to our great United States. It has no place in our world today. Thank you for your leadership and courage.

Please take down the confederate flag from the statehouse grounds and place in in the state museum. It is a relic of the past and a symbol of racism. It does not represent my views and is not the message that I want to send to my grandchildren. The state cannot grow and prosper as long as it holds on to these symbols of prejudice and hatred.

Governor Haley,

Make us proud of SC and you today. Demand the flag come down. I know you cannot take it down as the General Assembly controls that. I have argued that point to many, on your behalf, including on FaceBook. I also know Fritz Hollings did not have the authority to take it down or keep it from flying in 1962 as it went up pursuant to a concurrent resolution. Don't be the governor that 10 years from now people imply you refused to take it down. You can be a governor who makes a huge impact all in this one press conference, both for and in our State, but also nationwide. By doing so, I think the General Assembly has no choice but to follow your lead. Make us proud!

Gov. Haley,

The country is watching. Please take down that confederate flag which currently flies on the capitol grounds. Such action by you and other Southern governors would help to move forward the critical discussion of race relations in the U.S. Change happens by actually changing things. This would be a big symbolic gesture in the right direction and it is past time to do so. And the murder of the black parishioners at the Emanuel Church may then serve some purpose.

Thank you,

Suzanne [REDACTED]

By the way, it is very difficult to make out the words above when you have a blue on blue field.

It may not mean much to you, but we have vacationed frequently at Kiawah Island. There is no way that my family can return there until a flag which clearly represents hate and treasonous acts is removed from such public display. It may be a small thing to you and your state, but it is huge to our family, and all that I know to do.

Please remove this horrid symbol, which is not of your state's history, but of slavery, intolerance, and hate. Maybe then you can start educating your citizens and treat them all equally.

Dear Gov. Haley,

I want to express my outrage and sorrow at the shooting in Charleston of 9 Black church members. It is a sickening and horrifying tragedy. In light of this, I want to urge you and your legislature to take down the Confederate flag. It does not represent history, it does not honor war dead; it merely breeds hatred like the shooter's. It is an ugly symbol of racism that gives sick people permission to commit the crimes this shooter did.

My thoughts go out to the families injured by this tragedy.

Sincerely,

Dawne [REDACTED]

Under NO circumstances should the Historical Confederate flag be removed. This is nothing but another attempt by the control freaks in the NAACP to control the majority. I suspect Democrats want the flag down because it might remind us that it was Democrats who fought against freeing the slaves by Republican President Lincoln.

If the flag is removed under the lie of racism then Black History Month should also be removed as racist.

<SUBJECT>Remove the Confederate flag from the state house</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley, I urge you to remove the Confederate flag from the South Carolina state house. It is a symbol of racism and hatred towards Americans of color and has no place on a government building. It is high time for America to be one nation under god, indivisible. It's time for us to live up to our pledge.

 <SUBJECT>"we do know that we'll never understand" quote from your message</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley:

You have the following posted in a message expressing sorrow about the murders in Charleston:

"we do know that we'll never understand what motivates anyone to enter one of our places of worship and take the life of another."

With all due respect, within a few hours of the shooting, we DID know what motivated this individual. To state that we will never know what motivates someone, especially in this situation, smacks of turning a bit away from the real issue.

Any South Carolinian knows what the issue and motivation are here, and it doesn't take a whole lot of effort at introspection to see it.

I challenge you to do the politically difficult, but morally right thing, and completely denounce this act as the act of hatred and racism that it is. Support taking the flag down, and say so publicly. Our state already has a reputation for racism - do you think that's healthy, culturally and economically (regardless of opinions of the rest of the country, which is abysmally low)?

Fact: this happened because a racist kid had easy access to a gun. Taking the flag down will not solve EITHER of those problems, obviously, and it won't bring back the victims.

But it is at LEAST a nod showing that we, and you as leader, recognize that waving a flag that offends so much of our population, in a prominent place on the grounds of our State House, is not just wrong, but antagonistic and hurtful.

Thank you for your consideration, and I ask you to please put the politics aside here, and just do what is best for our state.

Best regards,

Bruce [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

It is time to move the confederate flag to a museum where it belongs. It is divisive and there is not one good reason to leave it on the statehouse grounds. This is your opportunity to leave a positive legacy of progress and human decency. Call a special session TODAY and get the house and senate to vote on this important issue. It is a mark of shame that it is on display in 2015!

Do your part to move SC into the 21st century!

Dear Madam,

Although I am a resident of California, my father's family has roots in South Carolina that go back to the 17th Century and last until the 20th.

Therefore I wonder how some can claim that the so-called "Confederate Flag" represents "our" history. It is not theirs to speak for all of us with ties to South Carolina.

At the prayer meeting in Charleston, the mass murderer tells us he was almost moved to spare his victims, because of their kindness to him. Do you not think that was God speaking to him? He lacked the moral strength to do the right thing, and did evil.

You have the opportunity to show your leadership your fellow South Carolinians to erase past evils.

Sincerely,
 Lucey [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

Thank you for calling for the removal of the Confederate Flag from the statehouse grounds. When I moved to South Carolina 21 years ago, I couldn't believe the flag had a place of honor over the statehouse.

I wish it hadn't taken such a tragedy to refocus our attention of the issue. But I'm optimistic that we are headed in a better direction by taking this first and important step. Thank you for your leadership and efforts in this.

We'd like to echo the sentiments of Governors Romney and Bush. Remove the Confederate battle flag from your Capital and put it in a museum. It's a symbol of hatred and racism. And while you are at it - remove Article VI - Section 2 from the SC Constitution. It's in direct violation of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and not enforceable. Isn't it time South Carolina joined the Union?

Governor Haley, I feel that you have a unique opportunity to honor the lives and deaths of the victims of the tragic church shooting which occurred last week by addressing the issue of the confederate flag which flies over government buildings in your state. Acts of bigotry like this are the product of a certain mindset, (having been the target of racist slurs yourself, I am sure you are painfully aware of this) and it is my strong feeling that to have confederate flags flying over buildings with government sanction plays a part in perpetuating this mindset. It would be a bold and perhaps costly move for you, but you are in a position as an individual to make more of a difference than most of us can ever dream of making, and I hope you will consider taking action.

Honorable Gov. Haley - As a compromise in South Carolina's Confederate flag controversy, I suggest y'all fly ALL of the different regimental flags of South Carolina Civil War units to honor all the brave men of who fought and died defending their homes and families . 2 of my great great grandfather's fought for the 1st South Carolina Rifle Regiment know as "Orr's Rifles" . This could be changed daily or weekly or whatever time is deemed appropriate. Included would be the flag for the 1st South Carolina UNION Volunteers a regiment of escaped slaves which was the FIRST African American unit of the Union army. I beleivè this would not only be educational but satisfy those of us who are proud of our southern herritage INCLUDING Black South Carolinians while at the same time satisfy those that see the "Southern Jack" or Battle Flag of Northern Virginia as a segregationist or racist symbol. Would any one have a problem with that ?Good luck and God bless you and the good people of South Carolina , home of my ancestors.

<SUBJECT>Prayer support for the people of S. Carolina. Request that the state leaders permanently remove the Confederate flag from the Capitol.</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Gov. Haley,

First, I want you to know that I am praying personally for you as you work to bring healing to the people of Charleston, the Emmanuel congregation, and to your state. As a minister I was shocked and deeply saddened that such a heinous crime be committed at a Bible Study/prayer meeting. Those lost were stellar human beings, and their loss is a terrible tragedy. I have been impressed by the spirit of unity among the black and white churches, and the spirit of forgiveness displayed by the relatives of the victims.

My brother Dan (an engineer from Colorado), and I wish for the leaders of our country to come together in a determined campaign to stop racism and hatred. We believe that permanently removing the confederate flag, a symbol of shame, will make an important statement to southerners, and the whole nation. I agree with President Obama's request that it be placed in a museum, as an historical object. I am concerned that more generations of young people will see that symbol and distort its meaning to give them license to harbor feelings of racist prejudice and hatred. It's time for our country to end such feelings, and come together. I realize that you are working to heal your people, but I will greatly appreciate you taking this up with your state government as soon as you are able to.

I am also writing all the presidential candidates, the NAACP president, and Sen. Scott.

Sincerely,

Rev. Deborah [REDACTED]

Dear Governor,

I hope you are aware that there is a rapidly growing groundswell in the state against the Confederate flag on state grounds. This is going to erupt into demonstrations and marches in Columbia and renewed calls for a boycott of South Carolina. This is going to hurt business and tourism and the blame will be laid at your feet due to your lack of courage in dealing with this crisis. Your response to this has been woefully inadequate and timid. The clip of you that is being repeated on cable news discussing the flag makes you appear more concerned about the opinions of wealthy CEO's that those of the people you are there to serve. And NO your election to office and your appointment of an African American to the Senate had not ended racism, as the massacre in Charleston has tragically shown. There is no longer a middle ground on this issue. You either call for the flag to be removed NOW, or you will be remembered as the George Wallace of the 21st Century. It will be the end of any future political plans you might have and will forever damage the Republican Party not only in SC but also nationwide. DON'T SIDE WITH THE BIGOTS PLEASE! BE BRAVE!

The Confederate flag dates only from 1961 not 1861 so how could anyone honestly call that flag a symbol of Southern pride? Unfortunately, republicans are known for their pandering and grovelling (doing just about anything to get votes). It is very disappointing to see that one party in America that is so immoral and devoid of ethics. Gov. Haley was a moral coward. Will she remain one?

To Honorable Nikki R. Haley, As a fellow American I would like to suggest that maybe you offer a vote to all citizens of South Carolina if they would like to keep the Confederate Flag or not. I think it should not be up to anyone else but the citizens of your state. I am a resident of California and I would not like citizens from a different state making decisions about our state flag. Put it up to a vote to YOUR fellow South Carolinias and.. let it stand. I pray for you and the citizens of South Carolina as your heal from the recent tragedy. Thank you. Carole

IT'S A SLIPPERY SLOPE YOU HAVE JUST PUSHED AMERICAN CITIZENS DOWN. ONE FLAG DOWN, ONE TO GO. JUST WAIT AND SEE...THE STARS AND STRIPES IS NEXT. PEOPLE STOMP ON IT, THEY BURN IT, THEY SHRED IT. I GUARANTEE YOU, I PROMISE YOU THE ACLU AND OTHER TRASH WILL TAKE THE NEXT STEP TO ELIMINATE THE STARS AND STRIPE.

SHAME ON YOU FOR PUSHING AMERICANS FURTHER DOWN THAT GREASY, SLIMY SLOPE.

PS - I VOTE REPUBLICAN IN CASE THAT MEANS ANYTHING TO YOU.

Dear Gov. Haley.

The Confederate flag had nothing to do with the tragedy that occurred at Emmanuel AME church. The flag honors our ancestors who gave their lives for states rights and freedom from the tyranny of Lincoln and the federal government.

The evil that occurred in Charleston was the result of a sick and demented individual. We should not kowtow to the liberal agenda, political correctness and historical revisionism.

To do otherwise is an insult to the majority of South Carolinians.

As I am sure you are aware, the citizens of our state, regardless of race or faith, have come together to grieve and support the families of the victims. No riots, no civil disorder were seen. We came together as southerners and South Carolinians, caring for our own.

Respectfully,
 Russell [REDACTED]

Needs to come down! it is a blight on economic growth in this state, it's painful to South Carolinas many African American citizens that we killed and enslaved for so many years, and, we now know from Charleston. that is indeed very dangerous. 18 hate groups in South Carolina. Something must change and you as Governor need to take the lead. ...and an aside why would anyone want and allow guns in bars..except of course the NRA. Lets be responsible in South Carolina.

I am a Yankee, educated in the south (VMI and UNC) who does Civil War reenaction - both sides 1st VA, ANV and 2nd DEL, Army of the Patomic

In lieu of the stars and bars , hijacked by racist in the sixties. I would suggest displaying - serially, the regimental flages carries by all regiments --- includint the USCT troops from South Carolina.

That would honour all the men who displayed valor and perservance in the war.

Until South Carolina changes its state flag, my family will no longer travel to South Carolina on any vacation trips. You need to realize that South Carolina relies on tourism (I wouldn't doubt as your number one commodity). I will not support a state that cannot change its racist ways. I have made many trips to South Carolina; however, after Wednesday's tragedy, I will no longer do so. Change you flag, change your highway names, change your racist views.

Now, more than ever, we need true leadership. I believe that of all of our state leaders, you can do this. It's time to take down this symbol of hate for so many. The people of Charleston have demonstrated great love for their fellow citizens. We need to say to the rest of the country that we have moved past racial divide. It's time to bring people together--and I can think of no one better to take the lead than you. Sometimes, we have to do what is morally right, even if we know some will be upset. Thanks for your leadership. I know you can drive this agenda the right way.

Governor,

Please call a special session so a vote can be made to remove the Confederate battle flag from the state house grounds. I'm not going to quote you or others, because we all know what has been said and what has and has not been done.

My family settled in the Chapin area before the Revolutionary War and members of my family fought in the Revolutionary and Civil wars. We have lived and voted here for hundreds of years. I'm as Southern as they come.

Please listen to the people of your state and help us remove that flag. It's important.

Respectfully,

George

In the wake of the recent horrible tragedy occurring in the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church you should be aware that the eyes of the nation, no the eyes of the entire world, are upon you now. Governor, history has put you in the unique position of ushering in a new area for South Carolina, and turning away from the racist history of your state.

I am certain you know that the flag displayed so proudly on state grounds is not a symbol of peaceful, productive southern heritage, or Southern Hospitality - it is a battle flag. A divisive, violent, and racist symbol, currently representing your state.

Is it a surprise that a young man who was raised under this banner, and drives the streets named after Confederate generals, should turn out to uphold this violent and racist tradition? I believe that the perception is that a miscreant like Dylann Roof was created, and nurtured, in the arms of an intolerant racist southern tradition.

This is your chance to influence history forever Governor, by removing a racist violent symbol on state property, and proving to be a state which is home to, and governed by, decent, God fearing, welcoming people - and not a state of racist miscreants which sadly, is quickly becoming the entire world's perception of SC, and of the old south.

History is watching Governor. Do the right thing.

Governor,

I am a Southerner. My grandfather fought in Pickett's charge at Gettysberg.
 I do not want the Confederate battle flag to fly for him. Fly the bonny blue flag of the Confederacy instead. It has not been adopted as a symbol of hate.
 The swaztika was a perfectly good symbol before the Nazi's adopted it
 Hate groups have done the same thing to the stars and bars.

Subject: Summerall Chapel

I am writing you with the utmost respect and admiration for what this group stands for and has accomplished. I graduated from The Citadel in 1991. I went to school with family of some of the distinguished board members. I revisit my beloved school every year. During that visit my family makes a point of attending a service at Summerall chapel. This building has always held a special place in my heart. Summerall Chapel is more than a piece of architecture on our campus. The chapel has always been that safe haven we could go to and realize that there is a larger goal we have in life. The chapel is the place of reverence that cadets use to understand why we are sacrificing, why we are serving and why we chose this school as a place to shape our lives.

I would be less than honest if I didn't say the board's decision to remove the Confederate Naval Jack didn't disturb me. I, then, realized that it wasn't "THAT FLAG" that my attention was centered around. My issues lie within the fabric of the purpose of the school itself. I have always understood the purpose of The Citadel was "to educate and produce principled leaders". The school has now moved from the leadership stance to following the crowd. I suppose it can be stated that we are leading the cause towards appeasing the populace with the removal of the flag. I do not see it that way. Unfortunately, we have stood in line with a "knee jerk" reaction to the mood in the state right now. I am not taking a political stand one way or the other. However, I am taking issue with our board moving against the wishes of the majority of alumni. At the same time we are ignoring the Heritage Act. This was a decision made just one year ago by The Citadel. In closing I submit that if we continue to bow to public pressure on every point of contention, we will lose what we are so proud of...Our Citadel heritage.

ps I will be praying over each and every board member and your family. What you are doing is not taken lightly by any of the alumni. I greatly appreciate your efforts and graciously request a redirection on this matter.

When will the insanity stop? Someone once defined insanity as taking the same actions over and over, expecting a different result. We need to use our common sense to stop the violence now. Only people who are mentally capable and school trained should be considered for gun ownership license. Further, the civil war is over, the South lost. The confederate flag serves no purpose flying on state buildings except to inflame the racially tense situation in America. Obama is generous suggesting it be displayed in museums. I would not allow it at all, just as I would not allow a Nazi flag.

Thank you

I was going to write a different letter but then came the discovery of all the photos, manifesto and background information related to Mr. Roof and the impetus for his horrible crimes. Contrary to your prior statement we now know what motivated Mr. Roof to enter one of our places of worship and take the life of another WE ALSO KNOW (see his photo) THAT FOR HIM THE CONFEDERATE FLAG STANDS AS A SYMBOL OF THAT HATE AND RACISM, AS IT DOES FOR MANY OTHERS. While I do not doubt the legitimacy of your tears, Government can no longer appear to support hate and racism by fly.ing the confederate above its buildings. TAKE DOWN THE CONFEDERATE FLAG.

It is racist and divisive. You as the governor can write an executive order to take it down from the state house. Do it NOW before more of your racist citizens kill innocent people because of their personal hatred. What are your citizens teaching kids down there?

Dear Governor Haley,

I am very disappointed that you are not planning to remove the Confederate flag from the Confederate Soldiers' Monument. I realize that is would not be a strategic move for a politician, but as a human being it is the right thing to do. You should understand that it is a racist symbol of hatred. I am a white woman from Georgia, and I am embarrassed that I should have to say that so that you might take my opinion seriously. But my family and I will not vacation in South Carolina again until that horrendous flag comes down. Do not fear the repercussions, and do the right thing. Stand up for unity, not division.

Yours sincerely,
 Cathy [REDACTED]

Hey South Carolina,

You want to re-fight the Civil War? Fort Sumter's right there! Take your best shot. Personally, I don't think your actions of the last few days make you worthy to be part of this nation.
