Dear Mr. Lourie,

Our office received your Freedom of Information Act request for the following:

- (1) Any and all written and electronic data, findings, reports, statements, letters, emails, verbal communications, recordings, transcriptions, or other evidence relating in any way to the Department of Health and Environmental Control's investigation of Life Care Center in regards to an incident involving Lewis Jackson on February 4, 2014 or February 5, 2014.
- (2) Any and all written and electronic data[a], findings, reports, statements, letters, emails, verbal communications, recordings, transcriptions, or other evidence relating in any way to the Department of Health and Environmental Control's investigation of Life Care Center in the past (10) years.

Our office does not possess records responsive to your request. With specific regard to Item 2, please be advised that records preceding the current administration may be in the possession of the Department of Archives and History, which can be reached at 8301 Parklane Road; Columbia, South Carolina 29223.

Sincerely,
