... one person who is going to have absolute control over hiring them or letting them go.
" each time- susan alford- whom governor nikki haley appointed to the head of the embattled social agency in december- said the authority was hers- and on one else's.
"it's extremely important to me in running an agency that i have exactly the right people in place." when asked why this pledge of personal responsibility was so important to the panel- ...
