Katherine and Haley:

I don't know how much of the hate mongering that I have been seeing is getting to Governor Haley, but to the extent that any of it is, I can't imagine anyone could have a thick enough skin to not be bothered by it. So I'm once again sending positive vibes and well-wishes to try to balance out the vile on the other side.

Please communicate to the Governor my continued appreciation for her leadership in the past several weeks. I have disagreed with her on vetoes and policy, but she has shown exquisite leadership while the eyes of the nation have been upon us. And I appreciate that more than I can say. So many legislators have drawn courage from the example she set. And when I read the negativity - especially in the viscerally hateful form it has taken lately - I feel a strong need to let her know that the negativity of a loud micro-minority of people is more than outweighed by the appreciation of the rest of us.

Thanks for all y'all do!

Mandy

It was great to see y'all today too. Enjoyed sitting on the steps in the shade together to watch the final details. :)

On the hope that y'all get these emails, I wanted you to know that I'm reading the responses to Governor Haley's tweet tonight and my heart is really going out to her and to the whole staff. This stance took so much courage, especially for Republicans. And I want you all to know that it's deeply appreciated. We'll all be on the right side of history in the end, but I'm sure that's little comfort when you're on the receiving end of such vitriol as I have read in response to her tweet tonight. I just wanted to add a "thank you" to the mix. It took courage and you're all appreciated!
