Ok Lesia,

Just had a nice conversation with Mr. Graham, he understands the code situation as I outlined in my previous email. He is willing to fill out a complaint form regarding the code issues that he feels were violated by Horry County and I am supplying him with the documents necessary to accomplish this.

I further explained that LLR does not get involved with the ethical issues he raised and he understands and will look to the Ethics Commission for assistance in that regard.

He extends his thanks to the Governor for acting on his letter and states that she has revived his faith in state government.

He has my contact information and will follow-up should he need further assistance.

Roger

Lesia,

See attached letter to the Governor from a constituent regarding concerns about building code compliance in Horry County. Please review – I think a contact from LLR or one of the regulatory entities may be best suited to offer assistance on the Governor's behalf. If you would like to discuss, please feel free to give me a call.

Thank you for your help,

Ted & Rob,

It was a cold walk this afternoon, but it paid off when I got to catch both of you at the same time. You both looked refreshed and ready for 2012!

As you are aware, on January 12, 2012 the Home Builders Association and its housing partners (realtors, home owners, municipal assn, Urban League, etc.) will be holding a housing rally at the SC Statehouse at 1 - 1:45 p.m. to promote the value of home ownership. The focus will be on the value of home ownership for families, the industry, and the country. We are expecting close to 400 attendees. We are also expecting several Presidential Candidates to speak at the rally. The focus is to get out a positive message on the value of home ownership. We are not going to be pushing any specific legislative proposals, just awareness of the issue.

We regret that the Governor can't join us, but understand we need all the new jobs we can get, so we are looking forward to yet another economic development announcement from the Governor. Keep them coming!

Thank you for volunteering the Governor's assistance on the Housing Rally. We have three requests:

1. We would like the Governor to provide a quote on the value of housing in South Carolina and tape a small video clip on Wednesday afternoon in her office on January 11 at her convenience. The film crew will be available all afternoon on January 11. Rob just let me know what you need. I attached a copy of the brochure for your review.
2. We would appreciate if Tim would reach out to the Romney campaign and encourage them to participate in the Housing Rally. We would like to have all the fore runners in the primary race in attendance for brief comments. Great free exposure for the candidates one week before the SC primary. We have not been successful in getting our information to the key Romney campaign staff so far.

3. Consider having the Governor sign the petition (attached), if she is willing. It focuses on getting the feds to address repressive regulatory issues that will bring common sense back to the marketplace and get our nation back on the road to recovery.

Please let me know when you have something definite on these requests. The state local, state and national HBA stand by to help in any way we can.

Also, please thank the Governor for her willingness to assist us on this important event. She has been a long-time supporter of our homebuilding industry

Keep up the good work and let us know how we can help.

Thanks,

Julian

With So Much At Stake...

Why is Homeownership

Under Attack?

Today, policymakers are threatening to eliminate our nation's long-standing commitment to homeownership. Tax, legislative and regulatory schemes would freeze out buyers by scaling back or eliminating the mortgage interest deduction and making mortgages unaffordable and difficult to obtain.

If this happens, millions of first-time home buyers and middle-class households would be left out in the cold.

We need your help.

Tell your elected officials to:

- Protect the mortgage interest deduction. Don't change the rules on the one tax break that has been most important in creating a stable middle class in America.
- Make sure credit-worthy consumers and small businesses can get mortgages and loans.
- Help resolve the foreclosure crisis.

Take Action Today!

Without the help of Americans everywhere, unjust policies that threaten the fabric of our society will take effect. We need your help.

- Go to www.rallyforhomeownership.com
- Sign our petition
- Send a letter to our elected leaders
- Tell a friend

Economic Recovery Starts at Home

It Puts Families in Homes and Americans in Jobs

Homeownership Protects:

America's Dreams

Americans value homeownership and want the federal government to provide tax incentives to promote homeownership.

We oppose eliminating the mortgage interest deduction and view saving for a 20 percent downpayment as the most significant barrier to homeownership.

Public opinion polls show that 81 percent of adults agree that buying a home is the best long-term investment. (Pew Research Center Study, March 2011).

CONSIDER THESE FACTS

- 89 percent of recent voters said that homeownership is an important part of the American dream.
- 73 percent of all respondents -- both owners and renters -- believe the federal government should provide tax incentives to promote homeownership.
- 95 percent of the home owners surveyed said they are happy with their decision to own a home.
- 73 percent of the respondents who don't own a home said that becoming a home owner is one of their goals.

(National Association of Home Builders, May 2011)

America's Jobs

Our homes are "Made in America"

More than 1.4 million jobs in residential construction have been lost since employment peaked at 3.45 million in April of 2006, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. To date, less than two percent of those jobs have been restored.

Most of the products used to build or remodel a home are made right here in America.

Home construction and remodeling creates jobs far beyond the job site. About half of the jobs created by building a new home are in construction itself.

The rest are in housing-related industries that produce building materials and services to both home builders and home buyers, including insurance and finance.

America's Economy

Building 100 average single-family homes generates:

- 305 jobs
- $23.1 million in wage and business income
- $8.9 million in taxes and revenue for state, local and federal governments

Housing accounts for about 15 percent of our nation's gross domestic product – this includes new construction, remodeling and related products and services.

Homeownership Works for America

Petition to Lawmakers

For generations of Americans, owning your home has meant owning your future... a future where your families thrive and your dreams are within reach. Homeownership is the foundation of our economy.

Today, policies threaten to eliminate our nation's long-standing commitment to homeownership such as tax, legislative and regulatory schemes that would freeze out buyers by scaling back or eliminating the mortgage interest deduction and making mortgages and small business loans unaffordable and difficult to obtain.

Americans need our help in preserving and protecting homeownership. Therefore, we resolve to enact policies that:

- > Protect the mortgage interest deduction. Don't change the rules on the one tax break that has been most important in creating a stable middle class in America.
- > Make sure credit-worthy consumers and small businesses can get mortgages and loans.
- > Help resolve the foreclosure crisis.

Nick,

I hope you are doing well. Thanks for your email last week. Governor Haley is available to meet on Tuesday, October 27th at 2:00 PM in the Governor's Office. Will this date and time work? Do you mind sending me a list of attendees a few days prior to the meeting?

Thanks,
Nicole

Nicole,

I hope this email finds you well!

I'm trying to schedule a leadership meeting with Gov. Haley. My officers annually meet with the Governor, and the leadership of the House and Senate and wanted to see if you could help arrange that--anytime between now and November would work, no rush.

Thanks!

Governor Haley & Staff,

The Hilton Head Area Home Builders Association cordially invites you to be our guest at our 18th fairway hospitality tent at next week's RBC Heritage Tournament. Attached you will find an invitation detailing our hospitality tent location and times. We hope that you will be able to stop by and visit with our members while at the tournament!

Please let me know if there is a particular day and tentative time that the Governor and/or staff plan to stop by so that we can inform tent security and our HBA leadership.

Kindest regards,
Ashley

Subject: Invitation to Annual HBASC Bird Supper

James,

I hope all is well with you. I wanted to extend an invitation to Governor Haley to join us for the 45th annual Bird Supper. This year, the event will take place on April 14th at Seawell's here in Columbia. The reception starts at 6:00 and the dinner begins at 6:30. I understand the governor's schedule is very busy, but we would love to have her join us. You are welcome to attend as well, even if Governor Haley can not make it. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Also, I wanted to let you know we are currently working on legislation to create the South Carolina Building Code. We have had preliminary conversations with a few legislators, but I wanted to put it on your radar as well. I'm not sure how much interest y'all might have in the bill at this point, but you can feel free to reach out to me or Mark Nix with any questions.

Thanks

Monthly Indicators

February 2015

There has been talk of abundant cold and snow this winter (unless you happen to live in California!). When weather patterns turn bad, like wicked bad, real estate industry pundits tend to go gloom, assuming that Americans hungry for homeownership are bothered by a little frozen precipitation. The nation will unfreeze, inventory is expected to rise and home sales are widely expected to increase. These are good times, indeed, and many of us now have an enchanting shared experience that we can walk uphill to school both ways.

New Listings were up 4.8 percent to 8,722. Pending Sales increased 13.5 percent to 5,437. Inventory shrank 5.2 percent to 39,483 units.

Prices moved higher as Median Sales Price was up 5.6 percent to $160,000. Days on Market decreased 6.5 percent to 115 days, the twelfth consecutive month of year-over-year declines. Months Supply of Inventory was down 13.6 percent to 7.0 months, also the twelfth consecutive month of year-over-year declines.

In national financial news, rumors that Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac could one day be a thing of the past have people wondering about the future of the 30-year fixed-rate mortgage. But let's not sound the alarm just yet. A drastic change to lending's gold standard is certainly not on the immediate horizon. Meanwhile, Federal Reserve Chair Janet Yellen seems to have no immediate interest in raising interest rates for the first time since 2006. The economy remains stable, which should keep housing rolling through the short-named months.

Housing Supply Overview

A RESEARCH TOOL PROVIDED BY SOUTH CAROLINA REALTORS®

February 2015

This is the year, folks. We should all be watching for more inventory compared to last year at various price segments to give hungry buyers something more to bite on. Rates are expected to remain low enough to be easy prey. For the 12-month period spanning March 2014 through February 2015, Pending Sales in the state of South Carolina were up 10.0 percent overall. The price range with the largest gain in sales was the $300,001 and Above range, where they increased 15.1 percent.

The overall Median Sales Price was up 3.4 percent to $163,310. The property type with the largest price gain was the Single-Family Homes segment, where prices increased 3.1 percent to $171,000. The price range that tended to sell the quickest was the $150,001 to $200,000 range at 109 days; the price range that tended to sell the slowest was the $300,001 and Above range at 125 days.

Market-wide, inventory levels were down 5.2 percent. The property type that lost the least inventory was the Single Family segment, where it decreased 4.8 percent. That amounts to 6.7 months supply for Single-Family homes and 8.1 months supply for Condos.

Nicole,

Thank you. 10 minutes of remarks followed by 5 minutes of Q&A should work well. Thank you. Below are the answers to your questions. Please let me know if you need anything additional. We are really looking forward to seeing Gov. Haley tomorrow!

1. Where in the Columbia Convention Center will the rally take place? Exhibit Hall
2. How will the room be set-up? Stage? Microphone? Round tables? Rows of chairs? Theater style with a stage and a podium with a mic.
3. Do you mind sending me your cell phone number for the Governor's Travel Aide to text when the Governor is 5 minutes away?
803.318.1630
4. Is there anything in particular you would like for the Governor to touch on? Her economic development efforts and successes.
5. Governor Haley will speak for 10 mins. Will Q&A be appropriate? 10 minutes of remarks and 5 minutes of Q&A is perfect.

Nicole,

I will get all of this information to you first thing in the morning. Staff from your office contacted me Friday asking for some market statistics, and I will send that along as well.

One question. If we did Q&A would that cut into the Governor's 10 minutes of remarks? Is prefer to have her speak the whole time if that's the case.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Cashion

Tim,

I hope this email finds you well. I need a good intro to introduce the Gov. at our event in a few weeks.

Do you have something you can send me? Short and sweet but complimentary on her jobs records and pro-business appointments at LLR and DHEC?

Also need a good hi-res photo, the Gov. at work, not just a headshot.

Thanks!

Dear Nicole:

The SC Realtors will host our annual REALTOR Rally on Tuesday, March 3, 2015. We will have about 300 REALTORS from across SC in attendance. We would like to invite the Governor to speak to our group somewhere in the 10am and 12pm window. We will be at the Columbia Convention Center (1101 Lincoln Street). Please let me know if this is a possibility that morning, and we will accommodate her schedule.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of this request.

The Home Builders Association of Greater Columbia will present the Columbia Housing Summit from 7:45a.m. until 11:30 a.m. on December 17 at the Agape Convention Center in downtown Columbia. In addition to the Summit, the association will announce a name change for the organization, a fixture in Columbia for more than 50 years. The new name is the Building Industry Association of Central South Carolina, approved earlier this year by the Board of Directors of the Association and by the National Association of Home Builders.

The Columbia Housing Summit will review the results achieved in 2014 and will provide insight into the expectations for 2015 as seen by a panel of national, regional and local economists and researchers. The Summit Panelists include NAHB economist Dr. David Crowe, Darla Moore School Research economist Dr. Joseph VonNessen, and M.O.R.E. Researcher Bernard Helm and will be moderated by past president of the HBAGC Andy White. Each presentation will be followed by questions from the attendees and media present. Tickets are $25 each for Home Builders Association members and $75 for non-members. Tickets are available on-line at <https://columbiahousingsummit.eventbrite.com/> Registration required for the Housing Summit by Friday, December 12th.

A news conference will follow the Columbia Housing Summit which will held at the Agape Convention Center located at 1227 Taylor Street in Columbia.

“The construction industry is a bell-weather of our economy as has been frequently noted by all the presenters participating in the Columbia Housing Summit,” said John Covert, 2014 President of the HBAGC. “This change will better reflect the members of our association and the area that we serve. We do much more than just build homes, and our reach far exceeds that of ‘greater Columbia.’ Representing the building industry is a much better description of what this organization does.”

“Construction has not been contributing to the current economic expansion to the degree that it has during past expansion periods,” according to Dr. Joseph VonNessen, a presenter at the Summit. “Housing prices are rising and contributing to increased levels of household wealth, which is translating into more disposable income for consumers and more spending activity statewide. However, if we are to get to a significantly higher and more appropriate rate of growth in South Carolina, the construction industry has to play a bigger role.”

“Even with the incomplete recovery from the recession, members of this association created over half a billion dollars of new construction in the last twelve months,” according to David Tuttle, 2015 President of the association. “Our professional responsibility is to assist our members in their continuing effort to maintain the economic viability of our industry. The changing economic climate has seen some blurring of the line between commercial and residential construction, so it makes perfect sense that we bring together all of those involved in our industry to recharge this vital economic engine for the overall benefit of our communities.”

The name change is a result of intensive research conducted by the Association’s Future Task Force, chaired by Jennifer Harding, Vice-President and Relocation Director for Russell & Jeffcoat Real Estate. “This change insures our position of leadership in the industry and reflects the changes and focus of housing in the future while encouraging affiliation with other industry organizations in central South Carolina.”

The Agape Conference Center is located at 1624 Main St., Columbia, SC. Parking is available in the Cannon Garage at 1227 Taylor Street, between Main and Sumter Streets. Contact the Home Builders Association for more information or questions at (803) 256-6238.

Subject: Gov. Haley in Charleston

Nicole,

I spoke to Matt yesterday, and he informed me that Governor Haley was not available the week of January 12. Are there any other availabilities in January? Our group is happy to be flexible and work around her other commitments. If January does not work, is there another time in the next few months when she will already be in that area? Just trying to find a time when she has plans to be in Charleston to see if we can work it out that way. If you have any questions, or other suggestions, please feel free to contact me at any time.

Thanks

Subject: Scheduling Request for Gov. Haley

Nicole,

Good morning. My name is Matt Niehaus, and I am the Director of Government Affairs for the Home Builders Association of South Carolina. Our local HBA chapter in Charleston (Charleston Trident HBA) would like to invite Governor Haley to speak to the membership at an upcoming event. They plan to hold a general membership meeting during the week of January 12, 2015. This event is similar to when she spoke to the Greater Columbia HBA earlier this year. The attendance should be 100+ and will include builders, developers, realtors, insurance agents, contractors, and other groups related to residential construction. The Charleston HBA is willing to be flexible to work around the Governor's schedule, so any day that week will work for them. You can feel free to get back to me at your earliest convenience.

Thank you

Governor Haley & Staff:

On behalf of the Hilton Head Area Home Builders Association, I am writing to invite you to our annual Home Builders Legislative Lowcountry Boil on Thursday, September 25 at 5:30 PM at the Waddell Mariculture Center (211 Sawmill Creek Road, Bluffton).

Featuring the savory fixings of a traditional Lowcountry boil and breathtaking views of the Colleton River, this annual Home Builders Association event provides our 450+ member companies the chance to recognize our hard-working legislators and their staff, and learn more about the strides being made on behalf of our local area and industry. We hope you and your staff will join us, allowing us the opportunity to say thanks!

Attached you will find our formal invitation. I will follow up with a call to your office next week to learn of your availability. In the meantime, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your consideration of this invitation.

Sincerely,
Ashley Feaster

Thanks, Nicole. We have a few other things going on at our Annual Conference that Thursday and Friday (September 18-19) in Myrtle Beach that we wanted to see if she could attend. On Thursday, an opening session from 11am-12pm and on Friday a Board of Directors meeting at 1:30pm. Would she be able to make a brief appearance at either of these?

Yes we will be set up in rounds.
There will be a Head Table with a podium/mic.
At the head table will be our President John Covert, Earl McLeod, David Tuttle, Vice-President.

The contact is Cal Seawell for the event. His number is 771-7385.

David Tuttle is our Vice President of the HBA. He is with Lake Carolina.

That would be great on her speaking time etc. and she is welcome to leave after her remarks.

Let me know if you need anything else.
Thanks again!

How will Seawells be set-up? Typical stage with podium, and microphone? Will guests be seated at round tables?

Will Governor Haley be seated at a head table? If so, can you please provide me with the names of those who will be seated with her?

Do you have an onsite contact for Seawells that I can share with the Governor's security detail to contact prior to the meeting?

Will David Tuttle introduce Governor Haley? I believe I sent Earl Governor Haley's bio, but if you need me to resend it, just let me know.

What is David Tuttle's title?

Governor Haley will speak for 13-15 mins with 8-10 mins of Q&A. Will this be ok?

Below is the agenda Earl provided me with. Will it be ok if Governor Haley departed after Q&A, or does she need to stay for the reports?

Why Do we care About Economic Development A Housing Perspective

Earl McLeod
October 30, 2013

Job, Jobs, Jobs

Residential construction has a positive, direct impact on the U.S. economy, the state and Lexington County.

For each new single-family that is built, the National Association of Home Builders estimates that three jobs are created. Last year in the Midlands of South Carolina we built in excess of 2800 new homes creating 8499 jobs; in Lexington County alone there were approximately 3800 new jobs created.

And these numbers are small compared to the boom years of 2005-2006 when over 6000 new homes were built in the area.

The estimated one-year impact of building 100 single- family homes include

- $21.1 million in local income
- $2.2 million in taxes and other revenues for local governments, and
- 324 local jobs

Residential construction not only creates income for those employed in the industry but also for those working in industries supplying inputs to home builders and remodelers. Jobs are generated in the industries where lumber, concrete, lighting fixtures, heating and cooling equipment, and other products that go into a home are produced. More jobs are created when real estate agents, bankers like my friend Mike Crapps, lawyers and others provide services to home builders and home buyers.

Often these suppliers are located in neighboring or other states. For this reason, home building not only contributes to local economies in the states where it takes place, but also stimulates economic activity across state borders. According to the Bureau of Economic Analysis, there are more than fifty industries that supply products and services to construction. Miscellaneous professional, scientific and technical services, retail trade, manufacturing of fabricated metal, nonmetallic mineral and wood products are the largest contributors of inputs used in residential construction.

In 2005 the share of housing in the nation's total production of goods and services reached a record 16.6 percent. Since then it has fallen and in 2007 stood at 15.2 percent of the US Gross Domestic Product (GDP). 2005 is also the most recent year for which detailed information about individual state economies is available. In 2005 housing accounted for 16.8% of South Carolinas' Gross State Product

And Housing is "Made in America" Most of the products used in home construction and remodeling are manufactured here in the United States.

More reasons as to why we care...

- A strong housing industry not only means more jobs, but more money in our communities
- Home building increases the property tax base which generates revenue that supports local schools and communities

The additional, annually recurring impacts of building 100 single-family homes include

- $3.1 million in local income
- $743,000 in taxes and other revenues for local governments, and
- 53 local jobs

These are ongoing, annual impacts that result from new homes being occupied, and the occupants paying taxes and participating in the local economy year after year.

The National Association of Home Builders forecast for housing starts this year is 932,000. This is well below the long-run trend of 1.7 to 1.9 new homes that are necessary to accommodate population growth and replacement of older housing stock.

The gap between current production and potential housing construction is roughly 800,000- that represents 2.4 million untapped American jobs. In South Carolina we are projecting an increase of 23% next year, which means more jobs and economic benefits for our state and Lexington County.

In normal times, whatever that means, housing accounts for more than 17% of gross domestic product. Restoring the health of the housing industry is a crucial first step in putting America back to work and keeping our County's economy healthy and vibrant.

In closing There Really is No Place Like Home

There are many positive financial aspects to homeownership, but a home cannot be valued in monetary terms alone. Not only can homeownership be a steppingstone to greater financial well-being, it provides a permanent place to call home and great personal satisfaction.

Academic research also shows that homeownership provides a wide range of social benefits and strengthens the nation's people and its communities.

Homeownership is truly a cornerstone of the American way of life and that is why we care about Economic Development and in particular the County's Housing Industry.

TALKING POINTS

While the General Assembly will deal with a variety of subjects, there are several issues of importance to home builders and that our industry are likely to receive consideration this session and the next.

Local Business Licenses:

H.3986 - Rep. Samuel Rivers

CALL TO ACTION

The HBASC has long been working to improve the business license environment in South Carolina. A number of our members have expressed significant concerns with the current process that makes compliance extremely difficult and places a heavy burden on small businesses. Rep. Samuel Rivers has filed H.3986 to freeze business license fees charged by municipalities to existing levels as of January 1, 2013 and allow counties to become the centralized collection point for those fees

MESSAGE

Share with your Representatives and Senators how your company is negatively impacted by the business license process and this issue needs to be addressed as soon as possible.

Local Lobbying Requirements:

H.3945 – Rep. Murrell Smith

CALL TO ACTION

During debate on the Senate floor, an amendment to the Ethics Reform bill was proposed to require any individual who is retained for the expressed purpose of testifying before a county council, city council, or other political subdivision – regardless of whether or not the individual is compensated – to register as a lobbyist with the State Ethics Commission. This would mean any builder or contractor who goes before a local governing body for any action (i.e. permits, variances, zoning changes, etc.)

would be required to register as a lobbyist. This would create a hindrance not only for our local HBAs, but also for any HBA member by placing them under the same provisions (fees, personal financial declarations, and detailed issue reports) as a state level lobbyist.

MESSAGE

Ask your Representative to support ethics reform, but oppose any attempts to require builders and contractors to be required to register as a lobbyist at the local level.

Patent Trolling: H.4629 – Rep. Kirkman Finlay & S.1121 – Sen. Paul Campbell

CALL TO ACTION

This legislation addresses the demand letter issue that builders across the country are beginning to face. In these situations, a builder receives a letter claiming that a particular building method they are using is patented by the "patent troll" and thus the builder is guilty of patent infringement. These letters come from "patent trolls" and will threaten legal action unless the builder pays a license fee to the supposed patent holder. This issue surfaced in Oregon when a supposed patent holder sent a letter to builders claiming to hold a patent covering all aspects of moisture remediation during construction. The letter claimed all moisture remediation procedures other than natural drying or use of the home's furnace was a patent infringement. The "patent troll" offered to license the procedure to the builder for $150/house in lieu of legal action. According to a Boston University study,

ECONOMIC IMPACT OF HOUSING IN S.C.

Home building generates substantial economic benefits for S.C., including income and jobs for residents of the state, and revenue for the state government and local governments within the state. The National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) has developed a model to estimate these economic benefits.

The model captures the effect of the construction activity itself, the ripple impact that occurs when income earned from construction activity is spent and recycles in the state's economy, and the ongoing impact that results from new homes becoming occupied by residents who pay taxes and buy goods and services produced within the state. In order to fully capture the positive impact residential construction has on a state's economy, it's important to include the ripple effects and the ongoing benefits.

S.C. is projected to build 20,000 single family homes in 2014. The estimated economic impact is at least:

-$3.2 billion in income for South Carolina residents,

-$690.2 million in taxes and other revenue for the state and local governments in the state, and

-57,120 new jobs in South Carolina.

The additional, annually recurring impacts of building 20,000 single-family homes in South Carolina include:

-$554.2 million in income for South Carolina residents,

-$203.2 million in taxes and other revenue for the state and local governments in the state, and

-11,284 new jobs in South Carolina.

These are ongoing, annual local impacts that result from the new homes being occupied and the occupants paying taxes and otherwise participating in the state economy year after year.

patent trolls cost US companies more than $29 billion in legal fees and settlements in 2011 alone.

MESSAGE

Ask your Representative to co-sponsor and support H.4629, and your Senators to co-sponsor and support S.1121, to prevent patent trolls from threatening baseless lawsuits against builders and contractors.

Property Tax Discount for Active Duty Military: H.3027 – Rep. Murrell Smith

CALL TO ACTION

In light of current action being taken by the Federal government as part of the Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) process. H.3027 provides a property tax credit for active duty military personnel in South Carolina. The bill will allow for active duty members of the military who are relocated or reassigned for at least one year to qualify for the 4% special assessment ratio. This bill is expected to provide addition help to members of the military stationed in South Carolina, and to help the state avoid potential closures as part of BRAC by creating a better environment for military personnel.

MESSAGE

Thank your Representatives and Senators for supporting this legislation to protect South Carolina's military installations. Special thanks goes to Jimmy Derrick for spearheading the effort to make this bill a reality.

South Carolina Building Code

CALL TO ACTION

The HBASC is working with a number of interested groups to create the South Carolina Building Code. This state-specific code would allow for a more efficient and effective code adoption process. The code would be tailored to South Carolina and take into consideration the specific needs of the building and development industry in our state. The SC Building Code would also change to a five year code adoption cycle to mirror other building published building codes and recent legislation in other states.

MESSAGE

Tell your Representatives and Senators how burdensome the current code adoptions process and how a South Carolina-specific building code would benefit our industry and affordable housing. This bill is expected to be filed in the next legislative session.

About HBAGC: The Home Builders Association of Greater Columbia (HBAGC) is a non-profit professional trade association founded in 1957 for the purpose of maintaining high professional standards in the residential construction industry. Based in Columbia, SC, it is comprised of over 850 builder and associate firms representing over 18,000 industry professionals involved in home building, remodeling, multifamily construction, property management, subcontracting, design, housing finance, building product manufacturing and other aspects of residential and light commercial construction. The HBAGC is affiliated with the Home Builders Association of South Carolina and the National Association of Home Builders and is ranked by size in the top 20 of nearly 800 local Home Builders Associations in the country. During a typical year, residential construction accounts for about five cents of every dollar spent in the U.S. economy, making home building one of the largest and most influential industries in the country. At the current rate of building in the Midlands, the industry generates annually over 13,700 jobs in construction and construction related industries, $445 million in wages and approximately $238 million in federal, state and local tax revenues and fees. In addition, buyers of new homes spend an average of $6,500 within the first twelve months to furnish, decorate and improve their homes. On an annual basis new homebuyers would generate over $36.4 million to the local economy.

Thanks for a great event today. Your staff was awesome, and we had over 1000 people over the course of the day. We distributed hundreds of clean-up kits, and we packed and distributed hundreds of food boxes.

The next event will be Tuesday from 2:00-7:00 at

Temple Of Faith Church,
2850 Congaree Rd
Columbia, South Carolina 29052

For all future events, the Governor has asked that we display table-top signs that describe the services available from the agency (i.e. "Ask me about testing your well water" or "Ask me about unemployment benefits and job placement"). PRT will be printing those for us on Monday, so please send me the verbiage for your sign by Sunday night.

The Governor will choose sites and dates for future events on Monday, so we are hopeful this will get a little easier as we go and give more time for planning. Thanks again for your flexibility and enthusiasm for this effort.

Hey Rebecca,

I hope you are well. I have a few questions regarding the General Membership Meeting next Thursday. Sorry to bombard you- let me know if you have any questions for me!

How will Seawells be set-up? Typical stage with podium, and microphone? Will guests be seated at round tables?

Will Governor Haley be seated at a head table? If so, can you please provide me with the names of those who will be seated with her?

Do you have an onsite contact for Seawells that I can share with the Governor's security detail to contact prior to the meeting?

Will David Tuttle introduce Governor Haley? I believe I sent Earl Governor Haley's bio, but if you need me to resend it, just let me know.

What is David Tuttle's title?

Governor Haley will speak for 13-15 mins with 8-10 mins of Q&A. Will this be ok?

Below is the agenda Earl provided me with. Will it be ok if Governor Haley departed after Q&A, or does she need to stay for the reports?

Hey,
The room will be set up in rounds.
There will be a head table with a podium and mic.
She will be sitting with the leadership team of the HBA, John Covert, David Tuttle, Bart Bartlett, Earl McLeod. (we will probably sit her next to Earl because they are buddies).

We have about 165 people signed up but that list will honestly change before tomorrow. I'd rather give you one tomorrow so that it is more accurate.

Thanks for your help!
Are you coming tomorrow?

Tedd,

Good afternoon! Hope this email finds you well. The SCR Leadership Group will be in Columbia for their legislative day on Tuesday, March 4th. We were hoping that they could perhaps visit with the Governor for a few moments, if she is in town that day. The Group will arrive at the Statehouse at 10 am and will avail themselves to the Governor's schedule.

Thank you in advance for your attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Cashion

Hey Rebecca,

I am sorry that I had to report bad news. I have not responded to Earl yet, because I wanted to be able to offer another date. Unfortunately Governor Haley is unavailable on March 19, 2014 for a lunch at the Palmetto Club. I know Earl also suggested the Governor attend the Bird Supper on March 25th. Governor Haley received an invitation to that event from Mark Nix. I let Mark know last week that unfortunately the Governor's schedule will not permit for her to attend again this year. The Governor's schedule is so tight over the next few months.

Please let me know of other future dates, and I will be happy to check the Governor's availability. I hope things will begin to slow down a bit in May, but it will be hard to confirm anything on the Governor's calendar until a few weeks out.

Thank you for understanding. I apologize for any trouble this may have caused you.

About HBAGC: The Home Builders Association of Greater Columbia (HBAGC) is a non-profit professional trade association founded in 1957 for the purpose of maintaining high professional standards in the residential construction industry. Based in Columbia, SC, it is comprised of over 850 builder and associate firms representing over 18,000 industry professionals involved in home building, remodeling, multifamily construction, property management, subcontracting, design, housing finance, building product manufacturing and other aspects of residential and light commercial construction. The HBAGC is affiliated with the Home Builders Association of South Carolina and the National Association of Home Builders and is ranked by size in the top 20 of nearly 800 local Home Builders Associations in the country. During a typical year, residential construction accounts for about five cents of every dollar spent in the U.S. economy, making home building one of the largest and most influential industries in the country. At the current rate of building in the Midlands, the industry generates annually over 13,700 jobs in construction and construction related industries, $445 million in wages and approximately $238 million in federal, state and local tax revenues and fees. In addition, buyers of new homes spend an average of $6,500 within the first twelve months to furnish, decorate and improve their homes. On an annual basis new homebuyers would generate over $36.4 million to the local economy.

Hey,
I hope you love your job! It is SO great to have you to talk to!
I forwarded your email to Earl McLeod our Executive Director. He is going to reply back with dates/etc.
Thanks!
See you soon.
Rebecca

Hey Rebecca,

I hope you are doing well! I wanted to make sure we were on the same page regarding Governor Haley's attendance at a future Home Builders Association of Greater Columbia meeting. Is there a future meeting Leigh has already committed the Governor to attending? If not, can you please provide me with a few dates for us to look at?

Thanks,
Nicole
