Hospice & Community Care
Quilt Raffle

Hospice & Community Care has been gifted with a beautiful quilt from the York County Quilters Guild. This quilt will be given away to one lucky individual as part of a drawing on February 14th 9:00 AM.

Tickets are just $10.

There are three ways to get your raffle ticket.

You can send a check payable to Hospice & Community Care with a note about the quilt raffle. When we receive your letter, we will enter you in the raffle and send you a letter confirming your entry.

You can stop by our office and purchase a ticket in person. You can also check out the quilt, which is on display in the administration building. It is beautiful! Or you can check out the pictures on our Facebook page by clicking here.

Or you can join our Sustainer Circle of friends who donate to Hospice & Community Care monthly.

New members will receive a complementary raffle ticket. Your monthly gift will help provide vital hospice care for friends, family, and neighbors in our communities, grief and loss counseling, youth grief workshops, and unique programs designed to support Veterans at end of life.

When you join, you receive special recognition as a Sustainer Circle monthly donor in our Annual Report. And as a member you may choose from a variety of secure, easy, and convenient automatic-giving options and will receive an annual itemization of your tax deductible giving for tax-filing purposes. It is easy to budget and you do not have to worry about writing or mailing checks. And, you can end anytime you wish just by calling our office.
