All sites are reservable. I would definitely make a reservation before arriving at the park.

Is there a minimum stay limit if a booking is made
As we are coming from Missouri..
Probably be in and around that area for a week
Then back home
Don't know the area
If the weather turns bad I don't wish to be stuck there..
Or we find another location to stay
Reason why asking if you accept first come
So we could be free to move on without paying cancellation fees

Which is part of the whole camping experience
