

ers (J. D. Fraser's daughter, Mrs. Arthur St. J. Simons, Mrs. Jerome Fuller, Mrs. (left to right) are also in

The Scene
8/15/47

In the flower garden Mrs. W. H. Kelly is shown receiving the check from Mrs. Simons. Also in the picture are Mrs. Cathcart, Mrs. Fuller, Mr. Hayes from the maintenance staff at Gonzales garden and Mrs. Going (left to right).

Columbia Garden Club Gives Prizes at Gonzales Gardens

J. D. Fraser won first prize for the best victory or vegetable garden and Mrs. W. A. H. Kelly won first prize for the best flower beds in the contest put on by the Columbia Garden club at the Gonzales Gardens. Mrs. Arthur St. J. Simons is president of the club.

The gardens were judged Wednesday and prizes awarded to the winners. The judges were Mrs. James A. Cathcart, Mrs. Walter Going and Mrs. Jerome Fuller.

Honorable mention was given Mrs. W. H. Melton for second best vegetable garden and Mrs. Oneida Huggins for the second best flower garden.

Mr. Fraser's garden the following in a flourishing condition: Butterbeans, bush bean, collards, tomatoes, okra, cowpeas and peppers. A rose in full bloom, a large white hibiscus and a bed of lavender verbena added a touch of color to this fine garden.

Mrs. Kelly's flower garden showed much thought in design and color combinations. Pompom zinnias and petunias made a gay border at one end of the garden. Purple petunias and dwarf pale yellow carnation flowered marigolds were the delightful combination used in a circular bed. A pale pink double althea in the midst of some evergreen shrubbery in the background added in-