Hope you are doing well! Thanks for reaching out. I messaged you back, and then realized to scroll down and get your info. J I initially ignored your linked in request because I was in the middle of a job change that week! Glad I saw you to remind me to go back and read your request! I am now at the Governor's Office. However, I sent the info to the new LLR Director and she was excited to have it. She has passed it to their HR Department. I am happy to send your info to other Directors if you would like. You have a great program.

I mentioned in my response that I saw Riley at Walmart this week. J He didn't know me, but I told him when you grow up in the youth group everyone knows you.
