[SUMMARY]: Tampa, FL Regional Forum

The Tampa White House Conference on Aging Regional Forum, held on February 19, 2015, was the first in a series of 2015 White House Conference on Aging forums. These regional forums are co-sponsored by AARP and are being planned in coordination with the Leadership Council of Aging Organizations, a coalition of more than 70 of the nation's leading organizations serving older Americans.

Over 200 older adults, caregivers, advocates, community leaders, and experts in the field of aging attended the Tampa Regional Forum. The forum featured remarks by U.S. Congresswoman Kathy Castor (FL-14); Sam Verghese, Secretary, Florida Department of Elder Affairs; Bob Buckhorn, Mayor, City of Tampa, FL; and Jeannine English, President, AARP [\[READ MORE\]](#)

[BLOG]: Kicking off the White House Conference on Aging in Tampa

by Cecilia Muñoz,

Assistant to the President and Director of the White House Domestic Policy Council

Last Thursday, I traveled to Tampa, Florida to kick off the first regional forum of the 2015 White House Conference on Aging. This forum brought together a community of older Americans, advocates, caregivers, experts, and local leaders who are committed to working to address the changing landscape of aging.

In panel discussions, speeches, and breakout sessions, participants in Tampa considered important issues [\[READ MORE\]](#)
