Prevention Series: SAMHSA Head Says Increasing Prevention is Key to Improving the Nation's Mental Health

NRI is highlighting a series of articles centered on prevention. In a recent blog, Pamela Hyde, head of Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), outlined a five point plan to improve the nation's Mental Health. Prevention of mental illness is a key part of the plan, "America should invest in increased prevention – that includes reducing the tragedy of suicide", Ms. Hyde said.
