Mrs. Louise Wardell, president of the Gonzales Gardens association, announced at a business meeting Wednesday night plans for the month of November. The weekly bingo parties Wednesday night and the Saturday night dances have proven to be quite a success and will continue in regular routine. On the night of December 3 the association will sponsor a minstrel show, directed by Mrs. M. E. Peabody and her committee. A cast of 35 characters will take part. Extensive plans are being made for a banquet to be given November 19 at the Peacock grill for the office force of Gonzales Gardens and the officers of the association.

Mrs. Frances Corley, supervisor of recreation for Gonzales Gardens, organized a teen-age club Monday night. The following officers were appointed: President, LeGrande Beateon; vice president, Albert Munn; secretary, Marilyn Truluck; treasurer, Billy Corley; social committee, Sarah Allen, chairman, Jean Moore, Carolyn Seigler and Betty Mathaias; decorating committee, Sally Corley, chairman, LeGrande Beatson, Melton Broome and Albert Munn. The children from the Gardens and the city are invited to become members.

Mrs. Corley's lovely Hallowe'en party was attended by over 150 children. Prizes were given for the best costume and Melton Broome was the winner. Games and contests were enjoyed. Favors were given and delicious refreshments served.
