Dear Ms. Hoffman,

I cannot tell you how much I appreciate your reaching out in response to the recent flood. It was unlike anything we have ever experienced but, through it all, we have seen the very best in so many people across our state. Neighbors helping neighbors is what South Carolina does best, and we will come out of this stronger than we started. Team South Carolina is motivated, and we are fortunate to count you among our members. God bless.

My very best,
