

When there was no attending physician, midwife, or other father, householder, etc., should make this return.
If a child breathes even once after being born, report is desired of stillbirths.