

11 February 2015

Governor Haley,

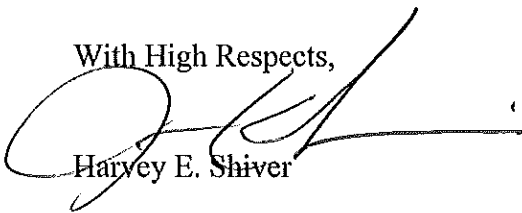

It is with much difficulty that I submit this letter of resignation from the South Carolina Disability and Special Needs Board (SCDDSN). My effective date will be 1 March, 2015. Over these last years as a board member, it has been my honor to serve the State of South Carolina. I am glad that I could be a small part this great agency. However, I can no longer meet the time commitments required going forward due to family issues and my volunteer schedule.

I will continue to speak a highly of this agency and provide any support that I can. Should you need a recommendation for someone to replace me on the board, I will be happy to share the names of a few people that I think would be a good fit.

Lastly, I would like to thank the Director of DDSN, Dr. Beverley Buscemi for her leadership. Governor Haley, please accept my personal recommendation of Dr. Buscemi when you are looking for a person to appoint to a position of higher authority at the state or federal level. We must not let such a talented person like her leave our state. Also, thank you to her staff for their support.

Again, thank you for allowing me to serve the State of South Carolina.

With High Respects,
