

Governor Hailey

Dear Governor Hailey,

October 14, 2015

Thank you for everything you've done and your hard work towards keeping South Carolina safe during this flood. One of the most important rules you have set, that we are thankful of, is the curfew. If you hadn't set it more and more people could have possibly died. We also want to thank for closing most jobs and schools. If you didn't, then it would have been super dangerous to parents, children, and buses. We want to give an all-around thank you to your extra hard work on keeping the state of South Carolina calm and safe through this incident. We hope it didn't harm your family.

Sincerely,

Mallory Branham, Lacie Smith, Gabriel Massey, and

Quinton Legette
