

State of South Carolina
Proclamation
by Governor Jim Hodges

WHEREAS, founded in 1960, the National Organization of Mothers of Twins Clubs is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing support to the more than 23,000 members nationwide who are mothers of twins, triplets, and higher order multiples; and

WHEREAS, the National Organization of Mothers of Twins Clubs offers support, networking, and education to parents and others involved in the lives of multiple birth children and provides assistance to over 475 local clubs across the country; and

WHEREAS, the Palmetto State Parents of Multiples is a support group for parents and caregivers throughout South Carolina who share the special common bond of being blessed with multiple birth children; and

WHEREAS, the Palmetto State Parents of Multiples will co-host the 41st Annual National Convention of the National Organization of Mothers of Twins Clubs in Greenville, combining seven days of business meetings, speakers, workshops, and networking opportunities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Hodges, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim July 22 - 28, 2001, as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to welcome members of the National Organization of Mothers of Twins Clubs and to support caregivers throughout the Palmetto State faced with the everyday challenges of raising multiples.
