Dear Katherine,

Marilyn said she spoke with you at the Darius Rucker concert. I'm sorry I missed the concert and more importantly missed catching up with you.

I would like to talk with you (or to whomever you may direct me) to discuss a hoped for meeting involving Governor Haley and myself with Boeing's representatives and Jim McNerney (Boeing CEO) during this year's tournament. Both Governor Haley and I will be at the Boeing dinner on Tuesday night at Palmetto Bluff. The Boeing group plans on setting aside a place and some time for a meeting. I hope Governor Haley is amenable to joining in this meeting.

As background, the agreements with both RBC and Boeing expire after the 2016 tournament. We and the PGA TOUR have reached out to RBC about the renewal. Those discussions are in their infancy and haven't gone far yet. Since Jim McNerney is scheduled to be here for the tournament, it will be a good time to make the ask for renewal with Boeing and to explore Boeing's intentions and appetite. Ideally, we would have something from RBC before this meeting but that will most likely not be the case. Rather than wait for the negotiations with RBC to play out, it is prudent to go ahead and begin the negotiations with Boeing.

At your convenience, please give me a call so that we can further discuss this topic.

Thank you in advance for your time.
