Subject: EMD A.M. Update - TS Hermine

Forecast: No major change in the forecast, but Hurricane Hermine was downgraded to a tropical storm this morning.

Georgia: The GA EMD reported this morning that they are not seeing wind speeds as high as originally forecasted and power outages currently in the 30K range.

County/School Closings: One county was added on county government closings from yesterday for a total of 8 closings and 2 early departures. 14 counties have closed schools and 20 will have early dismissals.

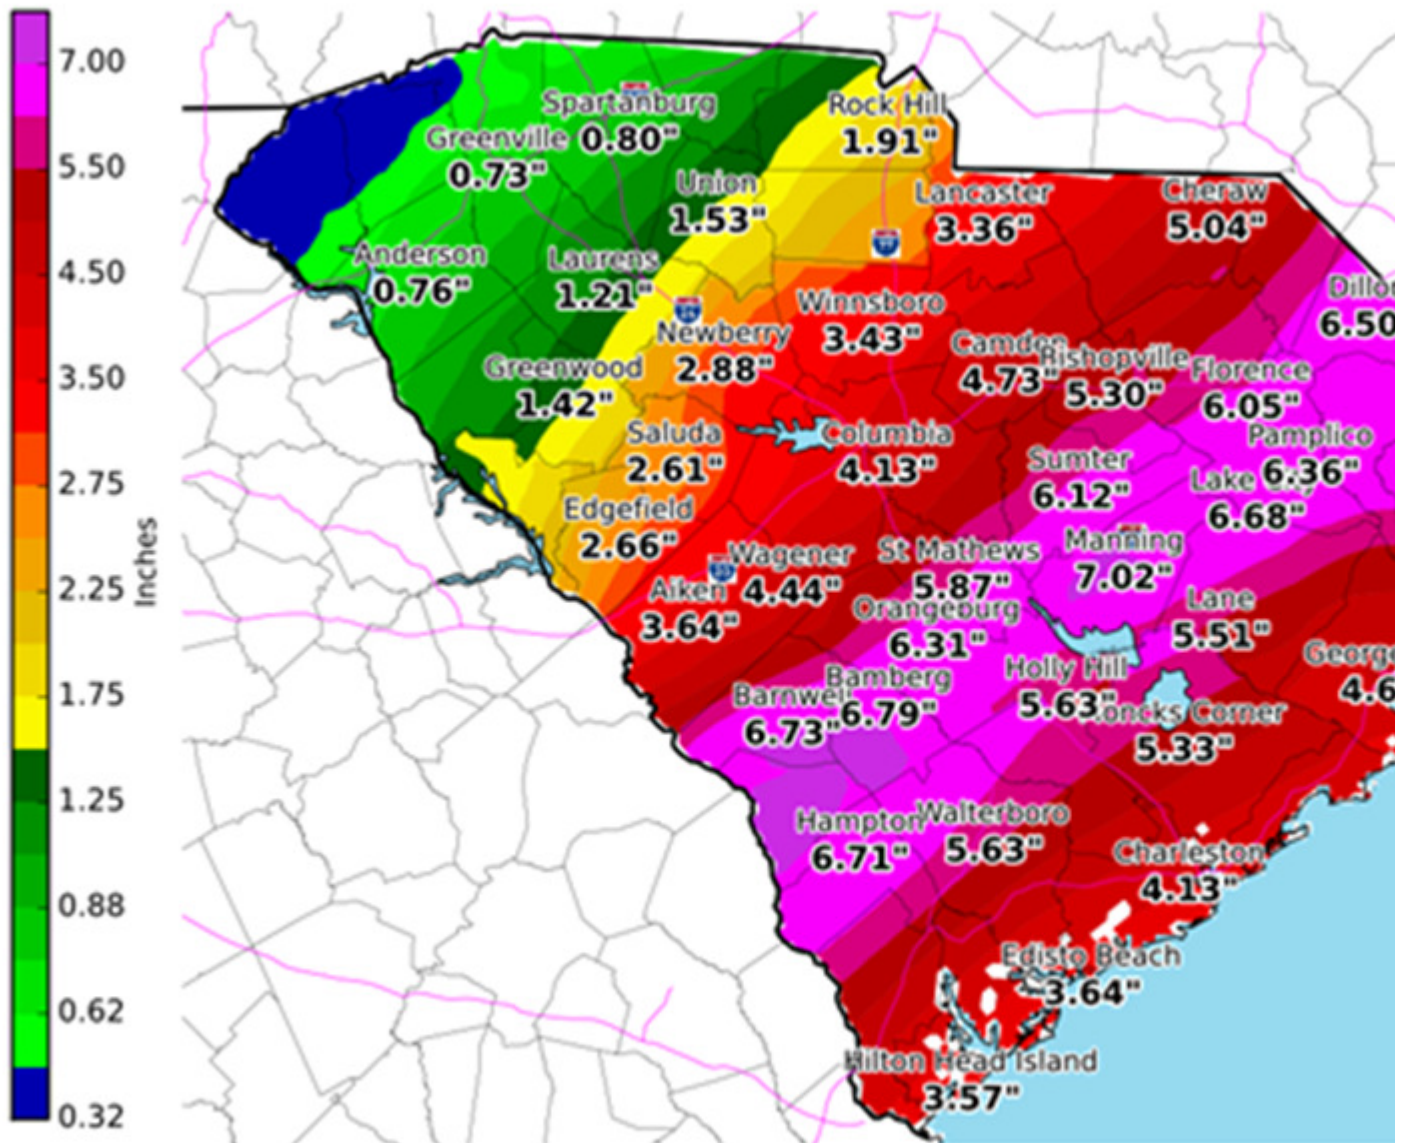

Outages: There are less than 3,000 outages statewide.

Infrastructure: The Port of Charleston is closed due to the threat of high winds and choppy seas.
