Subject: Great SouthEast ShakeOut Follow-up

Good News Everyone, the LGOA successfully completed our annual earthquake drill through participation in the 2014 Great Southeast Shakeout with no reported injuries!

LGOA staff were among over 2 million people who participated in the Great SouthEast ShakeOut today, and over 25.9 million who participated in the Great ShakeOut worldwide.

In addition, Governor Nikki Haley proclaimed Earthquake Awareness Week for 2014 be observed October 12-18 in South Carolina. Practicing this drill and preparing ahead of time helps ensure the safety of everyone in the event that we experience a real earthquake. Be sure to consider all phases of an earthquake; before, during, and after. If you are interested, ShakeOut Certificates of Participation are available.

As a reminder, through our Senior P.R.E.P. initiative in partnership with Walgreens and SCEMD, 2014 Earthquake Guides are available in all Walgreens stores across the state for the month of October!

While it is apparent that Courtney and I will need to work on our whistle blowing skills, we appreciate everyone being good sports and participating. 😊

Don't forget, you will not hear a whistle during a real earthquake.

Have a great rest of the day!

Best,

Jordan
