Witness No. 1 Written Testimony - Writer Marilyn MacGruder Barnewall - dated, May 21, 2014 11:26 PM { Update Information : Writer Barnewall (Please Listen to Below-mentioned WAV attachment, as Ms. Barnewall's name is clearly mentioned; denies that Former South Dakota Senator Sheldon R. Songstad offered her personally 1.2 Billion USDollars for her contribution in writing " Wanta! Black Swan, White Hat " - She states It was only 1.0 Billion USDollars.)

" that the Supreme Court Solicitor General from 2001 - 2004, Ted Olson, had diverted his (Wanta's) Supreme Court Appeal when it was filed in 2003. Back to Solicitor General Ted Olson : Interestingly, I talked with a man [and tape recorded the entire conversation of Philip X. Wainright (U.S.N.R.) who provided a great deal on information to Claire Sterling when she wrote her book, Thieves' World (Simon & Schuster, 1994). He says the manuscript was changed by the publisher from the original one written by Sterling and submitted to the publisher. " She wrote positive things about Leo Wanta and his efforts in Russia," he told me. When I pointed out to him that in her book Sterling had called Wanta a " snake oil salesman," and made some other choice negatives, he informed me that an editor (he provided his name) at Simon & Schuster had changes of substance to the text. He also provided the name of an Assistant FBI Director - " Jim Moody " who had positioned himself as " Sterling's "Mr. X " in the book and who had received a hefty payoff by Simon & Schuster. "Mr. X " was an important character in that portion of Thieves' World that dealt with Leo Wanta, the Soviet Union / Russian Cold War (Evil Empire) situation and focused on the Soviet Mafiya. The gentleman with whom I spoke - and he knew a great deal about what happened in the Soviet Union and about Claire Sterling - identifies himself as "Mr. X." One of the side remarks he made when we exchanged comments was that Ted Olson had followed him around Atlanta, that he was a very nasty person, and at one time Olson has used the name " Rick Reynolds, " a name given exclusively to Secret Agent Leo Emil Wanta (Totten Doctrine - SA233MS) by President Ronald Reagan. That bit of information certainly made me wonder who else might have used the intelligence names bestowed upon Leo Wanta ... and what might they have done using his undercover names?"

" There is no doubt that Mr. Olson was in a position to divert the Wanta Supreme Court Appeal... and because of his affiliation with President Reagan's office, there is no doubt he knew who Leo Wanta is. There is also no doubt that he is part of the Bush 'family.'"

"Unfortunately for the perpetrators, the Supreme Court Case Number assigned by the Court to the Wanta case conflicts with a case involving another individual - someone of whom Ambassador Wanta has never heard of. In essence, two case numbers attached to the Wanta Appeal on the Supreme Court's own Web pages. Case No. 02-1363 and #02-1544. There should not be two case numbers assigned to a single appeal. Yet, #02-1544 is listed in the Court's own records when I found Case #02-1363 ... a big clue that something was wrong with this filing. Another clue that something is wrong: the Court's Decision went beyond the time limit allowed for its response."

"Supreme Court Chief Justice John G. Roberts was (and is still) a material witness on behalf of United States Secret Agent Leo/Lee Emil Wanta. And a strange thing happened on the way to the Forum, Brutus - I mean on the way to the Supreme Court."

"The Supreme Court Appeal was filed by Ambassador Leo Emil Wanta, Plaintiff, vs. Secretary Richard G. Chandler, Wisconsin Department of Revenue, et al. There are others parties listed as Respondents and they include James E. Doyle, Attorney General of the State of Wisconsin, Douglas Haag, former Assistant Attorney General of the State of Wisconsin, Grant
C. Johnson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, Jack C. Volght, Wisconsin State Treasurer, Judith Coleman, Clerk of the Dane County Circuit Court in Wisconsin, United States Attorney General John Ashcroft, and United States Treasury Secretary Paul H. O'Neill."

"There are some questions that need to be answered regarding Case No. 02-1363 ... the Certiorari.

1. Did Chief Justice Roberts acknowledge his working and Presidential relationships established when he worked as legal counsel for President Reagan at the White House? Those relationships involved Secret Agent Leo Emil Wanta and are documented by the Reagan Library. The documents at the Reagan Library include two notes to White House Chief Counsel Fred Fielding regarding Leo Wanta (5/30/1984) and other correspondence involving secret agent Leo E. Wanta on May 29, 1984, May 31, 1984, etc. The files released by the Library include F06-007 and F05-139/01. There are others dealing with Wanta's suggested appointment as Inspector General at the Department of Defense, correspondence to now Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts about Leo Wanta from the President's office, etc.

2. Did Chief Justice Roberts recuse himself from the Decision the Supreme now say was made during their Judicial Conference of May 2003?

I, personally, will probably never believe the Supreme Court made this Decision in May of 2003. I believe a Decision had to be made before information regarding the Protocols could be presented to the Supremes and I believe the Wanta Appeal was hidden and not presented to the Court in 2003.

The Petition was denied - but that's not the important thing. Take a look at the Title in the actual document. "Leo Wanta, Somalia Ambassador to Canada and Switzerland ..."
