of the common white man. Today we who are white feel left out and have no rights anymore. It's a black world out there in the year 2015. It's also a homosexual world and I don't like it. When will the Southern people have equal rights? This is my freedom of speech. Thank you Nikki Haley for taking the time to listen to the Rebel Flag. Everywhere you look they want to take away this Great flag. Why Mrs Haley did they take this flag off the South Carolina State House. I think that you should help put it back up where it was and needs to be. I think it should also fly over every state in the South. Today all you hear about is rights for Blacks but what about the rights
