It has been the honor of a lifetime to serve as the Mayor of Columbia. Today, I am announcing that I will be a candidate for re-election and today we are launching our 2013 campaign. As we kick off this campaign, I make this pledge: I will not engage in the type of negativity that has become so common in politics today. I will focus clearly on what our community has accomplished so far and the positive things we can do together in the months and years ahead.
