Brian,

Some good news and some interesting news.

Good first:

A visit to the Lancaster News yesterday and the new Lancaster County DJJ was fruitful. The newspaper wants to do a "Welcome Aboard" Piece on him and highlight how he sees their local community as part of the DJJ and its process and procedures.

The interesting news:

Cynthia Roldan, formerly the Post and Courier Statehouse reporter, called to tell me she is now with The State and is the Crime and Courts reporter. We talked about how and what she would like to do with DJJ. Basically she said she wants to work with us, but she needs to talk with Jamie Self to ensure she does not intrude on her story angles. She indicated funding and staffing would most likely be a key component. I expect to know more soon.

Thank you and I will brief more as I have it.

Very Respectfully,

Patrick Montgomery
