

When there was no attending physician or midwife, then the father, householder, etc., should make this report. If a child breathes even once, it should not be reported as stillborn. No report is desired of stillbirths before the fifth month of pregnancy.

[illegible]