• Re:- An Executive Order of Expungement of current Criminal Convictions
obtained by Solicitor
Extrinsic Fraud.

• Dear Governor Haley:

• A former Assistant Solicitor for Charleston County
conspired with my trial attorney to commit 'Extrinsic Fraud' and obtain my 1998 Criminal Convictions in the absence of legally-sufficient evidence to satisfy the essential elements of charges facilitating my current imprisonment.
I've submitted actual documentation of my claim(s) to the Common Pleas Court [ Harvin v. State, C.A.No.: 2015-CP-10-3416 (filed June 19, 2015; Dismissed without receipt of evidence on February 3, 2016) ], but that process is proving 'tedious';
I, therefore, plead to your Executive Authority for an Order of Immediate Release from my wrongfully-obtained convictions, due to me having committed no overt act within events constituting crimes I'm convicted of (the noted former Assistant Solicitor dropped the charges against the other guy in my cases due to same evidence used against me was 'false' as Solicitor acknowledged).
You are possibly my last hope.

Letter to the Honorable Governor Haley - (Cont'd) -

- I Thank You in Advance.
