Subject: Webinar on Chronic Disease Self Management and Relevance for People with Dementia

Hello ADSSP, ADI, and Systems Integration Grantees and Collaborative Partners,

Below please find information on a webinar focused on Chronic Disease Self-Management Programs and their relevance to People with Dementia.

Thank you,
National Alzheimer's and Dementia Resource Center

Webinar: Chronic Disease Self-Management Programs: Relevance for Persons with Dementia Currently, people with Alzheimer's and other cognitive impairments and their caregivers access a wide range of health and social supports, including Chronic Disease Self -Management Programs (CDSMP) and other evidence-based programs. Hosted by the Center for Healthy Aging at NCOA, this webinar will share the findings of a study of CDSMP trainers about their experiences with these persons in their courses and actions taken in response to study recommendations. The webinar will take place on Tuesday, March 17 from 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. ET.
