of the payment of all taxes, including poll tax, assessed against him and collectible during the previous year. The production of a certificate or of the receipt of the officer authorized to collect such taxes shall be conclusive proof of the payment thereof.

(f) The General Assembly shall provide for issuing to each duly registered elector a certificate of registration, and shall provide for the renewal of such certificate when lost, mutilated or destroyed, if the applicant is still a qualified elector under the provisions of this Constitution, or if he has been registered as provided in subsection (c).

SECTION 5. Any person denied registration shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Common Pleas, or any Judge thereof, and thence to the Supreme Court, to determine his right to vote under the limitations imposed in this Article, and on such appeal the hearing shall be de novo, and the General Assembly shall provide by law for such appeal, and for the correction of illegal and fraudulent registration, voting, and all other crimes against the election laws.

SECTION 6. The following persons are disqualified from being registered or voting.

First, Persons convicted of burglary, arson, obtaining goods or money under false pretenses, perjury, forgery, robbery, bribery, adultery, bigamy, wife-beating, house-breaking, receiving stolen goods, breach of trust with fraudulent intent, fornication, sodomy, incest, assault with intent to ravish, miscegenation, larceny, or crimes against the election laws: Provided, That the pardon of the Governor shall remove such disqualification.

Second, Persons who are idiots, insane, paupers supported at the public expense, and persons confined in any public prison.

SECTION 7. For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his presence or absence while employed in the service of the United States, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this State, or of the United States, or of the high seas, nor while a student of any institution of learning.

SECTION 8. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the registration of all qualified electors, and shall prescribe the manner of holding elections and of ascertaining the results of the same: Provided, At the first registration under this Constitution, and until the first of January, 1898, the registration shall be conducted by a Board of three discreet persons in each County, to be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. For the first registration to be provided for under this Constitution, the registration books shall be kept open for at least six consecutive weeks; and thereafter from time to time at least one week in each month, up to thirty days next preceding the first election to be held under this Constitution. The registration books shall be public records open to the inspection of any citizen at all times.

correct enumeration of the inhabitants of the several Counties, and make the apportionment of Representatives among the several Counties according to said enumeration: Provided, further, That until the apportionment which shall be made upon the next enumeration shall take effect, the representation of the several Counties as they now exist (including the County of Saluda established by ordinance) shall be as follows: Abbeville, 5; Aiken, 3; Anderson, 5; Barnwell, 5; Beaufort, 4; Berkeley, 4; Charleston, 9; Chester, 3; Chesterfield, 2; Clarendon, 3; Colleton, 4; Darlington, 3; Edgefield, 3; Fairfield, 3; Florence, 3; Georgetown, 2; Greenville, 5; Hampton, 2; Horry, 2; Kershaw, 2; Lancaster, 2; Laurens, 3; Lexington, 2; Marion, 3; Marlboro, 3; Newberry, 3; Oconee, 2; Orangeburg, 5; Pickens, 2; Richland, 4; Saluda, 2; Spartanburg, 6; Sumter, 5; Union, 3; Williamsburg, 3; York, 4: Provided, further, That in the event other Counties are hereafter established, then the General Assembly shall reapportion the Representatives between the Counties.

SECTION 4. In assigning Representatives to the several Counties, the General Assembly shall allow one Representative to every one hundred and twenty-fourth part of the whole number of inhabitants in the State: Provided, That if in the apportionment of Representatives any County shall appear not to be entitled, from its population, to a Representative, such County shall, nevertheless, send one Representative; and if there be still a deficiency in the number of Representatives required by Section third of this Article, such deficiency shall be supplied by assigning Representatives to those Counties having the largest surplus fractions.

SECTION 5. No apportionment of Representatives shall take effect until the general election which shall succeed such apportionment.

SECTION 6. The Senate shall be composed of one member from each County, to be elected for the term of four years by the qualified electors in each County, in the same manner in which members of the House of Representatives are chosen.

SECTION 7. No person shall be eligible to a seat in the Senate or House of Representatives who, at the time of his election, is not a duly qualified elector under this Constitution in the SECTION 8. The first election for members of the House of Representatives under this Constitution shall be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and in every second year thereafter, in such manner and at such places as the General Assembly may prescribe; and the first election for Senators shall be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and every fourth year thereafter, except in Counties in which there was an election for Senator in eighteen hundred and ninety-four for a full term, in which Counties no election for Senator shall be held until the general election to be held in eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and every fourth year thereafter, except to fill vacancies. Senators shall be so classified that one-half of their number, as nearly as practicable, shall be chosen every two years. Whenever the General Assembly shall establish more than one County at any session, it shall so prescribe the first term of the Senators from such Counties as to observe such classification.

SECTION 9. The annual session of the General Assembly heretofore elected, fixed by the Constitution of the year eighteen hundred and sixty-eight to convene on the fourth Tuesday of November, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five, is hereby postponed, and the same shall be convened and held in the city of Columbia on the second Tuesday of January, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six. The first session of the General Assembly elected under this Constitution shall convene in Columbia on the second Tuesday in January, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and thereafter annually at the same time and place. Should the casualties of war or contagious disease render it unsafe to meet at the seat of government, then the Governor may, by proclamation, appoint a more secure and convenient place of meeting. Members of the General Assembly shall not receive any compensation for more than forty days of any one session: Provided, That this limitation shall not effect the first four sessions of the General Assembly under this Constitution.

SECTION 13. Each house may punish by imprisonment during its sitting any person not a member who shall be guilty of disrespect to the house by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence, or who, during the time of its sitting, shall threaten harm to the body or estate of any member for anything said or done in either house, or who shall assault any of them therefor, or who shall assault or arrest any witness or other person ordered to attend the house in his going thereto or returning therefrom, or who shall rescue any person arrested by order of the house: Provided, That such time of imprisonment shall not in any case extend beyond the session of the General Assembly.

SECTION 14. The members of both houses shall be protected in their persons and estates during their attendance on, going to and returning from the General Assembly, and ten days previous to the sitting and ten days after the adjournment thereof. But these privileges shall not protect any member who shall be charged with treason, felony or breach of the peace.

Formalities of Act. SECTION 18. No Bill or Joint Resolution shall have the force of law until it shall have been read three times and on three several days in each house, has had the Great Seal of the State affixed to it, and has been signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives: Provided, That either branch of the General Assembly may provide by rule for a first and third reading of any Bill or Joint Resolution by its title only.

Mileage. SECTION 19. Each member of the General Assembly shall receive five cents for every mile for the ordinary route of travel in going to and returning from the place where its sessions are held; no General Assembly shall have the power to increase the per diem of its own members; and members of the General Assembly when convened in extra session shall receive the same compensation as is fixed by law for the regular session.

Elections "viva voce." SECTION 20. In all elections by the General Assembly, or either house thereof, the members shall vote "viva voce," and their votes, thus given, shall be entered upon the journal of the house to which they respectively belong.

Adjournments. SECTION 21. Neither house, during the session of the General Assembly, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which it shall be at the time sitting.

Journal. SECTION 22. Each house shall keep a journal of its own proceedings, and cause the same to be published immediately after its adjournment, excepting such parts as, in its judgment, may require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house, on any question, shall, at the desire of ten members of the House or five members of the Senate, respectively, be entered on the journal. Any member of either house shall have liberty to dissent from and protest against any Act or resolution which he may think injurious to the public or to an individual, and have the reasons of his dissent entered on the journal.

SECTION 23. The doors of each house shall be open, except ^{Doors open.} on such occasions as in the opinion of the House may require secrecy.

SECTION 24. No person shall be eligible to a seat in the General Assembly while he holds any office or position of profit or trust under this State, the United States of America, or any of them, or under any other power, except officers in the militia and Notaries Public; and if any member shall accept or exercise any of the said disqualifying offices or positions he shall vacate his seat. ^{Holding two offices.}

SECTION 25. If any election district shall neglect to choose a member or members on the day of election, or if any person chosen a member of either house shall refuse to qualify and take his seat, or shall resign, die, depart the State, accept any disqualifying office or position, or become otherwise disqualified to hold his seat, a writ of election shall be issued by the President of the Senate or Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, for the purpose of filling the vacancy thereby occasioned for the remainder of the term for which the person so refusing to qualify, resigning, dying, departing the State, or becoming disqualified, was elected to serve, or the defaulting election district ought to have chosen a member or members. ^{Vacancies.}

SECTION 26. Members of the General Assembly, and all officers before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, and all members of the bar, before they enter upon the practice of their profession, shall take and subscribe the following oath: ^{Oath of office} "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am duly qualified, according to the Constitution of this State, to exercise the duties of the office to which I have been elected, (or appointed,) and that I will, to the best of my ability, discharge the duties thereof, and preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of this State and of the United States. I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not since the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-one, engaged in a duel as principal or second or otherwise; and that I will not, during the term of office to which I have been elected (or appointed) engage in a duel as principal or second or otherwise. So help me God."

Removal of officer.

SECTION 27. Officers shall be removed for incapacity, misconduct or neglect of duty, in such manner as may be provided by law, when no mode of trial or removal is provided in this Constitution.

Homestead.

SECTION 28. The General Assembly shall enact such laws as will exempt from attachment, levy and sale under any mesne or final process issued from any Court, to the head of any family residing in this State, a homestead in lands, whether held in fee or any lesser estate, to the value of one thousand dollars, or so much thereof as the property is worth if its value is less than one thousand dollars, with the yearly products thereof, and to every head of a family residing in this State, whether entitled to a homestead exemption in lands or not, personal property to the value of five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as the property is worth if its value is less than five hundred dollars. The title to the homestead to be set off and assigned shall be absolute and be forever discharged from all debts of the said debtor then existing or thereafter contracted except as hereinafter provided: Provided, That in case any woman having a separate estate shall be married to the head of a family who has not of his own sufficient property to constitute a homestead as hereinbefore provided, said married woman shall be entitled to a like exemption as provided for the head of a family: Provided, further, That there shall not be an allowance of more than one thousand dollars' worth of real estate and more than five hundred dollars' worth of personal property to the husband and wife jointly: Provided, further, That no property shall be exempt from attachment, levy or sale for taxes, or for payment no waiver shall defeat the right of homestead before assignment except it be by deed of conveyance, or by mortgage, and only as against the mortgage debt; and no judgment creditor or other creditor whose lien does not bind the homestead shall have any right or equity to require that a lien which embraces the homestead and other property shall first exhaust the homestead: Provided, further, That after a homestead in lands has been set off and recorded the same shall not be waived by deed of conveyance, mortgage or otherwise, unless the same be executed by both husband and wife, if both be living: Provided, further, That any person not the head of a family shall be entitled to a like exemption as provided for the head of a family in all necessary wearing apparel and tools and implements of trade, not to exceed in value the sum of three hundred dollars.

SECTION 29. All taxes upon property, real and personal, shall be laid upon the actual value of the property taxed, as the same shall be ascertained by an assessment made for the purpose of laying such tax.

SECTION 30. The General Assembly shall never grant extra compensation, fee or allowance to any public officer, agent, servant or contractor after service rendered, or contract made, nor authorize payment or part payment of any claim under any contract not authorized by law; but appropriations may be made for expenditures in repelling invasion, preventing or suppressing insurrection.

SECTION 31. Lands belonging to or under the control of the State shall never be donated, directly or indirectly, to private corporations or individuals, or to railroad companies. Nor shall such land be sold to corporations or associations, for a less price than that for which it can be sold to individuals. This, however, shall not prevent the General Assembly from granting a right of way, not exceeding one hundred and fifty feet in width, as a mere easement to railroads across State lands, nor to interfere with the discretion of the General Assembly in confirming the title to lands claimed to belong to the State, but used or possessed by other parties under an adverse claim.

SECTION 32. The General Assembly shall not authorize payment to any person of the salary of a deceased officer beyond the date of his death; nor grant pensions except for military and naval service; nor retire any officer on pay or part pay.

SECTION 33. The marriage of a white person with a negro or mulatto, or person who shall have one-eighth or more of negro blood, shall be unlawful and void. No unmarried woman shall

Special laws prohibited. SECTION 34. The General Assembly of this State shall not enact local or special laws concerning any of the following subjects or for any of the following purposes, to wit:

I. To change the names of persons or places.

II. To lay out, open, alter or work roads or highways.

III. To incorporate cities, town or villages, or change, amend or extend the charter thereof.

IV. To incorporate educational, religious, charitable, social, manufacturing or banking institutions not under the control of the State, or amend or extend the charters thereof.

V. To incorporate school districts.

VI. To authorize the adoption or legitimation of children.

VII. To provide for the protection of game.

VIII. To summon and empanel grand or petit jurors.

IX. To provide for the age at which citizens shall be subject to road or other public duty.

X. To fix the amount or manner of compensation to be paid to any County officer except that the laws may be so made as to grade the compensation in proportion to the population and necessary service required.

XI. In all other cases, where a general law can be made applicable, no special law shall be enacted.

XII. The General Assembly shall forthwith enact general laws concerning said subjects for said purposes, which shall be uniform in their operations: Provided, That nothing contained in this Section shall prohibit the General Assembly from enacting special provisions in general laws.

XIII. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to charitable and educational corporations where, under the terms of the gift, devise, or will, special incorporation may be required.

Lands owned by aliens. SECTION 35. It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to enact laws limiting the number of acres of land which any alien or any corporation controlled by aliens may own within this State.

ARTICLE IV.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The supreme executive authority of this State shall be vested in a Chief Magistrate, who shall be styled "The Governor of the State of South Carolina." Chief Magistrate.

SECTION 2. The Governor shall be elected by the electors duly qualified to vote for members of the House of Representatives, and shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall be chosen and qualified, and shall be re-eligible. He shall be elected at the first general election held under this Constitution for members of the General Assembly, and at each general election thereafter, and shall be installed during the first session of the said General Assembly after his election, on such day as shall be provided by law. The other State officers-elect shall at the same time enter upon the performance of their duties. Governor.
State officers

SECTION 3. No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor who denies the existence of the Supreme Being; or who at the time of such election has not attained the age of thirty years; and who shall not have been a citizen of the United States and a citizen and resident of this State for five years next preceding the day of election. No person while Governor shall hold any office or other commission (except in the militia) under the authority of this State, or of any other power, at one and the same time. Qualifications of Governor.

SECTION 4. The returns of every election for Governor shall be sealed up by the Boards of Canvassers in the respective Counties, and transmitted, by mail, to the seat of Government, directed to the Secretary of State, who shall deliver them to the Speaker of the House of Representatives at the next ensuing session of the General Assembly; and duplicates of said returns shall be filed with the Clerks of the Court of said Counties. It shall be the duty of any Clerk of Court to forward to the Secretary of State a certified copy of said returns upon being notified that the returns previously forwarded by mail have not been received at his office. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, after the expiration of seven days from the day upon which the votes have been canvassed by the County Board, if Boards of Canvassers transmit returns of election for Governor.

the returns thereof from any County have not been received, to notify the Clerk of the Court of said County, and order a copy of the returns filed in his office to be forwarded forthwith. The Secretary of State shall deliver the returns to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, at the next ensuing session of the General Assembly; and during the first week of the session, or as soon as the General Assembly shall have organized by the election of the presiding officers of the two houses, the Speaker shall open and publish them in the presence of both houses. The person having the highest number of votes shall be Governor; but if two or more shall be equal, and highest in votes, the General Assembly shall during the same session, in the House of Representatives, choose one of them Governor viva voce. Contested elections for Governor shall be determined by the General Assembly in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SECTION 5. A Lieutenant Governor shall be chosen at the same time, in the same manner, continue in office for the same period and be possessed of the same qualifications as the Governor, and shall ex officio, be President of the Senate.

SECTION 6. The Lieutenant Governor while presiding in the Senate shall have no vote, unless the Senate be equally divided.

SECTION 7. The Senate shall, as soon as practicable after the convening of the General Assembly, choose a President pro tempore to act in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor, or when he shall fill the office of Governor.

SECTION 8. A member of the Senate acting as Governor or Lieutenant Governor shall thereupon vacate his seat and another person shall be elected in his stead.

SECTION 9. In case of the removal of the Governor from office by impeachment, death, resignation, disqualification, disability, or removal from the State, the Lieutenant Governor shall then be Governor; and in case of the removal of the last named officer from his office by impeachment, death, resignation, disqualification, disability, or removal from the State, the President pro tempore of the Senate shall be Governor; and the last named officer shall then forthwith, by proclamation, convene the Senate in order that a President pro tempore may be chosen. In case the Governor be impeached, the Lieutenant Governor shall act in his stead and have his powers until judgment in the case shall have been pronounced. In case of the temporary disability of the Governor the Lieutenant Governor shall perform the duties of the Governor.

SECTION 10. The Governor shall be Commander-in-Chief of the militia of the State, except when they shall be called into the active service of the United States. Commander-in-Chief.

SECTION 11. He shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after conviction (except in cases of impeachment), in such manner, on such terms and under such restrictions as he shall think proper; and he shall have power to remit fines and forfeitures, unless otherwise directed by law. It shall be his duty to report to the General Assembly, at the next regular session thereafter, all pardons granted by him, with the report of the Board of Pardons. Every petition for pardon or commutation of sentence may be first referred by him to a Board of Pardons, to be provided by the General Assembly, which Board shall hear all such petitions under such rules and regulations as the General Assembly may provide. The Governor may adopt the recommendations of said Board, but in case he does not he shall submit his reasons to the General Assembly. Pardons.

Board of

SECTION 12. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed in mercy. Laws executed.

SECTION 13. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall, at stated times, receive for their services compensation, which shall be neither increased nor diminished during the period for which they shall have been elected. Compensation of Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

SECTION 14. All officers in the Executive Department, and all Boards of public institutions, shall, when required by the Governor, give him information in writing upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices or the concerns of their respective institutions, including itemized accounts of receipts and disbursements. Officers and Boards report to Governor.

SECTION 15. The Governor shall, from time to time, give to the General Assembly information of the condition of the State, and recommend for its consideration such measures as he shall deem necessary or expedient. Information to Legislature.

Extra sessions.

SECTION 16. He may on extraordinary occasions convene the General Assembly in extra session. Should either house remain without a quorum for five days, or in case of disagreement between the two houses during any session with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper, not beyond the time of the annual session then next ensuing.

Governor may adjourn General Assembly.

Commissions.

SECTION 17. He shall commission all officers of the State.

Seal of State.

SECTION 18. The Seal of the State now in use shall be used by the Governor officially, and shall be called "The Great Seal of the State of South Carolina."

Grants and commissions.

SECTION 19. All grants and commissions shall be issued in the name and by the authority of the State of South Carolina, sealed with the Great Seal, signed by the Governor, and countersigned by the Secretary of State.

Oath of Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

SECTION 20. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, shall take and subscribe the oath of office as prescribed in Article III, Section 26, of the Constitution.

Residence of Governor.

SECTION 21. The Governor shall reside at the Capital of the State, except in cases of contagion or the emergencies of war; but during the sittings of the General Assembly he shall reside where its sessions are held.

Suspension of officers.

SECTION 22. Whenever it shall be brought to the notice of the Governor by affidavit that any officer who has the custody of public or trust funds is probably guilty of embezzlement or the appropriation of public or trust funds to private use, then the Governor shall direct his immediate prosecution by the proper officer, and upon true bill found the Governor shall suspend such officer and appoint one in his stead, until he shall have been acquitted by the verdict of a jury. In case of conviction the office shall be declared vacant and the vacancy filled as may be provided by law.

Bill or Joint Resolution must be signed or vetoed by the Governor.

SECTION 23. Every Bill or Joint Resolution which shall have passed the General Assembly, except on a question of adjournment, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor, and if he approve he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which shall enter the objections at large on its Journal and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass it, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that house it shall have the same effect as if it had been signed by the Governor; but in all such cases the vote of both houses shall be taken by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the Bill or Joint Resolution shall be entered on the Journals of both houses respectively. Bills appropriating money out of the Treasury shall specify the objects and purposes for which the same are made, and appropriate to them respectively their several amounts in distinct items and Sections. If the Governor shall not approve any one or more of the items or Sections contained in any Bill, but shall approve of the residue thereof, it shall become a law as to the residue in like manner as if he had signed it. The Governor shall then return the Bill with his objections to the items or Sections of the same not approved by him to the house in which the Bill originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon its Journal and proceed to reconsider so much of said Bill as is not approved by the Governor. The same proceedings shall be had in both houses in reconsidering the same as is provided in case of an entire Bill returned by the Governor with his objections; and if any item or Section of said Bill not approved by the Governor shall be passed by two-thirds of each house of the General Assembly, it shall become a part of said law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. If a Bill or Joint Resolution shall not be returned by the Governor within three days after it shall have been presented to him, Sundays excepted, it shall have the same force and effect as if he had signed it, unless the General Assembly, by adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall have such force and effect unless returned within two days after the next meeting.

SECTION 24. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State a Secretary of State, a Comptroller-General, an Attorney-General, a Treasurer, an Adjutant and Inspector-General, and a Superintendent of Education, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years, and until their several successors have been chosen and qualified; and whose duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law. The compensation of such officers shall be neither increased nor diminished during the period for which they shall have been elected.

ARTICLE V.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Judicial power vested in certain Courts.

SECTION 1. The judicial power of this State shall be vested in a Supreme Court, in two Circuit Courts, to wit: A Court of Common Pleas having civil jurisdiction and a Court of General Sessions with criminal jurisdiction only. The General Assembly may also establish County Courts, Municipal Courts and such Courts in any or all of the Counties of this State inferior to Circuit Courts as may be deemed necessary, but none of such Courts shall ever be invested with jurisdiction to try cases of murder, manslaughter, rape or attempt to rape, arson, common law burglary, bribery or perjury: Provided, Before a County Court shall be established in any County it must be submitted to the qualified electors and a majority of those voting must vote for its establishment.

Supreme Court.

SECTION 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and three Associate Justices, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Chief Justice shall preside, and in his absence the senior Associate Justice. They shall be elected by a joint viva voce vote of the General Assembly for the term of eight years, and shall continue in office until their successors shall be elected and qualified, and shall be so classified that one of them shall go out of office every two years.

Present
Chief Justice and Associate Justice.

SECTION 3. The present Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court are declared to be the Chief Justice and two of the Associate Justices of said Court as herein established until the terms for which they were elected shall expire, and the General Assembly at its next session shall elect the third Associate Justice and make suitable provision for accomplishing the classification above directed.

SECTION 4. The Supreme Court shall have power to issue writs or orders of injunction, mandamus, quo warranto, prohi-bitio, certiorari, habeas corpus and other original and remedial writs. And said Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only in cases of chancery, and in such appeals they shall review the findings of fact as well as the law, except in chancery cases where the facts are settled by a jury and the verdict not set aside, and shall constitute a Court for the correction of errors at law under such regulations as the General Assembly may by law prescribe.

SECTION 5. The Supreme Court shall be held at least twice in each year at the seat of government and at such other place or places in the State as the General Assembly may direct.

SECTION 6. No Judge shall preside at the trial of any cause in the event of which he may be interested, or when either of the parties shall be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity, within such degrees as may be prescribed by law, or in which he may have been counsel or have presided in any inferior Court. In case all or any of the Justices of the Supreme Court shall be thus disqualified, or be otherwise prevented from presiding in any cause or causes, the Court or the Justices thereof shall certify the same to the Governor of the State, and he shall immediately commission, specially, the requisite number of men learned in the law for the trial and determination thereof. The same course shall be pursued in the Circuit and inferior Courts as is prescribed in this Section for cases of the Supreme Court. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the temporary appointment of men learned in the law to hold either special or regular terms of the Circuit Courts whenever there may be necessity for such appointment.

SECTION 7. There shall be appointed by the Justices of the Supreme Court a Reporter and a Clerk of said Court, who shall hold their offices for four years, and whose duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law.

SECTION 8. When a judgment or decree is reversed or affirmed by the Supreme Court, every point made and distinctly stated in the cause and fairly arising upon the record of the case shall be considered and decided, and the reason thereof shall be concisely and briefly stated in writing and preserved with the record of the case.

SECTION 9. The Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Circuit Court shall each receive compensation for their services to be fixed by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during their continuance in office. They shall not be allowed any fees or perquisites of office, nor shall they hold any other office of trust or profit under this State, the United States, or any other power.

Qualifications of.

SECTION 10. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice or Judge of the Circuit Court who is not at the time of his election a citizen of the United States and of this State, and has not attained the age of twenty-six years, has not been a licensed attorney at law for at least five years, and been a resident of this State for five years next preceding his election.

Vacancies.

Conservators.

Constitutional questions.

SECTION 11. All vacancies in the Supreme Court or inferior tribunals shall be filled by elections as herein prescribed: Provided, That if the unexpired term does not exceed one year such vacancy may be filled by Executive appointment. All Judges, by virtue of their office, shall be conservators of the peace throughout the State; and when a vacancy is filled by either appointment or election, the incumbent shall hold only for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

SECTION 12. In all cases decided by the Supreme Court the concurrence of three of the Justices shall be necessary for a reversal of the judgment below, but if the four Justices equally divide in opinion the judgment below shall be affirmed, subject to the provisions hereinafter prescribed. Whenever, upon the hearing of any cause or question before the Supreme Court, in the exercise of its original or appellate jurisdiction, it shall appear to the Justices thereof, or any two of them, that there is involved a question of constitutional law, or of conflict between the Constitution and laws of this State and of the United States, or between the duties and obligations of her citizens under the same, upon the determination of which the entire Court is not agreed; or whenever the Justices of said Court, or any two of them, desire it on any cause or question so before said Court, the Chief Justice, or in his absence the presiding Associate Justice, shall call to the assistance of the Supreme Court all of the Judges of the Circuit Courts: Provided, however, That when the matter to be submitted is involved in an appeal from the Circuit Court, the Circuit Judge who tried the cause shall not sit. A majority of the Justices of the Supreme Court and Circuit Judges shall constitute a quorum. The decision of the Court so constituted, or a majority of the Justices and Judges sitting, shall be final and conclusive. In such case the Chief Justice, or in his absence the presiding Associate Justice, shall preside. Whenever the Justices of the Supreme Court and the Circuit Judges meet together for the purposes aforesaid, if the number thereof qualified to sit constitute an even number, then one of the Circuit Judges must retire; and the Circuit Judges present shall determine by lot which of their number shall retire.

Judge shall not sit.

Number even, one must retire.

SECTION 13. The State shall be divided into as many Judicial Circuits as the General Assembly may prescribe, and for each Circuit a Judge shall be elected by joint viva voce vote of the General Assembly, who shall hold his office for a term of four years; and at the time of his election he shall be an elector of a County of, and during his continuance in office he shall reside in, the Circuit of which he is Judge. The present Judges of the Circuit Courts shall continue in office until the expiration of the term for which they were elected, and, should a new division of the Judicial Circuits be made, shall be the Judges of the respective Circuits in which they shall reside after said division.

Judicial Circuits.

Election of Judges.

Present Judges.

SECTION 14. Judges of the Circuit Courts shall interchange Circuits with each other, and the General Assembly shall provide therefor.

Interchange of Circuits.

SECTION 15. The Courts of Common Pleas shall have original jurisdiction, subject to appeal to the Supreme Court, to issue writs or orders of injunction, mandamus, habeas corpus, and such other writs as may be necessary to carry their powers into full effect. They shall have jurisdiction in all civil cases. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in all cases within the jurisdiction of inferior Courts, except from such inferior Courts from which the General Assembly shall provide an appeal directly to the Supreme Court.

Jurisdiction of Courts of Common Pleas.

Sit twice.

SECTION 16. The Court of Common Pleas shall sit in each County in this State at least twice in every year at such stated times and places as may be appointed by law.

Decisions,
when filed.

SECTION 17. It shall be the duty of the Justices of the Supreme Court to file their decisions within sixty days from the last day of the Court at which the cases were heard; and the duty of the Judges of the Circuit Courts to file their decisions within sixty days from the rising of the last Court of the Circuit then being held.

Court of General Sessions.

SECTION 18. The Court of General Sessions shall have jurisdiction in all criminal cases except those cases in which exclusive jurisdiction shall be given to inferior Courts, and in these it shall have appellate jurisdiction. It shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with, as well as appellate jurisdiction from, the inferior Courts in all cases of riot, assault and battery, and larceny. It shall sit in each County in the State at least twice in each year at such stated times and places as the General Assembly may direct.

Court of Probate.

SECTION 19. The Court of Probate shall remain as now established in the County of Charleston. In all other Counties of the State the jurisdiction in all matters testamentary and of administration, in business appertaining to minors and the allotment of dower, in cases of idiocy and lunacy, and persons non compos mentis, shall be vested as the General Assembly may provide, and until such provision such jurisdiction shall remain in the Court of Probate as now established.

Magistrates.

Term of office.

SECTION 20. A sufficient number of Magistrates shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for each County, who shall hold their offices for the term of two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Each Magistrate shall have the power, under such regulations as may now or hereafter be provided by law, to appoint one or more Constables to execute writs and processes issued by him. The present Trial Justices are declared Magistrates as herein created, and shall exercise the powers and duties of said office of Magistrate until their successors shall be appointed and qualified. Each Magistrate shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the General Assembly, in lieu of all fees in criminal cases.

Constables.

Salary.

SECTION 21. Magistrates shall have jurisdiction in such civil cases as the General Assembly may prescribe: Provided, Such jurisdiction shall not extend to cases where the value of property in controversy, or the amount claimed, exceeds one hundred dollars, or to cases where the title to real estate is in question, or to cases in chancery. They shall have exclusive jurisdiction in such criminal cases as the General Assembly may prescribe: Provided, further, Such jurisdiction shall not extend to cases where the punishment exceeds a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment for thirty days. In criminal matters beyond their jurisdiction to try, they shall sit as Examining Courts, and commit, discharge or, except in capital cases, recognize persons charged with such offences, subject to such regulations as the General Assembly may provide. They shall also have the power to bind over to keep the peace and for good behavior for a time not to exceed twelve months.

SECTION 22. All persons charged with an offence shall have the right to demand and obtain a trial by jury. The jury in cases civil or criminal in all municipal Courts, and Courts inferior to Circuit Courts shall consist of six. The grand jury of each County shall consist of eighteen members, twelve of whom must agree in a matter before it can be submitted to the Court.

The petit jury of the Circuit Court shall consist of twelve men, all of whom must agree to a verdict in order to render the same.

Each juror must be a qualified elector under the provisions of this Constitution, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-five years and of good moral character.

SECTION 23. Every civil action cognizable by Magistrates shall be brought before a Magistrate in the County where the defendant resides, and every criminal action in the County where the offence was committed. In all cases tried by them, the right of appeal shall be secured under such rules and regulations as may be provided by law: Provided, That in Counties where Magistrates have separate and exclusive territorial jurisdiction, criminal causes shall be tried in the Magistrate's district where the offence was committed, subject to such provision for change of venue from one Magistrate's district to Compensation for all other officers.

SECTION 24. All officers other than those named in Section nine provided for in this Article shall receive for their services such compensation as the General Assembly may from time to time by law direct.

Powers at Chambers.

SECTION 25. Each of the Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Circuit Court shall have the same power at chambers to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition and interlocutory writs or orders of injunction as when in open Court. The Judges of the Circuit Courts shall have such powers at chambers as the General Assembly may provide.

Charge to juries.

SECTION 26. Judges shall not charge juries in respect to matters of fact, but shall declare the law.

Clerk of Court.

SECTION 27. There shall be elected in each County, by the electors thereof, one Clerk for the Court of Common Pleas, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. He shall, by virtue of his office, be Clerk of all other Courts of record held therein, but the General Assembly may provide by law for the election of a Clerk, with a like term of office, for each or any other of the Courts of record, and may authorize the Judge of the Probate Court to perform the duties of Clerk for his Court under such regulations as the General Assembly may direct. Clerks of Courts shall be removable for such cause and in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

Attorney General.

SECTION 28. There shall be an Attorney General for the State, who shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law. He shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State for the term of two years, and shall receive for his services such compensation as shall be fixed by law.

Solicitor.

SECTION 29. There shall be one Solicitor for each Circuit, who shall reside therein, to be elected by the qualified electors of the Circuit, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and shall receive for his services such compensation as shall be fixed by law. In all cases when an Attorney for the State of any Circuit fails to attend and prosecute according to law, the Court shall have power to appoint an Attorney pro tempore. In the event of the establishment of County Courts the General Assembly may provide for one Solicitor for each County in the place and instead of the Circuit Solicitor, and may prescribe his powers, duties and compensation.

SECTION 30. The qualified electors of each County shall elect a Sheriff and Coroner for the term of four years, and until their successors are elected and qualified; they shall reside in their respective Counties during their continuance in office, and be disqualified for the office a second time if it should appear that they, or either of them, are in default for moneys collected by virtue of their respective offices.

ARTICLE VI.

JURISPRUDENCE.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly shall pass laws allowing differences to be decided by arbitrators, to be appointed by the parties who may choose that mode of adjustment.

Arbitration.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to pass laws for the change of venue in all cases, civil and criminal, over which the Circuit Courts have original jurisdiction, upon a proper showing, supported by affidavit, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the County where such action or prosecution was commenced. The State shall have the same right to move for a change of venue that a defendant has for such offences as the General Assembly may prescribe. Unless a change of venue be had under the provisions of this Article the defendant shall be tried in the County where the offence was committed: Provided, however, That no change of venue shall be granted in criminal cases until after a true bill has been found by the grand jury: And provided, further, That if a change be ordered it shall be to a County in the same Judicial Circuit.

Law and equity.

SECTION 3. Justice shall be administered in a uniform mode of pleading without distinction between law and equity.

Statute public law.

SECTION 4. Every Statute shall be a public law, unless otherwise declared in the Statute itself.

Codification of laws.

SECTION 5. The General Assembly, at its first session after the adoption of this Constitution, shall provide for the appointment or election of a Commissioner, whose duty it shall be to collect and revise all the General Statute law of this State then of force as well as that which shall be passed from time to time, and to properly index and arrange the said Statutes when so passed. And the said Commissioner shall reduce into a systematic Code the general statutes, including the Code of Civil Procedure, with all the amendments thereto, and shall, on the first day of the session for the year nineteen hundred and one, and at the end of every subsequent period of not more than ten years, report the result of his labors to the General Assembly, with such recommendations and suggestions as to the abridgment and amendments as may be deemed necessary or proper. Said report when ready to be made, shall be printed and a copy thereof laid upon the desk of each member of both houses of the General Assembly on the first day of the first session, but shall not be taken up for consideration until the next session of said General Assembly. The said Code shall be declared by the General Assembly, in an Act passed according to the forms in this Constitution for the enactment of laws, to be the only general statutory law of the State; but no alterations or additions to any of the laws therein contained shall be made except by Bill passed under the formalities heretofore prescribed for the passage of laws. Provision shall be made by law for filling vacancies, regulating the terms of office and the compensation of said Commissioner, not exceeding five hundred dollars per annum, and imposing such other duties as may be desired. And the General Assembly shall by committee inquire into the progress of his work at each session.

SECTION 6. In the case of any prisoner lawfully in the charge, custody or control of any officer, State, County or municipal, being seized and taken from said officer through his negligence, permission or connivance, by a mob or other unlawful assemblage of persons, and at their hands suffering bodily violence or death, the said officer shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon true bill found, shall be deposed from his office pending his trial, and upon conviction shall forfeit his office, and shall, unless pardoned by the Governor, be ineligible to hold any office of trust or profit within this State. It shall be the duty of the Prosecuting Attorney within whose Circuit or County the offence may be committed to forthwith institute a prosecution against said officer, who shall be tried in such County, in the same Circuit, other than the one in which the offence was committed, as the Attorney General may elect. The fees and mileage of all material witnesses, both for the State and for the defence, shall be paid by the State Treasurer, in such manner as may be provided by law: Provided, In all cases of lynching when death ensues, the County where such lynching takes place shall, without regard to the conduct of the officers, be liable in exemplary damages of not less than two thousand dollars to the legal representatives of the person lynched: Provided, further, That any County against which a judgment has been obtained for damages in any case of lynching shall have the right to recover the amount of said judgment from the parties engaged in said lynching in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 2. If two-thirds of the qualified electors voting at such election shall vote "Yes" upon such questions, then the General Assembly at the next session shall establish such new County: Provided, No section of the County proposed to be dismembered shall be thus cut off without consent by a two-thirds vote of those voting in such section; and no County shall be formed without complying with all the conditions imposed in this Article. An election upon the question of forming the same proposed new County shall not be held oftener than once in four years.

SECTION 6. All new Counties hereafter formed shall bear a just apportionment of the valid indebtedness of the old County or Counties from which they have been formed.

Alteration of County lines.

SECTION 7. The General Assembly shall have the power to alter County lines at any time: Provided, That before any existing County line is altered the question shall be first submitted to the qualified electors of the territory proposed to be taken from one County and given to another, and shall have received two-thirds of the votes cast: Provided, further, That the change shall not reduce the County from which the territory is taken below the limits prescribed in Sections 3, 4 and 5 of this Article: Provided, That the proper proportion of the existing County indebtedness of the section so transferred shall be assumed by the County to which the territory is transferred.

SECTION 8. No County seat shall be removed except by a vote of two-thirds of the qualified electors of said County voting in an election held for that purpose, but such election shall not be held in any County oftener than once in five years.

Removal of County seat.

SECTION 9. Each County shall constitute one election district, and shall be a body politic and corporate.

SECTION 10. The General Assembly may provide for the consolidation of two or more existing Counties if a majority of the qualified electors of such Counties voting at an election held for that purpose shall vote separately therefor, but such election shall not be held oftener than once in four years in the same Counties.

Consolidation of two

SECTION 12. Until changed by the General Assembly, as allowed by this Constitution, the boundaries of the several Counties shall remain as now established, except that the boundaries of the County of Edgefield shall undergo such changes as are made necessary by the formation of a new County from a portion of Edgefield, to be known as Saluda, the boundaries of which are set forth in a Constitution ordinance. The election ordered in said ordinance for the location of its County seat shall be held under the Constitution and laws now of force. And the General Assembly shall provide for the assessment of property in the County of Saluda for the fiscal year beginning

SECTION 13. The General Assembly may at any time arrange the various Counties into Judicial Circuits, and into Congressional Districts, including the County of Saluda, as it may deem wise and proper, and may establish or alter the location of voting precincts in any County.

No County
city or town.

SECTION 14. Hereafter no County lines shall be so established as to pass through any incorporated city or town of this State.

ARTICLE VIII.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS AND POLICE REGULATIONS.

Organization and classification of municipal corporations.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly shall provide by general laws for the organization and classification of municipal corporations. The powers of each class shall be defined so that no such corporations shall have any powers or be subject to any restrictions other than all corporations of the same class. Cities and towns now existing under special charters may reorganize under the general laws of the State, and when so reorganized their special charters shall cease and determine.

Elec tors

tion.

SECTION 2. No city or town shall be organized without the consent of the majority of the electors residing and entitled by law to vote within the district proposed to be incorporated; such consent to be ascertained in the manner and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

Taxes.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly shall restrict the powers of cities and towns to levy taxes and assessments, to borrow money and to contract debts, and no tax or assessment shall be levied or debts contracted except in pursuance of law, for public purposes specified by law.

Street rail-

SECTION 4. No law shall be passed by the General Assembly granting the right to construct and operate a street or other railway, telegraph, telephone or electric plant, or to erect water or gas works for public uses or to lay mains for any purpose, without first obtaining the consent of the local authorities in control of the streets or public places proposed to be occupied for any such or like purposes.

SECTION 5. Cities and towns may acquire, by construction or purchase, and may operate, water works systems and plants for furnishing lights, and may furnish water and lights to individuals, firms and private corporations for reasonable compensation: Provided, That no such construction or purchase shall be made except upon a majority vote of the electors in said cities or towns who are qualified to vote on the bonded indebtedness of said cities or towns.

SECTION 6. The corporate authorities of cities and towns in this State shall be vested with power to assess and collect taxes for corporate purposes, said taxes to be uniform in respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body composing the same; and all the property, except such as is exempt by law, within the limits of cities and towns shall be taxed for the payment of debts contracted under authority of law License or privileged taxes imposed shall be graduated so as to secure a just imposition of such tax upon the classes subject thereto.

Corporate taxes must be

factories established within their limits for five successive years from the time of the establishment of such manufactories: Provided, That such ordinance shall be first ratified by a majority of such qualified electors of such city or town as shall vote at an election held for that purpose.

Armed police force.

SECTION 9. No armed police force or representatives of a detective agency shall ever be brought into this State for the suppression of domestic violence; nor shall any other armed or unarmed body of men be brought in for that purpose, except upon the application of the General Assembly or of the Executive of this State (when the General Assembly is not in session), as provided in the Constitution of the United States. The General Assembly shall provide proper penalties for the enforcement of the provisions of this Section.

Boards of Health.

SECTION 10. It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to create Boards of Health wherever they may be necessary, giving to them power and authority to make such regulations as shall protect the health of the community and abate nuisances.

Alcoholic liquors and beverages.

SECTION 11. In the exercise of the police power the General Assembly shall have the right to prohibit the manufacture and sale and retail of alcoholic liquors or beverages within the State. The General Assembly may license persons or corporations to manufacture and sell and retail alcoholic liquors or beverages within the State under such rules and restrictions as it deems proper; or the General Assembly may prohibit the manufacture and sale and retail of alcoholic liquors and beverages within the State, and may authorize and empower State, County and municipal officers, all or either, under the authority and in the name of the State, to buy in any market and retail within the State liquors and beverages in such packages and quantities, under such rules and regulations, as it deems expedient: Provided, That no license shall be granted to sell alcoholic beverages in less quantities than one-half pint, or to sell them between sundown and sunrise, or to sell them to be drunk on the premises: And provided, further, That the General Assembly shall not delegate to any municipal corporation the power to issue licenses to sell the same.

SECTION 12. All prize-fighting is prohibited in this State, and the General Assembly shall provide by proper laws for the prevention and punishment of the same. ^{Prize fighting.}

ARTICE IX.

CORPORATIONS.

SECTION 1. The term corporation as used in this Article includes all associations and joint stock companies having powers and privileges not possessed by individuals or partnerships, and excludes municipal corporations. ^{Corporation defined.}

SECTION 2. No charter of incorporation shall be granted, changed or amended by special law, except in the case of such charitable, educational, penal or reformatory corporations as may be under the control of the State, or may be provided for in this Constitution, but the General Assembly shall provide by general laws for changing or amending existing charters, and for the organization of all corporations hereafter to be created, and any such law so passed, as well as all charters now existing or hereafter created, shall be subject to future repeal or alteration: Provided, That the General Assembly may by a two-thirds vote of each house on a concurrent resolution allow a Bill for a special charter to be introduced, and when so introduced may pass the same as other Bills. ^{Charter of incorporation.}

SECTION 3. All railroad, express, canal and other corporations engaged in transportation for hire, and all telegraph and other corporations engaged in the business of transmitting intelligence for hire are common carriers in their respective lines of business, and are subject to liability and taxation as such. It shall be unlawful for any such corporation to make any contract relieving it of its common law liability or limiting the same, in reference to the carriage of passengers. ^{Transporting and transmitting corporations taxed as such.}

SECTION 4. Every corporation organized or doing business in this State, other than religious, educational or benevolent associations, shall have and maintain at least one agent in this State upon whom process may be served, and at least one public office for the transaction of its business: Provided, This Section shall not apply to mercantile corporations: Provided, ^{Common law liability.} ^{Agent of corporation.} ^{Office of corporation.}

That nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to prohibit the General Assembly from providing for the service of process on any agent of a corporation so as to bind such corporation.

Discrimination in charges.

SECTION 5. No discrimination in charges or facilities for transportation of the same classes of freight or passengers, or for the transmission of intelligence within this State, or coming from or going to any other State, shall be made by any railroad or other transportation or transmission company between places or persons.

Excursion tickets.

Competitive rates.

Persons and property transported by any railroad or any other transportation or transmission company or corporation, shall be delivered at any station, landing or port at charges not exceeding the charges for the transportation of persons and property of the same class, in the same direction, to any more distant station, landing or port. Excursion and commutation tickets may be issued at special rates. This Section shall not prevent the Railroad Commission from making such competitive rates as shall, in their judgment, be just and equitable between the railroads and the public, at all junctional and competitive points or at points where water competition controls the traffic or at points where the competition of points located in other States may make necessary the prescribing of different rates for the protection of the commerce of this State.

Transportation company may connect or cross lines of another.

SECTION 6. Any railroad or other transportation corporation, and any telegraph or other transmitting corporation, organized under the laws of this State, shall have the right to connect its roads or lines, at the State line, with those in other States, and shall have the right to intersect with or cross any other railroad, street railway, transportation road or transmitting line, and shall each receive and transport the freight, passengers, cars (loaded or empty) and messages delivered to it by another without delay or discrimination.

Consolidation of stock with competing line.

SECTION 7. No railroad, or other transportation company, and no telegraph or other transmitting corporation, or the lessees, purchasers or managers of any such corporation, shall consolidate the stock, property or franchises of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the works or franchises of, or in any way control, any other railroad or other transportation, telegraph or other transmitting company owning or having under its control a parallel or competing line; and the question whether railroads or other transportation, telegraph or other transmitting companies are parallel or competing lines shall, when demanded by the party complainant, be decided by a jury as in other civil causes.

Jury may decide whether lines are parallel or competing.

SECTION 8. The General Assembly shall not grant to any foreign corporation or association a license to build, operate or lease any railroad in this State; but in all cases where a railroad is to be built or operated, or is now being operated, in this State, and the same shall be partly in this State and partly in another State, or in other States, the owners or projectors thereof shall first become incorporated under the laws of this State; nor shall any foreign corporation or association lease or operate any railroad in this State, or purchase the same or any interest therein. Consolidation of any railroad lines and corporations in this State with others shall be allowed only where the consolidated company shall become a domestic corporation of this State. No general or special law shall ever be passed for the benefit of any foreign corporation operating a railroad under an existing license of this State or under any existing lease, and no grant of any right or privilege and no exemption from any burden shall be made to any such foreign corporation, except upon the condition that the owners or stockholders thereof shall first organize a corporation in this State under the laws thereof, and shall thereafter operate and manage the same and the business thereof under said domestic charter.

No foreign corporation can build or operate a railroad in this State.

No general or special law for foreign corporation, except on conditions.

SECTION 9. The General Assembly shall have no power to grant any special charter for banking purposes, but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws, with such privileges, powers and limitations, not inconsistent with this Constitution, as it may deem proper. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the thorough examination and inspection of all banking and fiscal corporations of this State.

Banks.

SECTION 10. Stock or bonds shall not be issued by any corporation save for labor done, or money or property actually received or subscribed; and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void.

Stock issued for money or labor.

Election of officers of
corporations.

SECTION 11. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the election of directors, trustees or managers of all corporations so that each stockholder shall be allowed to cast, in person or by proxy, as many votes as the number of shares he owns multiplied by the number of directors, trustees or managers to be elected, the same to be cast for any one candidate or to be distributed among two or more candidates.

Business of corporations.

SECTION 12. Corporations shall not engage in any business except that specifically authorized by their charters or necessarily incident thereto.

Trusts,
combinations,
&c.

SECTION 13. The General Assembly shall enact laws to prevent all trusts, combinations, contracts and agreements against the public welfare; and to prevent abuses, unjust discriminations and extortion in all charges of transporting and transmitting companies; and shall pass laws for the supervision and regulation of such companies by commission or otherwise, and shall provide adequate penalties, to the extent, if necessary for that purpose, of forfeiture of their franchises.

The Rail-
mission.

SECTION 14. A Commission is hereby established to be known as "the Railroad Commission," which shall be composed of not less than three members, whose powers over all transporting and transmitting corporations, and duties, manner of election and term of office shall be regulated by law; and until otherwise provided by law the said Commissioners shall have the same powers and jurisdiction, perform the same duties and receive the same compensation as now conferred, prescribed and allowed by law to the existing Railroad Commissioners: Provided, That the members thereof shall be elected at the expiration of the terms of the present Railroad Commissioners, who are hereby continued in office for the terms for which they were elected.

Rights and
employees.

SECTION 15. Every employee of any railroad corporation shall have the same rights and remedies for any injury suffered by him from the acts or omissions of said corporation or its employees as are allowed by law to other persons not employees, when the injury results from the negligence of a superior agent or officer, or of a person having a right to control or direct the services of a party injured, and also when the injury results from the negligence of a fellow servant engaged in another department of labor from that of the party injured, or of a fellow servant on another train of cars, or one engaged about a different piece of work. Knowledge by any employee injured of the defective or unsafe character or condition of any machinery, ways or appliances shall be no defence to an action for injury caused thereby, except as to conductors or engineers in charge of dangerous or unsafe cars or engines voluntarily operated by them. When death ensues from any injury to employees, the legal or personal representatives of the person injured shall have the same right and remedies as are allowed by law to such representatives of other persons. Any contract or agreement, expressed or implied, made by any employee to waive the benefit of this Section shall be null and void; and this Section shall not be construed to deprive any employee of a corporation, or his legal or personal representative, of any remedy or right that he now has by the law of the land. The General Assembly may extend the remedies herein provided for to any other class of employees.

SECTION 16. All existing charters or grants of corporate franchise under which organizations have not in good faith taken place at the adoption of this Constitution shall be subject to the provisions of this Article. Existing charters.

SECTION 17. The General Assembly shall never remit the forfeiture of the franchise of any corporation now chartered, nor alter nor amend the charter thereof, nor pass any general or special law for the benefit of such corporation, except upon the condition that such corporation shall thereafter hold its charter and franchise subject to the provisions of this Constitution, and the acceptance by any corporation of any provision of any such laws or the taking of any benefit or advantage from the same shall be conclusively held an agreement by such corporation to hold its charter and franchise under the provisions of this Article. Laws for benefit of corporation passed only on conditions.

SECTION 18. The stockholders of all insolvent corporations shall be individually liable to the creditors thereof only to the extent of the amount remaining due to the corporation upon the stock owned by them: Provided, That stockholders in banks or banking institutions shall be liable to depositors therein in a Liability of stock-holders.

sum equal in amount to their stock over and above the face value of the same.

SECTION 19. Nothing prohibited in this Article shall be permitted to be done by any corporation or company, persons or person, either for its or their own benefit or otherwise, by its or their holding or controlling in its or their own name or otherwise, or in the name of any other person or persons, or other corporation or company whatsoever, a majority of the capital stock, or of bonds having voting power, of any railroad or transportation company, or corporation created by or existing under the laws of this State, or doing business within this State.

SECTION 20. No right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation until full compensation therefor shall be first made to the owner or secured by a deposit of money, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation, which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury of twelve men, in a Court of record, as shall be prescribed by law.

SECTION 21. The General Assembly shall enforce the provisions of this Article by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE X.

FINANCE AND TAXATION.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe regulations to secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, real, personal and possessory, except mines and mining claims, the products of which alone shall be taxed; and also excepting such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes: Provided, however, That the General Assembly may impose a capitation tax upon such domestic animals as from their nature and habits are destructive of other property: And provided, further, That the General Assembly may provide for a graduated tax on incomes, and for a graduated license on occupations and business.

SECTION 2. The General Assembly shall provide for an annual tax sufficient to defray the estimated expenses of the State for each year, and whenever it shall happen that the ordinary expenses of the State for any year shall exceed the income of the State for such year the General Assembly shall provide for levying a tax for the ensuing year sufficient, with other sources of income, to pay the deficiency of the preceding year together with the estimated expenses of the ensuing year.

SECTION 3. No tax shall be levied except in pursuance of a law which shall distinctly state the object of the same ; to which object the tax shall be applied.

SECTION 4. There shall be exempted from taxation all County, township and municipal property used exclusively for public purposes and not for revenue, and the property of all schools, colleges and institutions of learning, all charitable institutions in the nature of asylums for the infirm, deaf and dumb, blind, idiotic and indigent persons, except where the profits of such institutions are applied to private uses ; all public libraries, churches, parsonages and burying grounds ; but property of associations and societies, although connected with charitable objects, shall not be exempt from State, County or municipal taxation: Provided, That as to real estate this exemption shall not extend beyond the buildings and premises actually occupied by such schools, colleges, institutions of learning, asylums, libraries, churches, parsonages and burial grounds, although connected with charitable objects.

SECTION 5. The corporate authorities of Counties, townships, school districts, cities, towns and villages may be vested with power to assess and collect taxes for corporate purposes ; such taxes to be uniform in respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body imposing the same. All shares of the stockholders in any bank or banking association located in this State, whether now or hereafter incorporated, or organized under the laws of this State or of the United States, shall be listed at their true value in money, and taxed for municipal purposes in the city, ward, town or incorporated village, where such bank is located, and not elsewhere: Provided, That the words "true value in money" as used in line 12 [line 12 of original MS. and line 9 as printed.—EDITOR] of this Section shall be so construed as to mean and include all surplus or extra moneys, capital, and every species of personal property of value owned or in possession of any such bank: Provided, A like rule of taxation shall apply to the stockholders of all corporations other than banking institutions. And the General Assembly shall require that all the property, except that herein permitted to be exempted within the limits of municipal corporations, shall be taxed for corporate purposes and for the payment of debts contracted under authority of law. The bonded debt of any County, township, school district, municipal corporation or political division or subdivision of this State shall never exceed eight per centum of the assessed value of all the taxable property therein. And no County, township, municipal corporation or other political division of this State shall hereafter be authorized to increase its bonded indebtedness if at the time of any proposed increase thereof the aggregate amount of its already existing bonded debt amounts to eight per centum of the value of all taxable property therein as ascertained by the valuation for State taxation.

bonded debt.

And wherever there shall be several political divisions or municipal corporations covering or extending over the same territory, or portions thereof, possessing a power to levy a tax or contract a debt, then each of such political divisions or municipal corporations shall so exercise its power to increase its debt under the foregoing eight per cent. limitation that the aggregate debt over and upon any territory of this State shall never exceed fifteen per centum of the value of all taxable property in such territory as valued for taxation by the State: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the issue of bonds for the purpose of paying or refunding any valid municipal debt heretofore contracted in excess of eight per centum of the assessed value of all the taxable property therein.

Credit of State.

SECTION 6. The credit of the State shall not be pledged or loaned for the benefit of any individual, company, association or corporation; and the State shall not become a joint owner of or stockholder in any company, association or corporation. The General Assembly shall not have power to authorize any County or township to levy a tax or issue bonds for any purpose except for educational purposes, to build and repair public roads, buildings and bridges, to maintain and support prisoners, pay jurors, County officers, and for litigation, quarantine and Court expenses, and for ordinary County purposes, to support paupers, and pay past indebtedness.

SECTION 10. The fiscal year shall commence on the first day of January in each year.

Fiscal year.

SECTION 11. To the end that the public debt of South Carolina may not hereafter be increased without the due consideration and free consent of the people of the State, the General Assembly is hereby forbidden to create any further debt or obligation, either by the loan of the credit of the State, by guaranty, endorsement or otherwise, except for the ordinary and current business of the State, without first submitting the question as to the creation of such new debt, guaranty, endorsement or loan of its credit to the qualified electors of this State at a general State election; and unless two-thirds of the qualified electors of this State, voting on the question, shall be in favor of increasing the debt, guaranty, endorsement or loan of its credit, none shall be created or made. And any debt contracted by the State shall be by loan on State bonds, of amounts not less than fifty dollars each, bearing interest, payable not more than forty years after final passage of the law authorizing such debt. A correct registry of all such bonds shall be kept by the Treasurer in numerical order, so as to always exhibit the number and amounts unpaid, and to whom severally made payable. And the General Assembly shall levy an annual tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds.

SECTION 12. Suitable laws shall be passed by the General Assembly for the safe-keeping, transfer and disbursement of the State, County and school funds; and all officers and other persons charged with the same shall keep an accurate entry of each sum received, and of each payment and transfer, and shall give such security for the faithful discharge of such duties as the General Assembly may provide. And it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to pass laws making embezzlement of such funds a felony, punishable by fine and imprisonment, proportioned to the amount of the deficiency or embezzlement, and the party convicted of such felony shall be disqualified from ever holding any office of honor or emolument in this State: Provided, however, That the General Assembly, by a two-thirds vote, may remove the disability upon payment in full of the principal and interest of the sum embezzled.

SECTION 13. The General Assembly shall provide for the assessment of all property for taxation; and State, County, township, school, municipal and all other taxes shall be levied on the same assessment, which shall be that made for State taxes; and the taxes for the subdivisions of the State shall be levied and collected by the respective fiscal authorities thereof.

ARTICLE XI.

EDUCATION.

S u p e r i n - tendent of Education.

SECTION 1. The supervision of public instruction shall be vested in a State Superintendent of Education, who shall be elected for the term of two years by the qualified electors of the State, in such manner and at such time as the other State officers are elected; his powers, duties and compensation shall be defined by the General Assembly.

State Board
tion.

SECTION 2. There shall be a State Board of Education, composed of the Governor, the State Superintendent of Education, and not exceeding seven persons to be appointed by the Governor every four years, of which Board the Governor shall be Chairman, and the State Superintendent of Education, Secretary. This Board shall have the regulation of examination of teachers applying for certificates of qualification, and shall award all scholarships, and have such other powers and duties as may be determined by law. The traveling expenses of the persons to be appointed shall be provided for by the General Assembly.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly shall make provision for the election or appointment of all other necessary school officers, and shall define their qualifications, powers, duties, compensation and terms of office. School officers.

SECTION 4. The salaries of the State and County school officers and compensation of County Treasurers for collecting and disbursing school moneys shall not be paid out of the school funds, but shall be otherwise provided for by the General Assembly. Salaries of school officers and County Treasurer.

SECTION 5. The General Assembly shall provide for a liberal system of free public schools for all children between the ages of six and twenty-one years, and for the division of the Counties into suitable school districts, as compact in form as practicable, having regard to natural boundaries, and not to exceed forty-nine nor be less than nine square miles in area: Provided, That in cities of ten thousand inhabitants and over, this limitation of area shall not apply: Provided, further, That when any school district laid out under this Section shall embrace cities or towns already organized into special school districts in which graded school buildings have been erected by the issue of bonds, or by special taxation, or by donation, all the territory included in said school district shall bear its just proportion of any tax that may be levied to liquidate such bonds or support the public schools therein: Provided, further, That nothing in this Article contained shall be construed as a repeal of the laws under which the several graded school districts of this State are organized. The present division of the Counties into school districts and the provisions of law now governing the same shall remain until changed by the General Assembly. Free public schools.

SECTION 6. The existing County Boards of Commissioners of the several Counties, or such officer or officers as may hereafter be vested with the same or similar powers and duties, shall levy an annual tax of three mills on the dollar upon all the taxable property in their respective Counties, which tax shall be collected at the same time and by the same officers as the Three mill tax for public schools.

other taxes for the same year, and shall be held in the County treasury of the respective Counties; and the said fund shall be apportioned among the school districts of the County in proportion to the number of pupils enrolled in the public schools of the respective districts, and the officer or officers charged by law with making said apportionment shall notify the Trustees of the respective school districts thereof, who shall expend and disburse the same as the General Assembly may prescribe. The General Assembly shall define "enrollment." Not less than three Trustees for each school district shall be selected from the qualified voters and taxpayers therein, in such manner and for such terms as the General Assembly may determine, except in cases of special school districts now existing, where the provisions of law now governing the same shall remain until changed by the General Assembly: Provided, The manner of the selection of said Trustees need not be uniform throughout the State. There shall be assessed on all taxable polls in the State between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years (excepting Confederate soldiers above the age of fifty years,) an annual tax of one dollars on each poll, the proceeds of which tax shall be expended for school purposes in the several school districts in which it is collected. Whenever during the three next ensuing fiscal years the tax levied by the said County Boards of Commissioners or similar officers and the poll tax shall not yield an amount equal to three dollars per capital of the number of children enrolled in the public schools of each County for the scholastic year ending the thirty-first day of October in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five, as it appears in the report of the State Superintendent of Education for said scholastic year, the Comptroller-General shall, for the aforesaid three next ensuing fiscal years, on the first day of each of said years, levy such an annual tax on the taxable property of the State as he may determine to be necessary to make up such deficiency, to be collected as other State taxes, and apportion the same among the Counties of the State in proportion to the respective deficiencies therein. The sum so apportioned shall be paid by the State Treasurer to the County Treasurers of the respective Counties, in proportion to the respective deficiencies therein, on the warrant of the Comp-ance, support, medical attendance and discipline shall be under the direction of officers detailed for those duties by the authorities of the Penitentiary.

ARTICLE XIII.

MILITIA.

Militia. SECTION 1. The militia of this State shall consist of all able-bodied male citizens of the State between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, except such persons as are now or may be exempted by the laws of the United States or this State, or who from religious scruples may be averse to bearing arms, and shall be organized, officered, armed, equipped and disciplined as the General Assembly may by law direct.

When exempt from arrest. SECTION 2. The volunteer and militia forces shall (except for treason, felony and breach of the peace) be exempt from arrest by warrant or other process while in active service or attending muster or the election of officers, or while going to or returning from either of the same.

Governor may call out. SECTION 3. The Governor shall have the power to call out the volunteer and militia forces, either or both, to execute the laws, repel invasions, suppress insurrections and preserve the public peace.

Adjutant and Inspector General. SECTION 4. There shall be an Adjutant and Inspector General elected by the qualified electors of the State at the same time and in the same manner as other State officers, who shall rank as Brigadier General, and whose duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law. The Governor shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint such other staff officers as the General Assembly may direct.

Pensions. SECTION 5. The General Assembly is hereby empowered and required, at its first session after the adoption of this Constitution, to provide such proper and liberal legislation as will guarantee and secure an annual pension to every indigent or disabled Confederate soldier and sailor of this State and of the late Confederate States who are citizens of this State, and also to the indigent widows of Confederate soldiers and sailors.

ARTICLE XIV.

EMINENT DOMAIN.

SECTION 1. The State shall have concurrent jurisdiction on all rivers bordering on this State, so far as such rivers shall form a common boundary to this and any other State bounded by the same; and they, together with all navigable waters within the limits of the State, shall be common highways and forever free, as well to the inhabitants of this State as to the citizens of the United States, without any tax or impost therefor, unless the same be expressly provided for by the General Assembly.

SECTION 2. The title to all lands and other property which have heretofore accrued to this State by grant, gift, purchase, forfeiture, escheats or otherwise shall vest in the State of South Carolina, the same as though no change had taken place.

SECTION 3. The people of the State are declared to possess the ultimate property in and to all lands within the jurisdiction of the State; and all lands the title to which shall fail from defect of heirs shall revert or escheat to the people.

ARTICLE XV.

IMPEACHMENT.

SECTION 1. The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment. A vote of two-thirds of all the members elected shall be required for an impeachment. Any officer impeached shall thereby be suspended from office until judgment in the case shall have been pronounced; and the office shall be filled during the trial in such manner as may be provided by law.

SECTION 2. All impeachments shall be tried by the Senate, and when sitting for that purpose they shall be under oath or affirmation. No person shall be convicted except by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected. When the Governor is impeached, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, or if he be disqualified, the Senior Justice shall preside, with a casting vote in all preliminary questions.

Officers liable to.

SECTION 3. The Governor and all other executive and judicial officers shall be liable to impeachment; but judgment in such cases shall not extend further than removal from office. The persons convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable to indictment, trial and punishment according to law.

Removal of officers.

SECTION 4. For any wilful neglect of duty, or other reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient ground of impeachment, the Governor shall remove any executive or judicial officer on the address of two-thirds of each house of the General Assembly: Provided, That the cause or causes for which said removal may be required shall be stated at length in such address, and entered on the Journals of each house: And provided, further, That the officer intended to be removed shall be notified of such cause or causes, and shall be admitted to a hearing in his own defence, or by his counsel, or by both, before any vote for such address; and in all cases the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and be entered on the Journals of each house respectively.

ARTICLE XVI.

AMENDMENTS AND REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Amendments.

SECTION 1. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives. If the same be agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to each house, such amendment or amendments shall be entered on the Journals respectively, with the yeas and nays taken thereon; and the same shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the next general election thereafter for Representatives; and if a majority of the electors qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, voting thereon, shall vote in favor of such amendment or amendments, and a majority of each branch of the next General Assembly shall, after such an election and before another, ratify the same amendment or amendments, by yeas and nays, the same shall become part of the Constitution: Provided, That such amendment or amendments shall have been read three times, on three several days, in each house.

SECTION 2. If two or more amendments shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be submitted in such manner that the electors shall vote for or against each of such amendments separately. Two or more.

SECTION 3. Whenever two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the General Assembly shall think it necessary to call a Convention to revise, amend or change this Constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote for or against a Convention at the next election for Representatives; and if a majority of all the electors voting at said election shall have voted for a Convention, the General Assembly shall, at its next session, provide by law for calling the same; and such Convention shall consist of a number of members equal to that of the most numerous branch of the General Assembly. Constitutional Convention.

ARTICLE XVII.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

SECTION 1. No person shall be elected or appointed to any office in this State unless he possess the qualifications of an elector: Provided, The provisions of this Section shall not apply to the offices of State Librarian and Departmental Clerks, to either of which offices any woman, a resident of the State two years, who has attained the age of twenty-one years, shall be eligible. Removal of causes.

SECTION 6. The General Assembly shall provide for the removal of all causes which may be pending when this Constitution goes into effect to Courts created by the same.

Lotteries.

SECTION 7. No lottery shall ever be allowed, or be advertised by newspapers, or otherwise, or its tickets be sold in this State; and the General Assembly shall provide by law at its next session for the enforcement of this provision.

Y Gambling and betting.

SECTION 8. It shall be unlawful for any person holding an office of honor, trust or profit to engage in gambling or betting on games of chance; and any such officer, upon conviction thereof, shall become thereby disqualified from the further exercise of the functions of his office, and the office of said person shall become vacant, as in the case of resignation or death.

Property of married women.

SECTION 9. The real and personal property of a woman held at the time of her marriage, or that which she may thereafter acquire, either by gift, grant, inheritance, devise or otherwise, shall be her separate property, and she shall have all the rights incident to the same to which an unmarried woman or a man is entitled. She shall have the power to contract and be contracted with in the same manner as if she were unmarried.

Laws now of force.

SECTION 10. All laws now in force in this State and not repugnant to this Constitution shall remain and be enforced until altered or repealed by the General Assembly, or shall expire by their own limitations.

Laws now of force.

SECTION 11. That no inconvenience may arise from the change in the Constitution of this State, and in order to carry this Constitution into complete operation, it is hereby declared:

O r d i - nances.

First. That all laws in force in this State, at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, not inconsistent therewith and constitutional when enacted, shall remain in full force until altered or repealed by the General Assembly or expire by their own limitation. All ordinances passed and ratified at this Convention shall have the same force and effect as if included in and constituting a part of this Constitution.

Writs, actions, &c.

Second. All writs, actions, causes of action, proceedings, prosecutions, and rights of individuals, of bodies corporate and of the State, when not inconsistent with this Constitution, shall continue as valid.

Third. The provisions of all laws which are inconsistent with this Constitution shall cease upon its adoption, except that all laws which are inconsistent with such provisions of this Constitution as require legislation to enforce them shall remain in force until such legislation is had.

Laws inconsistent with Constitution.

Fourth. All fines, penalties, forfeitures and escheats accruing to the State of South Carolina under the Constitution and laws heretofore in force shall accrue to the use of the State of South Carolina under this Constitution, except as herein otherwise provided.

Fines, &c., accruing.

Fifth. All recognizances, obligations and all other instruments entered into or executed before the adoption of this Constitution to the State, or to any County, township, city or town therein, and all fines, taxes, penalties and forfeitures due or owing to this State, or to any County, township, city or town therein, and all writs, prosecutions, actions and proceedings, except as herein otherwise provided, shall continue and remain unaffected by the adoption of this Constitution. All indictments which shall have been found, or may hereafter be found, for any crime or offence committed before the adoption of this Constitution may be prosecuted as if no change had been made, except as otherwise provided herein.

Recognizances, &c.

Indictments.

Sixth. All officers, State, executive, legislative, judicial, circuit, district, County, township and municipal, who may be in office at the adoption of this Constitution, or who may be elected before the election of their successors as herein provided, shall hold their respective offices until their terms have expired and until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified as provided in this Constitution, unless sooner removed as may be provided by law; and shall receive the compensation now fixed by the Statute Laws in force at the adoption of this Constitution.

All officers hold over.

Compensation.

Seventh. At all elections held for members of the General Assembly in case of a vacancy, or for any other office, State, County or municipal, the qualifications of electors shall remain as they were under the Constitution of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight until the first day of November, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six.

Elections.

Takes effect. Eighth. This Constitution, adopted by the people of South Carolina in Convention assembled, shall be in force and effect from and after the thirty-first day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

Ninth. The provisions of the Constitution of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight and amendments thereto are repealed by this Constitution, except when re-ordained and declared herein.

AMENDMENTS.

ARTICLE I OF AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

The General Assembly shall provide by law for the condemnation, through proper official channels, of all lands necessary for the proper drainage of the swamp and low lands of this State, and shall also provide for the equitable assessment of all lands so drained, for the purpose of paying the expenses of such condemnation and drainage.

An act ratifying amendment approved February 8, 1901.

AMENDMENTS TO SECTION 7, ARTICLE VIII, OF THE CONSTITUTION, RELATING TO MUNICIPAL BONDED INDEBTEDNESS.

Whereas, the General Assembly did, by Joint Resolution, approved February 19, 1900, submit to the qualified electors of the State, at the general election next thereafter, an amendment to the Section 7, of Article VIII, of the Constitution of the State of South Carolina, by adding thereto a clause providing that the limitation imposed by said Section 7, Article VIII, and by Section 5, Article IV, of said Constitution (Article IV in said Joint Resolution being inadvertently written for Article X, and hereinafter designated as Article IV, instead of Article X, so as to conform to the amendments as proposed and voted on) should not apply to bonded indebtedness incurred by the cities of Columbia, Rock Hill, Charleston, Florence and Georgetown, when the proceeds of said bonds are applied to certain purposes.

And whereas, a majority of the electors qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, voting thereon at the general election next succeeding the passage of the said Joint Resolution, did vote in favor of said amendment.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina: That the amendment to Section 7, of Article VIII, submitted by the last General Assembly to the qualified electors of the State at the general election next thereafter, and upon which a majority of the electors qualified to vote for the members of the General Assembly, voting thereon at the last past general election voted in favor thereof, be, and the same is hereby, ratified and made a part of the Constitution of the State of South Carolina, that the said amendment so made, a part of the said Constitution, is as follows:

That the following amendment to Section 7, of Article VIII, of the Constitution be agreed to: Add at the end thereof the following words: Provided, That the limitation imposed by this Section and by Section 5, Article IV, of this Constitution shall not apply to bonded indebtedness incurred by the cities of Columbia, Rock Hill, Charleston and Florence, where the proceeds of said bonds are applied solely for the purchase, establishment, maintenance or increase of water works plants, sewerage system; and by the City of Georgetown, when the proceeds of said bonds are applied solely for the purchase, establishment, maintenance or increase of water works plants or sewerage system, gas and electric light plants where the entire revenue arising from the operation of such plants or systems shall be devoted solely and exclusively to the maintenance and operation of the same, and where the question of incurring such indebtedness is submitted to the freeholders and qualified voters of such municipality, as provided in the Constitution, upon the question of other bonded indebtedness.

Approved the 8th day of February, A. D. 1901.

Copy from Code, Vol. 2, pp. 117-118.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 11, ARTICLE VII, OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Amended by adding thereto a clause providing: "that this Section shall not apply to the following townships in the following Counties: Dunklin and Oaklawn, in the County of Greenville; the townships of Cokesbury, Ninety-Six and Cooper, in the County of Greenwood; Sullivan Township, in the County of Laurens; Huiett and Pine Grove, in the County of Saluda. That the corporate existence of said townships be, and the same is hereby, destroyed, and all officers under said townships are abolished and all corporate agents removed."

Act ratifying amendment approved 23d day of February, 1903.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 7, ARTICLE VIII.

Provided, further, That the limitations imposed by this Section and by Section 5, Article X, of this Constitution, shall not apply to bonded indebtedness incurred by the City of Greenville, but said City of Greenville may increase its bonded indebtedness in the matter provided in said Section of said Article to an amount not exceeding fifteen per cent. of the value of taxable property therein, where the proceeds of said bonds are applied solely to the payment of past indebtedness, to expenses and liabilities incurred or to be incurred in the improvements of streets and sidewalks, and for providing sewerage for said city or any part thereof, for purchasing, establishing, owning or operating water works or electric light plants;”

Act ratifying amendment approved 20th February, 1905.

24 Stat. p. 955.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 7, ARTICLE VIII, OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Amended as follows: Provided, further, That the limitations imposed by this Section, and by Section 5, of Article X, of this Constitution, shall not apply to the bonded indebtedness incurred by the city of Bennettsville, where the proceeds of said bonds are applied solely and exclusively for the purchase, establishment and maintenance of a water works plant or sewerage system, and where the question of incurring such indebtedness is submitted to the freeholders and qualified voters of such municipality, as provided in the Constitution upon the question of other bonded indebtedness.

Stat. Vol. 25, p. 489.

74 CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 7, ARTICLE VIII, OF THE CONSTITUTION.

"Provided, further, that the limitations imposed by this Section and by Section 5, of Article X, of this Constitution, shall not apply to bonded indebtedness incurred by the town of Gaffney, in the county of Cherokee, when the proceeds of said bonds are applied solely and exclusively for the building, erecting, establishing and maintenance of water works, electric light plants, or sewerage system, and where the question of incurring such indebtedness is submitted to the qualified electors of said municipality as provided in the Constitution upon the question of bonded indebtedness."

Act ratifying amendment approved February 23, 1909.

Acts 1909, p. 37.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 34, ARTICLE III, OF THE CONSTITUTION.

"That sub-division II and sub-division IX, of Section 34, of Article III, of the Constitution, are hereby repealed."

Act ratifying amendment approved February 19, 1907.

24 Stat., p. 959.

ARTICLE ——— OF AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

"The General Assembly of this State may enact local or special laws concerning the laying out, opening, altering or working roads or highways, and concerning the providing for the age at which citizens shall be subject to road duty, and concerning drainage."

Act ratifying amendment approved February 18, 1905.
