Katherine

Good morning

I wanted to ask if wives normally attend this event with their husbands? I did not see any activities for spouses but if they did attend, would they be welcome to attend the Palmetto State reception with their spouses later that evening?

Also, we have two locations in Aiken South Carolina. One being the Bridgestone Aiken PSR facility with over 1500 teammates and the other being our new $1.1 billion dollar facility in Aiken. Adam Barfoot and I will be attending representing the two locations. I could not locate the form for Adam to submit his information. Would you please send me an additional form for Adam to submit?

Very Kind Regards
