South Carolina State Parks

at 19:00:11 on 8/24/2021 UTC · 🌐

With all of this rain, we can't see the forest for the.....mushrooms! Over 6" of rain the past four days, and warm temperatures have created the perfect conditions for mushrooms to pop up at Caesars Head & Jones Gap state parks! We have added 11 new species of mushrooms to our species list. Check out some of them below!
