South Carolina State Parks

at 20:00:01 on 2/20/2019 UTC · 🌐

A boy named Thompson and his family, stayed in a cabin at Myrtle Beach State Park a few weeks ago. When they left, Thompson's bear was accidentally left behind. When the family got back to Columbia, they realized that they had left the bear and called the park to see if they found him and if they would send him home. Not only did they find him -- the park rangers took the bear on adventures throughout the park, took photos and then sent the pictures and the bear back to Thompson. How very cool is that? We hope Thompson (and his bear) enjoyed!
