Subject: It's not too late to make a difference on #GivingTuesday!

There's still time left to give!

Did you know our peers in the think tank realm ranked us #1 in the world for regional studies in 2017?

We earned that honor because of our impact, the quality of our analysis, and our worldwide network of experts and scholars who cut through the noise with intellectual rigor.

Today is #GivingTuesday, a day when people around the world donate to the organizations that make a difference in the world. In these days of partisanship and information pollution, our mission—to provide fact-based analysis and actionable foreign-policy ideas for lawmakers—is more critical than ever.

If you believe in the value of that mission, please help us continue our work with a contribution of $50, $100, or more.

Can we count on your support for the Wilson Center?
