RE: Latisha Mitchell (DOB 7/3/1980)

Dear Dr. Brumfield,

Thank you for corresponding regarding this patient. I am asking my South Carolina Department of Health & Human Services [DHHS] colleagues to utilize this letter of medical necessity to override the normal twelve visit limit for adult Medicaid beneficiaries. Mr. William Feagin at DHHS will be working on this for you and there should not be any problem getting this done.

If you have further difficulty, please call Mr. Feagin at 803-898-3040. Thank you for your advocacy regarding this patient and for caring for SC Medicaid beneficiaries.

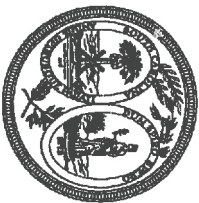

Sincerely,

Dear Dr. Burton,

This letter is to request approval of payment for two visits for my patient Latisha Mitchell (DOB 7/3/1980). Her Medicaid number is 0222205602. She was seen on 6/16/2008 for increased blood pressure and edema since the birth of her baby two weeks prior. She had also injured her hip in delivery. The visit on 6/27/2008 was for acute worsening of her hip pain and injury. She required a Toradol injection and a referral to orthopedics. I appreciate your assistance with these visits.

Sincerely,
