EXECUTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, South Carolina and its local political subdivisions increasingly are faced by problems and opportunities which extend beyond the jurisdictions of individual local political subdivisions and which require that coordinated area-wide responses be made; and

WHEREAS, the boundaries of multi-county areas used and proposed by the several agencies of the State vary widely and often are in conflict one with another; and

WHEREAS, the State Government is being asked by local groups to approve groupings of counties into districts for a variety of single purposes; and

WHEREAS, the State needs a single sub-State district pattern, made up of groupings of counties with common economic, physical, social, governmental and other interests, to provide a consistent framework within which planning, programming and the rendering of other services by State, federal and local instrumentalities can be undertaken and coordinated; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has recognized this problem and has expressed a policy (In Bureau of the Budget Circular A-80) aimed at achieving consistent planning and development areas within the states and which gives the dominant responsibility for delineating such sub-state district patterns to the respective states; and

WHEREAS, Act 487, of 1967 Acts and Joint Resolutions of South Carolina empowers the Governor to approve the formation of regional planning organizations;

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and laws of this State, I do hereby establish, as the official sub-State district pattern for the State of South Carolina, the pattern represented by the following groupings of counties:

Anderson, Cherokee, Greenville, Oconee, Pickens and Spartanburg;

Abbeville, Edgefield, Greenwood, Laurens, McCormick and Saluda;

Chester, Lancaster, Union and York;

Fairfield, Lexington, Newberry and Richland;

Allendale, Aiken, Bamberg, Barnwell, Calhoun and Orangeburg;

Clarendon, Kershaw, Lee and Sumter;

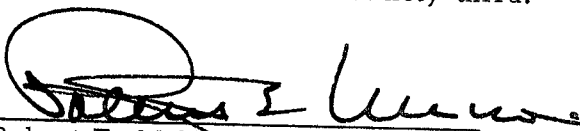

Chesterfield, Darlington, Dillon, Florence, Marion and Marlboro;

Georgetown, Horry and Williamsburg;

Berkeley, Charleston and Dorchester; and Beaufort, Colleton, Hampton and Jasper.

WHEREAS, Act Number 150 of the 1967 Acts and Joint Resolutions, South Carolina, has authorized and directed the Governor to do all things necessary on behalf of the State to secure the full benefits of the Federal Highway Safety Act of 1966, P. L. 89-564, 80 Stat. 731, to improve the highway safety of the State; and

WHEREAS, The said Act has further designated the Governor as the officer ultimately responsible for the highway safety programs pursuant to the said Highway Safety Act of 1966, and authorized and directed him to coordinate the activities of any and all departments and agencies of the State and its subdivisions for such purpose; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary to establish a formal organization and delegate thereto certain of the Governor's powers and authority for the execution of the said highway safety program:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert E. McNair, Governor of South Carolina, hereby establish in the Executive Branch of the State government an Office of the South Carolina Highway Safety Program, headed by a Governor's Co-ordinator appointed by and serving at the pleasure of the Governor, and staffed by such other officers and employees as the said Co-ordinator may from time to time appoint according to law;

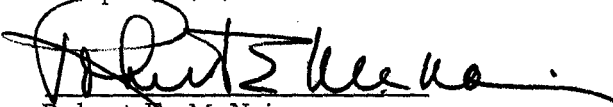

I further delegate to the Governor's Co-ordinator all the powers and authority vested in the Governor by Act Number 150 of the 1967 Acts and Joint Resolutions, and he is directed to exercise the same in pursuance of the said Act.

All departments and agencies within the Executive Branch of the State government are to cooperate with the Governor's Co-ordinator in the performance of his highway safety functions provided herein, to the full extent permitted by law.

EXECUTIVE ORDER AND PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it appears to my satisfaction that there exists in and around the City of Charleston wide-spread acts of violence and threats of violence, common disregard for the law and disorders of a general nature which constitute a danger to the persons and property of the citizens of the community, and threaten the peace and tranquility of the State, NOW THEREFORE,

PURSUANT TO THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, I do hereby proclaim that a state of emergency exists in and around the City of Charleston.

I do order that until subsequently determined by me that the need for such restriction is no longer necessary, that a curfew be and the same is hereby proclaimed within that portion of the City of Charleston known as Peninsula City bordered on the North by Mount Pleasant Street, on the East by the Cooper River, on the South by the Charleston Harbor and on the West by the Ashley River and that portion of the County of Charleston bordered on the North by South Carolina Highway No. 7 and Cosgrove Avenue, on the East by the Cooper River, on the South by Mount Pleasant Street and on the West by the Ashley River including the subdivisions of Hibernian Heights, Rosemont, Union Heights, Windsor Place, and Charleston Heights, excepting all lands not under the jurisdiction of the State of South Carolina, to commence at 9 p.m. this date, May 1, 1969, and to expire at 5 a.m. of each following day and to commence and terminate at those times on subsequent days until hereinafter ordered, amended, or rescinded. During the hours between 9 p.m. and 5 a.m. those persons within the said area shall remain within their homes and all businesses shall close during hours of curfew. Those persons required to attend to business of an emergency or essential nature shall continue as under normal conditions, but shall obtain clearance from Chief J. P. Strom of the State Law Enforcement Division or his designees. To avoid hardship and to insure that no persons will be unduly restricted, the said officials may in their discretion authorize such exceptions to the foregoing restrictions as they may feel advisable.

In accordance with Act No. 1197 of the 1968 Acts and Joint Resolutions:

1. No person or persons shall congregate except in their homes in groups of three or more and refuse to disperse upon order of any law enforcement official or National Guardsman.
2. No person or persons shall willfully fail or refuse to comply with any directive of any law enforcement officer or National Guardsman.
3. No person or persons shall enter into the property of another without lawful authority and with criminal intent.
4. No person or persons shall damage the person or property of another, whether real or personal.
5. No person or persons shall take possession or otherwise disturb the property of another in any manner.

In order to minimize the dangers to life, limb, and property, I do hereby authorize, order and direct that:

1. It shall be unlawful for any person except law enforcement officers and National Guardsmen to possess with intent to injure or damage any other person or his property, whether real or personal, any weapon, firearm, pistol, rock, bottle, incendiary device, or any other object or device designed and intended for the infliction of injury or damage upon another's person or property.

2. It shall be unlawful for any person to violate any provision set forth in this proclamation.

The provisions of this order and proclamation are to be considered cumulative, supplemental, and in addition to existing laws, and if this order and proclamation is in conflict with any existing statute or other law of the State, that statute or other law shall control and apply, there being no intent to repeal either explicitly or impliedly any such existing statute or other law which this proclamation may conflict.

That the Chief of the State Law Enforcement Division, J. P. Strom, is hereby authorized to issue any such directive or order as he may deem necessary to implement this order and proclamation.

EXECUTIVE ORDER AND PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it has been made to appear to my satisfaction that there presently exists at Voorhees College and in an area lying within one-half (1/2) mile radius of the boundaries of the campus of Voorhees College, an institution of higher learning that is located in and near the City of Denmark, County of Bamberg, State of South Carolina, a state of emergency, and

WHEREAS, it further appears that at the aforementioned college and place there are now being committed acts of violence and threats of violence, and there is now being manifested a common disregard for law, and

WHEREAS, the aforementioned disorders are of such a general nature that they constitute a danger to the persons and property of the citizens and those residing in and near Voorhees College and threaten the peace and tranquility of the State, NOW, THEREFORE,

PURSUANT TO THE CONSTITUTION, STATUTES, AND LAWS OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, and upon a written request from the Trustees of Voorhees College, which request is dated on or about April 29, 1969, and in order to minimize the danger of life, limb, and property, I do hereby authorize, order, and direct:

1. That any and all law enforcement officers of the State and its subdivisions and all other persons in authority do whatever may be necessary to maintain peace and good order within the area hereinbefore described until a state of emergency is declared by me no longer to exist;

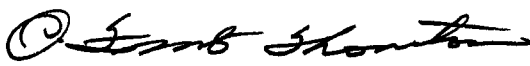

2. That upon the demand of either the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, the President of Voorhees College, or the Sheriff of Bamberg County, to vacate any building located in and upon the campus of Voorhees College or any building within one-half (1/2) mile radius of the latter's campus boundaries any person must, within thirty (30) minutes from the giving of such order, vacate the building designated by the demand; and

3. That the Chief of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, J. P. Strom, is hereby authorized to issue any such directive and order as he may deem necessary to implement this Order and Proclamation.

Columbia, South Carolina

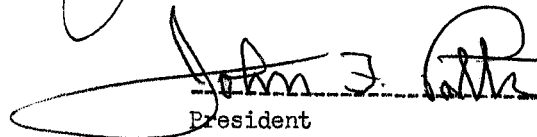

Your Excellency:

Pursuant to our conversation of this date, we are requesting your assistance. As you are aware, a group of armed dissident students and non-students have seized the Voorhees College administrative offices and library. In the interest of preventing possible bloodshed and destruction of property, assistance is requested in evicting and arresting the occupants of the administrative offices and library.

It is recognized that this problem is not a State problem but the situation is beyond our control, and the assistance of the State is necessary in regaining possession of College property.

Yours very respectfully,

Chairman, Board of Trustees

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. _____

WHEREAS, the statutory law of this State provides that whenever it should appear that a sufficient number of the Board of Intendents and Wardens of any town to constitute a quorum shall be prevented from discharging their duties and functions by reason of death, resignation, or other disabilities, the Governor shall order an election for Intendent and Wardens of such town and appoint all officers necessary for the holding and declaring of such election, and that such officers shall proceed to discharge their respective duties in the same manner and with the same effect as though they had been appointed by the municipal authorities, and

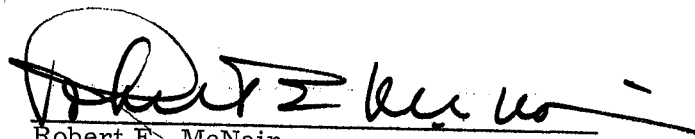

WHEREAS, the statutory law further provides that the officers of any town of this State of not more than 1,000 inhabitants shall be an Intendent and four Wardens who shall be citizens of the United States and shall have been residents of their respective towns for four months immediately preceding their election, that such officers shall be elected annually and at such place in their town as the Intendents and Wardens shall designate, ten days public notice being previously given, and that they shall hold their office for a term of one year and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified, and

WHEREAS, the Town of Snellings in Barnwell County has been an inactive municipal corporation for several years and that the Governor has now been requested to order an election in the manner provided by law,

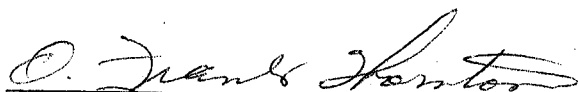

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of South Carolina, I do hereby order an election for the offices of Intendent and Wardens of the Town of Snellings in the County of Barnwell, State of South Carolina, said election to be held at a time to be fixed by the Commissioners of Election hereinafter named upon their giving the statutory notices of the election and I do hereby appoint Mrs. Mary S. Sanders, Mrs. Mary Moore and Bobby O. Morris as Commissioners of Election to do all things necessary or required of them in regard thereto, and to make expeditiously a report to me and to the Secretary of State of South Carolina.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, we are confronted with the undeniably dangerous fact that a potential enemy of this country has the capability of launching an attack with powerful weapons that would cause unprecedented destruction in South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, plans, policies and operational procedures have been developed at the request of the Federal Government to manage resources and stabilize the State's economy for a temporary period in the event of a National emergency when the Federal Government would be unable to administer such programs on a National level; and

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Code of Laws - Emergency Provisions and Emergency Measures and the South Carolina State Civil Defense Act, as amended, confer upon the Governor comprehensive emergency powers to be exercised in providing for the common defense, mobilization, conservation, distribution of essential resources, materials, land, manpower, industry and facilities; to establish a system of economic controls over all resources; to protect the public peace, health, and safety; and to preserve the lives and property of the people of the State; and

WHEREAS, the application of these emergency powers requires extensive pre-planning and firm assignment of responsibilities be made prior to an emergency to insure smooth and understandable transition from normal to emergency governmental operation; and

WHEREAS, due to the closely allied functions at the State level of operation, it is impractical to separate the functions delegated at the National level to the Office of Civil Defense and the Office of Emergency Preparedness.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the State Office of Emergency Preparedness be created within the State Civil Defense Agency to supervise and coordinate all peacetime preparations for policies, plans and operational procedures for emergency resources management and economic stabilization for which the State will be responsible during a National emergency. During a National emergency, the State Office of Emergency Preparedness will be redesignated the Office of Resource Management and Economic Stabilization; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the State Director of Civil Defense shall be designated the Emergency Preparedness Director. During a National emergency, the Emergency Preparedness Director will become the Director of the Office of Resource Management and Economic Stabilization. The duties of the Director shall be to act as principal assistant and advisor to the Governor on Emergency Resource Management and Economic Stabilization activities under the jurisdiction of the State and its political subdivisions, and in this capacity, he shall act on behalf of the Governor, as required, in coordinating Emergency Resource Management and Economic Stabilization activities of the executive departments and organizations of the State government. Every officer and organization of the State government given emergency resource management or economic stabilization functions by this order or by subsequent orders shall perform the said functions subject to the coordination and guidance of the Director of Resource Management and Economic Stabilization and in accordance with State and National policies; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Director of Resource Management and Economic Stabilization be delegated management authority over the resources under the jurisdictional control of the State; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a Deputy Director be appointed by the Director. The Deputy Director will be a member of the permanent staff of the South Carolina Civil Defense Agency.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the following resource agencies be created within the State agency, authority, Board, department or commission shown below and assigned emergency resource management and economic stabilization functions with respect to resources under the jurisdictional control of the State, with the head of each State agency, authority, board, department or commission designated as Director of the assigned resource agency;

2. Price Stabilization
3. Rent Stabilization
4. Money, Credit and Banking
5. Wage and Salary

and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Directors of the Agencies listed above, under the supervision of the Emergency Preparedness Director, shall review developed plans, advise on and administer policies, measures, and activities required to protect, conserve and provide for the distribution and effective use of resources available. They will also maintain a continuing surveillance over the current essential supply and expected emergency needs for such resources, coordinating their activities with the Federal Agencies; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a Resource Priorities Board be created. The Director of Resource Management and Economic Stabilization will be Chairman of this Board which will be composed of Directors of all Resource Agencies listed above; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Resource Priorities Board shall advise the Governor on policies and problems concerning the management of resources available to the State. It will also advise on the resolution of conflicting claims for scarce resources; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Director of Resource Management and Economic Stabilization with the approval of the Governor, is vested with the authority to appoint additional members to the Resources Priorities Board from government, industry, business, labor, commerce or others; and

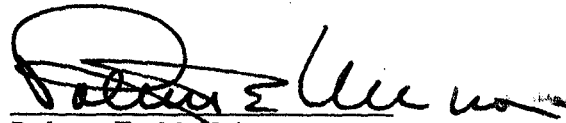

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Director of Resource Management and Economic Stabilization is delegated authority to designate associate agencies from established State Departments to provide administrative and logistical support, and personnel for State resource management and economic stabilization activities; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Office of Emergency Preparedness be activated at this time; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Resource Agencies and the Resource Priorities Board created by this Executive Order will not be activated until the State of South Carolina Plan for Emergency Management of Resources is implemented or notification to activate the Resources Agencies and the Resource Priorities Board is issued by the Governor; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Executive Order No. 9, dated July 2, 1964, which created the Emergency Resource Planning Committee is hereby rescinded and is replaced by this Executive Order.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, the State of South Carolina and its political subdivisions face increasingly complex problems and opportunities which require that maximum and effective use be made of all available resources; and

WHEREAS, the Community Planning Division was established in 1965 as a part of the State Development Board for the purpose of assisting the State's localities prepare plans and programs to guide their future development and to administer the local planning assistance program authorized by Section 701 of the Housing Act of 1954, as amended; and

WHEREAS, the State Planning and Grants Division was created by Executive Order 19 in 1967 to help coordinate the State Government's involvement in Federal aid programs, to assist State agencies in the preparation of plans and programs designed to guide their respective activities and to administer programs assigned to it; and

WHEREAS, the resources and the capabilities of these two Divisions can serve the growing demands of State agencies and local instrumentalities more effectively and efficiently as a single organizational and administrative unit;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Constitution and Laws of this State, I hereby order that, effective July 1, 1969, the Community Planning Division of the State Development Board be transferred to the State Planning and Grants Division of the Office of the Governor. The assets and liabilities of the Community Planning Division and responsibilities assigned to it previously shall be transferred to and devolve upon the State Planning and Grants Division.

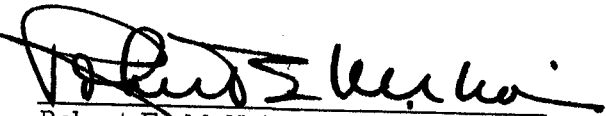

Pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order 19, dated March 29, 1967, and this Executive Order, the State Planning and Grants Division shall:

- (1) provide planning, information and other technical assistance services to the several State agencies in the preparation and implementation of such plans and programs as are necessary to guide current and projected activities and relate them properly to the overall policies, plans and programs of the State Government and of other governmental and private instrumentalities;
- (2) provide planning, information and other technical assistance services to the State's local governments and their instrumentalities;

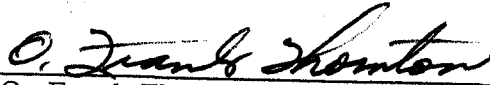

- (3) monitor and coordinate the State Government's participation in the several Federal aid programs to help insure that such participation is in accord with the State's overall development policies, plans and programs; and
- (4) administer such programs and undertake such special studies and responsibilities as may be assigned from time to time.

In order to discharge its responsibilities, the Division is authorized to accept and expend funds from State, Federal and other public and private sources. Within the limits of available resources, the Division may employ such staff and consultants as may be required. The Division may enter into contracts or other agreements with State, Federal and other public and private organizations in the performance of its responsibilities.
