I'm still waiting to hear when and where this thing will actually be. They sent out a document they called an agenda a week or so ago...the email said August 2nd, and then the attached Word doc said August 3rd. Neither had a time or location on it. They keep booking events without showing any flexibility for our schedules.

My Thursday and Friday schedules are both pretty bad, but I can potentially do a bit of shuffling, depending on what they're trying to accomplish and when. I probably can't be open on Thursday before about 10:30. Friday, I'd be open first thing, but then I have a 10AM meeting I can't move.

Are you participating? Lyons called and wanted me to ask you if you would open up the meeting and create a sense of urgency. You up for that?
