Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, throughout history, Turkish immigrants have traveled to America seeking freedom and opportunity; and

WHEREAS, Americans of Turkish descent have played a significant role in the educational, cultural, economic, and civic development of communities throughout our state and nation; and

WHEREAS, first celebrated in Turkey in 1923, Children's Day helps promote the welfare of children through various festivities and programs; and

WHEREAS, Turkish Heritage and Children's Day celebrates the contributions of Turkish Americans and recognizes the role of children as tomorrow's leaders.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 23, 2015, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to honor Turkish Americans in the Palmetto State for their many contributions to our economy, culture, and history.

TURKISH HERITAGE AND CHILDREN'S DAY
