Subject: Fwd: FD: STRIKING CLARITY and A THOUGHT TO CONSIDER

Friends,

This is a well thought out reply to my earlier email that I wanted to share with you. It represents how an increasing number of Americans view the Muslim religion in America. It also represents the direction America might take if Muslims here do not take responsibility for addressing their radical leadership.

As noted both of these emails represent A Thought To Consider. Merry Christmas. ED

Ed,

As a Christian and an American, I have a real problem with the so-called "religion of peace." Political-correctness pushed by the leftist mainstream media is helping Obama and his Islamic-loving ilk to "fundamentally transform" America's traditional melting pot into a multicultural cesspool of hyphenated citizenry, if not a caliphate. In concert with the UN, the US State Department is spending more than a billion of our tax dollars to "resettle" hundreds-of-thousands of Muslims in communities across America that are ill-equipped to accommodate them, if not unwilling. Called the Hijrah, it is the Islamification of our nation and the world. This is why Saudi Arabia is building hundreds of mosques throughout the United States. Trump and his supporters know that importing people into the US whose beliefs will never allow them to embrace the nation's cultural core values, and who will work to dismantle America from within, are not the kind of people American citizens want in their home towns. Like it or not, and despite how the leftists kicked God out of the classroom in the 1960s, and how the revisionists are perverting our public school curricula, the United States of America is a Christian nation founded upon Biblical principles. Those adamantly opposed to this indisputable fact are free to live in another country. The religious freedom the Puritans and other groups sought in the New World was based entirely upon the Bible, not the Quran or any other "holy" book. The first book the US Congress published and distributed to schools throughout its new nation was the Holy Bible. Islam has no history or heritage in the United States. How many mosques were at the center of every Middlesex village and town in Colonial America? How many Muslims signed the Declaration of Independence, the U. S. Constitution and shed their blood at Lexington Green and on Bunker Hill? How many Muslims died on the decks of the USS Constitution, fought in the fields of Gettysburg and at Chateau-Thierry? How many Muslims stormed the beaches of Normandy and Iwo Jima? How many Muslim grave markers are there in Arlington Cemetery? We commit cultural suicide by allowing this apocryphal belief system to infect our Judeo-Christian nation. Every day in the US, Muslims religiously bow their allegiance to Mecca

(Saudi Arabia), not to America. The last thing I want to hear the first thing in the morning in my home town is some unAmerican rag-head in a tower caterwauling about a god whose so-called "messenger" is a pedophile – a "prophet" who missed the Last Supper by more than 600 years. An intolerant theocracy ruled by Sharia Law, Islam does not assimilate into cultures, it replaces them. Rest assured, once Muslims have sufficient numbers to be a majority, they will destroy the American way of life. Every effort should be made to keep Islam and its "true believers" in the sandbox Allah provided for them.

Merry Christmas!
