Austin:

Attached, please find a memo from Dr. Erica Von Nesson regarding 2015 Unemployment Insurance Tax Rates.

Please let me know if we should schedule a call or meeting to discuss the memo.

Tax rates are currently scheduled to be mailed to employers on November 1, 2014.

Last year was the first year DEW mailed rate notices this early, but came as a specific request from the business community.

Let me know if you need anything.

Thanks!

Darrell

Darrell,

The numbers in the attached memo are what we provided to DOL for their review. If you would like Nicole's email, I can get her to forward you a copy. Just let me know what you need!

Bottom line for 2015 (vs. 2014):

$223 million for benefits ($290 million)

$180 million for final loan payoff ($170 million)

$0 for interest ($25 million)

~$21 billion for taxable wages (~$19 billion)

Thanks,

Erica
