Subject: Social Security Celebrates African American History Month

Dear Colleague:

February is African American History Month. As we celebrate the rich tapestry of African American culture, we would like to take a moment to remind everyone of the importance of Social Security to the African American community. To learn more about how Social Security benefits African Americans, visit our African American webpage.

We encourage you to post, like, share, and retweet the information below on Facebook and Twitter.

We appreciate your continued interest and support! For additional information about national African American outreach at Social Security, please contact Tangelia D. Richardson at Tangelia.Richardson@ssa.gov, or by phone at (410) 966-4637.

Sincerely,

Maria Artista-Cuchna
Acting Associate Commissioner
for External Affairs
