<SUBJECT>Getting rid of the Confederate flag</SUBJECT>
<MSG>

As a resident of another state, I can't vote for you, but please accept my compliments and gratitude for biting the bullet and ordering the Confederate flag to be taken down, as has been reported in this afternoon's news.

That flag is and has been an abomination symbolizing racial discrimination, hate, and a refusal to embrace equality, which is the principle on which our republic stands.

Clearly you are defying the reactionary forces in S.C. politics, and there may be some blowback. But stand fast. Don't go wobbly. Give as good as you get. In the end, you shall prevail. and in the process help burnish the international image of the U.S. being the bastion of democracy its founders intended (even though some of them were slave owners).

You are endeavoring to bring S.C. into the 21st Century. Apart from your performance as governor, seeing this through shall surely secure your place in the political history of the United States. The bitter-enders have held sway too long already. Given S.C.'s sad history in this regard, it may turn out to be the belwether state that finally completed the civilizing of the South.

Gov. Haley,

I voted for you both times you ran for Governor. I have been outspoken about your policies and your leadership. It is reported that you plan to ask for the removal of the Confederate Flag. My question is why, how did this symbol of my Southern Heritage cause the horrible shooting in Charleston? These murders were the doing of a deranged person and no gun laws or the flag's removal would have stopped him.

I ask that you DO NOT ask for it's removal. If you do, you will no longer have my respect or support.

Thank you,

Jerry [REDACTED]

Do not take down the flag, leave it to the voters to decide! How many concessions are you going to make for the blacks. Street names and monuments will be next. Your family has no heritage here, mine does! You will be a big disappointment to me by giving in to political pressure. I will surely regret voting for you twice if you do this. The flag killed no one, a deranged individual did. The statue of Ben Tillman will be next. you make me sick!

Please consider using the flag team from state national guard, a boy scout troop or confederate re-en-actors to properly retire the confederate battle flag and present it to the director of state historical society or state museum. I think this would show the proper respect to your citizens and all families who lost loved ones during the civil war.

I think it is time to address the real issue. It is time to stop doing things that do not even matter. It is time to stand up for our freedom. If you can burn and stomp on the American flag and call it free speech then it should be ok to fly a flag that was part of our history good or bad.

Gov Haley, I voted for you, respected you and even told friends in India what a great person you are (were). You have caved in the the hate groups, demanding the Confederate Flag be taken down. How dare you? You think you can change history? These bigoted jerks who demanded this, (and YES,they ARE the bigots) have never even been to Africa. Most of them most likely have no idea that that Africans rounded up their own people and sold them as slaves...and now YOU, our once strong. beautiful Indian Governor are now as ugly and bigoted as the idiots you bowed down to. This flag was fought for by both blacks and whites. Not ONE race but BOTH. Go ahead and bow.....my allegiance is to God who KNOWS the truth. I will leave SC as soon as I can sell my home and hope to never return. You showed your true color today....YELLOW!

VERY angry, disappointed, and hurt resident. One more thing, I will buy as many Confederate flags as I can afford and place them in every park and every lakefront I come to.

Governor Haley,

As I began writing this email my message had to change abruptly. I was going to request you consider leading the charge for removing the "southern" flag from all state properties but, as usual, you were one step ahead. Instead, I want to thank you for once again leading our state in a way that I can be proud of. As a white male born and raised in the south, and I might add, one that is extremely conservative focused on individual rights. I may not be the typical supporter of this idea. With that said, the time has come and it is in all our best interests to move forward. Removing the flag won't prevent another tragic event anymore than it will fix the one that already occurred but it is still the right thing to do. You will probably never read this email but my hope is that you will at least be told that myself and many like me say, Thank you. Thank you for leading with courage and a heart of compassion.

Sincerely,

Jeff [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, I went to your Facebook page to see your speech on the issue of the Confederate flag. I was disappointed to read all the vitriol and negative comments to your call to remove the flag from the Statehouse grounds. I want to let you know that I think you have taken the right position. I know it is an unpopular position with many of the people in this state. I commend your courage and support you in this position.

Governor Haley,

My ancestors fought bravely and with honor for freedom, and not slavery, under the Confederate Flag. I resent us being discriminated against by those who believe a lie. Please don't stand for a lie, but uphold the truth. South Carolina should be proud to fly the Confederate Flag of freedom. I am glad that South Carolina stood for the right of secession.

Congratulations to Gov. Haley for her stance on the removal of the Confederate flag from the Capital grounds. Five or ten years ago I would not have felt this way but, the hate mongers and far right wing zealots have "hijacked" the once proud flag and turned it into a hate symbol. I am a white, southern, Republican. American and I fully support Gov. Haley.

Thank you.

 <MSG>

Governor Haley,

I am writing you from my office in North Carolina to ask you to reconsider the removal of the Confederate flag from the South Carolina State House. I am the son of a Black father and a German mother, but I was adopted by an all black family at a very early age. I understand the cruel and racially charged wrongs that were perpetrated against blacks during slavery, segregation and during the civil rights movement were wrong, sometimes just plain evil. However, the Confederate flag represents the courage and conviction of the 110,070 Confederate Soldier's who died in battle defending the culture, values and beliefs of the South. John F. Harris a freed slave and representative of the South Carolina legislature found it important enough to get out of his sick bed and address the representatives of South Carolina on behalf of erecting a statue honoring the Confederate Soldiers who fought for the rights of the South.

Governor Haley, I understand you have to make tough decisions everyday, and I pray God's grace mercy and guidance upon you and your office, but depriving one group of their heritage to approve of another's is just simply not right. If you do this, then prejudice and bigotry wins, just from the other side of the aisle. Everyone is entitled to their heritage.

Blessings,

Michael [REDACTED]

I hope you enjoyed your 2 terms in our great state for I feel and hope everyone else feels as I do. We have bent over backwards to appease and have only gotten worse with race relations. Look around crime rate, welfare and unfair treatment to more qualified workers. When does it end? Take the flag down and see if improvements are made. The more you give the more they want. That Flag has hurt no one. It is our History and our Heritage.

I adamantly disagree with removing the Confederate Flag. It is a symbol of Southern Independence and now represents all the lives lost. " Nearly as many men died in captivity during the Civil War as were killed in the whole of the Vietnam War. Hundreds of thousands died of disease. Roughly 2% of the population, an estimated 620,000 men, lost their lives in the line of duty."

It's not about slavery it's about not wanting to be controlled by the wealthy North and not being adequately represented.

Stop the ignorance about the flag instead of insulting all the Southerners that died/lost loved ones.

I can't believe what I just heard. How the Confederate Flag is offensive to some so we have to take it down. What about the American Flag over the Capital. No where does the Capital reflect the Constitution or the flag and it sure as hell is offensive to the President. Do we need to take it down and replace it with a Light Blue ONE UN STAR?

It was made to show something that has been twisted by groups st serve their own purposes. Stars and Bars. States in the south that DID NOT ACCEPT FEDERAL MANDATES (It was nothing about slavery) shoved down their throats. If someone can't see this now, they are already dead. What about Rainbows now? What did they first represent? " Unto whom that is profane are all things profane".

A flag represents an Identity. It is what we rally around in times of crisis.

Why do you think that Stars and Bars is being attacked? It has a unique identity, and with an Identity - you have rights. Well we can't have that can we?

Having been loyal supporters of yours throughout the last elections, we are terribly disappointed in your stand against our beloved confederate flag. My relatives lost lives fighting for states rights and the confederate cause. States rights is what this war was about. Just goes to show that the black leaders and state representatives cannot be trusted to be honorable in keeping their word regarding the flag's home by the confederate memorial. Can't trust you now. It will never be left alone until all are gone along with the confederate memorial. We promise to work really hard to see that you will never get elected to another public office. I'm ashamed to call you governor.

We must move past that era. Thank you for having the courage to do this. If you ever run for President, you have my vote. You are awesome.

While you "blame it on the white man" racist pigs are busily removing the Confederate flag from the state house because it "represents slavery", why don't you remove the American flag along with it? To this very important ethnic minority, NATIVE AMERICANS, of whom some are my Southern ancestors, it represents racial genocide! If you're going to be a racist, at least be fair about it!

Jim [REDACTED] owner [REDACTED] SC 29687 [REDACTED] June 25, 2015 The Honorable Nikki R. Haley Governor of South Carolina 1205 Pendleton Street Columbia, SC 29201 Dear Governor Haley: Regarding the Confederate Battle Flag, The flag is a symbol of our state history and should be left alone. It should be left up to the citizens to decide if the Confederate flag should be removed. I also think States Rights is as serious an issue today as it has ever been. For our governor and lawmakers to bow to pressures outside our state, whether businesses, special interest groups, or federal politicians, is to relinquish their good and entrusted duty to parties who do not represent us. Any of our elected officials who will listen to forces outside South Carolina over their electorate deserve to be removed from office by their voters who can end their non-representative career as South Carolinians did Mr Inglis. A proud member of National Write Your Congressman. Sincerely, Jim [REDACTED] 864-[REDACTED] owner [REDACTED]

I'm ashamed to admit I voted for Nikki Haley. She obviously doesn't remember what happened to David Beasley's political career when he made a call to take down our flag.

She learned nothing from the way Charleston came together. Is she caving in to the multibillion dollar civil rights industry, or is she just upset she didn't have a chance to handle a Baltimore or Ferguson crisis? We came together, and now she's doing her best to have us at each others throats!

We will NOT blame black Southerners for this outrage! We will NOT allow turncoat Nikki Haley to turn Southerner against Southerner! This is all on Haley! She had better be prepared to see a lot of flags on statehouse grounds, carried by a lot of people, for a long time to come!

I wanted to send this email to Governor Haley because after watching her speech today on TV about removing the Confederate flag from the state ground I was so moved I was in tears. The leadership and the speech she gave today is second to none. I can't remember the last time I saw a leader in politics that was truly genuine from the heart giving that speech with the bipartisanship. It was very touching and I was very proud of my country. This might be in South Carolina but, the world is watching. Dear Governor Haley:

I saw today that you are asking that the Confederate Flag be taken down over the State capital. I want to thank you for taking that stand, especially in the wake of the senseless murder of those nine innocent people. It is very hard to understand what drives someone to do something so violent to people who did nothing to him. They obviously stood for something he wanted to lash out against in his mixed up angry state. There are events daily in the news so hard to comprehend and this one is truly one of the most difficult for me. Each of us have to ask ourselves what we can do to promote connectedness, not divisiveness, healing not hurt. You have made important choices with your immediate support for the people of Charleston and now for your wonderful state of South Carolina. My Uncle lives in Mt. Pleasant and I was fortunate to visit him and your beautiful city of Charleston a few years ago. It was a wonderful experience and an impressive historic city. It saddened me so to hear of this tragic event. I am not a Republican, nor a conservative, but I can appreciate and support any actions to reduce racial divides and promote respect and community. You have responded so sensitively and caringly to your constituents who have been deeply affected along with the rest of the country by this hate crime. Thank you for your actions.

Look, nikki, stay there, boot mark. Plus, remember, mark's gag, julie shelton in inman tried to commit suicide, it is so hard to live with cannibals of the outback! So, of the confederacy flag, raised by the goade shelton boys always defended here, honesty is the best policy. Instead of the Confederate flag, per land grabbing clients here. be honest. Let the old south shalt rise again, nitwits raise their hometown flag there, from Brisbane to toowoomba, longest standing sheltons, all from toowooba, to brisbane. Honesty and decency, transparency, mark: boat people without a country, must not use identities of citizens here.

 Governor,

If you feel this way about the Confederate battle flag then first put this to a statewide referendum vote to me and every other registered SC voter. Then and only then bring it to the legislature for a vote. Nikki sadly you appear to be taking advantage of this ploy for your potential political gain. Sad. I think it will back fire on you. Why the rush? It starts with a statewide referendum. You should have bucked up to the pressure put on you here. Instead you caved.

To keep this simple, I have no way to be prouder of my Governor. The speech which I watched on Fox News via the Neil Cavuto slot was simply inspiring, thoughtful and totally on point. While I have not lived in my hometown of Charleston since 1969, the events totally crystallized for me that the Confederate Flag MUST be retired to the museum. Your leadership and courage will make this happen. I would go so far as to say if the legislative body is unable to make this happen, then DON'T PAY THEM ANOTHER DIME!

God Bless you and yours,

Mrs. Jo Ann [REDACTED]

I was VERY disappointed to see on the news that your office was going to recommend the flag be removed. How very sad. I have great great grandfathers who fought in the war and died. Its like saying it was all for nothing. It's not about slavery. It was about protecting our state. SC wasn't burned by confederates.. but they did fight against who did. Funny how we forget ALL of the history associated with that time. It's not a black and white issue. Many blacks fought in the war as well. My family are sons and daughter of confederate veterans. How sad it would be to see that part of our history to disappear. WHAT WILL BE NEXT?

I am really surprised you, Gov. Haley, would allow our state to be HI-JACKED
BY REMOVING the Flag from the Statehouse grounds which is part of our history. When will our state start protecting SC and our history.

We have family members who died in that war.

I heard on TV today that now they want to remove our American Flag. When does this end??? They even want to make it illegal to be a Christian.

It will NEVER end if they continue to get what they want at the expense of Patriot Legal American citizens.

Thank you for reading my letter.

I just want to drop a short note to thank you for any effort you can make to take the flag down. Even though American's from the south fought and died, they did so for a immoral reason. So, it's way past time to remove that from any governmental building. It deserves NO respect. Thank you. I am white (French) so I'm not just saying this because I'm black.

Ms. Haley, you have just lost my respect and probably my vote. Removing a piece of cloth from a flagpole will not change the evil in people's hearts. It is just an empty symbolic gesture on your part that will end up causing even more division. The Confederate flag does not represent slavery or racism, for God's sake it's 2015 not 1865. What it does represent is freedom from federal tyranny. That is what it represented in 1865 and still does today. You call yourself a conservative but bow to the will of the liberals and their race-baiting allies. I am ashamed of you and your actions.

Gov. Haley, I disagree with your call for the removal of the Confederate Battle Flag from the State Flag of South Carolina. This is a political reaction on your part and disappoints me a minister. We need to deal with the real problems in your state and the nation. If you really want change, support a constitutional amendment returning prayer to the classroom. The battle flag issue should not have entered into the picture.

The Confederate flag should be left up to honor those who died in the worst war our nation has ever seen. My ancestors died for that flag and removing that flag disrespects those who fought in the war and disrespects their descendants. That war was fought for STATES RIGHTS. Because the federal government, much like today, was overreaching it's bounds according to the Constitution. And here today, because the TRUE REASON THE CIVIL WAR was fought is not taught, only the part that fits the agenda is taught, we are facing the same problem, but different issues. People have forgotten, it is the STATES and the PEOPLE who run the government, not the other way around. By removing history, you allow our country to forget who we are.

I was very disappointed to see that you succumbed to the agenda to remove the flag from the state house grounds. I thought you were made of stronger stuff, and could withstand national pressure, but this has made it very clear to me that even you cannot withstand the pervasive agenda of political correctness.

I have voted for you and supported you-even the gas tax hike,(despite my better judgement), but I have to say that after today you have received your final vote from me for any office you run for in the future.

Respectfully,

Thank for dealing with the volatile issue of removing the Confederate flag from the Statehouse grounds in such a wise and sensitive manner. As a historical artifact that represents such a brutal and tragic past, it was time to put it in a museum for somber reflection by visitors who choose to view it. As a native Southerner and History teacher, I thank you so much.

Very disappointed that you chose to remove a symbol of the South, a symbol of the sacrifice of multiple thousands of Soldiers that fought for a cause that had nothing to do with slavery. You decided yourself to do what the elected Representatives of South Carolina already debated and voted on just a few years ago. You're a disgrace to your office! Tired of your ilk and phony politics. Looks like you've got the crying at notice down pretty well. Pandering to racial activists is your goal? It's evident you have no education of the symbol of the flag. Oh I forgot, you're background is from a country that still worships cows, not God or Country and you have no ties to the roots and traditions of the South. Thought you were better than this and a "real" conservative logical politician but NO! Sad for South Carolina!!! From a Non-Racist, conservative, and disappointed Kentuckian.

Gov. Haley, I used to hold a ton of respect for you as a leader and as a governor of a great state that stood up for its history and its heritage. In today's decision to score political points with a small but very vocal minority or to bow to political pressure from same, however you look at it, you sadly proved that you're no better than any other politician out there. You know that that flag had ZERO to do with what happened in Charleston. Please re-think this decision, and be the stand up leader so many of us have always thought you to be.

Best Regards,

Dear Governor,

I would like to say thank you for initiating the retiring the Confederate Battle Flag from the capital grounds. It's about time. My ancestors have been here since the early 1700's. My family has fought in about every war this country has been engaged in. I am glad we are moving forward. It is time to come together and relies we are all Americans. Yes I would have fought to defend my state against the aggression of the federal government. I am also glad that the Civil War turn out the way it did. We are a great nation of all people. We are a great state of all people. Everybody should feel comfortable when visiting the capital grounds. I hope everyone understands that. Thank you again.

I completely support removing the Confederate battle flag from the State House grounds. I am a 67-year-old life-long South Carolinian.

Governor Haley, thank you for not being afraid to show emotion when first responding to the shooting at the Charleston church. For some reason, that helped me a bit. I am so very proud of the way our state and the people of Charleston have responded to this evil act and I am so, so impressed with the families of those slain.

Thank you, Governor. This is a courageous, praiseworthy act, and long overdue. The flag had morphed from a symbol of honor for those who fought for the South, and more a national symbol of racism and intolerance. I applaud your action equally as much as I deplore the timidity of Huckabee, Walker, and several others who didn't have the fortitude to speak up for sanity and tolerance.

You did the right thing, and did it at the right time. Congratulations.

<MSG>

Congratulations Gov. Haley! You have put S. Carolina on the modern Freedom path! 1st, My condolences to the victims' families and to you and S.C. citizens for the horror you have experienced with the 9 church members. Both you and Charleston's mayor expressed your feelings so eloquently. I should think that African Americans in this country would have felt your sincere expressions of grief. In your sadness, you showed STRENGTH, not phony platitudes.

You are soon, today, about to announce, hopefully, that the Confederate flag will be removed. Being white, myself, I can only imagine how black citizens--students, workers, etc. must feel EVERY DAY they walk or drive past the capital. It must ALWAYS 'remind', even the most confident, or well-educated black individual that they are not quite on the par of white citizens...just keeping them smacked down a peg.

I heard Sen. Lindsey tap dancing around this issue a few days ago. Thank you, Madame Governor for not doing so.

Best regards!

Sandy [REDACTED]

 <SUBJECT>Look to R E Lee for help re: Heritage/History objections to the flag change part 1</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

I've done some research and have about 4500 showing we can look to our own History/Heritage to support retiring the Confederate flag. Here are 2 quotes from Robert E Lee

"I think it wiser moreover not to keep open the sores of war, but to follow the examples of those nations who endeavored to obliterate the marks of civil strife and to commit to oblivion the feelings it engendered," (2)
AND:

"...The duty of its citizens, then, appears to me too plain to be doubted *. All should unite in honest efforts to obliterate the effects of the war and to restore the blessing of peace. They should remain, if possible, in the country; promote harmony and good feeling, qualify themselves to vote and elect to the State and general legislatures wise and patriotic ~men~ who will devote their abilities to the interests of the country and the healing of all dissensions. I have invariably recommended this course since the cessation of hostilities, and have endeavored * to practice* it myself...." (3)

I've got more in an essay that could help mollify those like me who see the old flags as "history/heritage and not hate" which could help them see why Lee would vote to retire these old flags now. call 404 [REDACTED] for more and the reference links.

Dear Governor Halley,

While I am not a resident of South Carolina. I believe the recent incident at the AME Church was awful. However, due to political pressure, you have called for the removal of the Southern Battle flag. I am disappointed that you would bow to such pressure. I look forward to the general Assembly defeating your proposal and subsequent last term in office. As a son of Confederate Veterans, US Army Veteran, History Teacher, and father, I look forward to my Southern neighbors to the North taking a stand against progressive politics, tepid conservatives such as yourself and Mitt given the swift heal of a real history lesson. Do not have my vote for president in the future.

Regards,

Keith [REDACTED]

So why are you calling for the removal of the flag? You just woke up the people that helped put you in office and now you stab us in the back. The flag needs to be left alone. It is not the fault of the flag that this boy killed people, that is what your ACTIONS say. And it will be remembered that you turned your back on those of us that helped you get elected. That action is reprehensible.

I applaud this statement of yours that I read online just now: "That flag, while an integral part of the past, does not represent the future of our great state." I was born in Gaffney in 1936 and grew up in Sumter until leaving South Carolina in 1959. This is the first time in my life that I can say, "I feel immense pride in South Carolina." I congratulate you for taking this stand. The coming months will likely be difficult but I do hope that you hold onto this statement of purpose.

Most sincerely,

Elizabeth [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley:

As a long time ardent admirer and supporter of you and your policies; I was shocked to see you supporting lowering the Confederate battle Flag on the Capitol grounds. I am sure you are aware that tens of thousands of your citizens answered your State's call for aid; and between 18-20,000 of them paid with their lives. Many thousand more returned home crippled for life, and with their homes, businesses, and fortunes gone. They did not turn their backs on South Carolina, it's people, or their Government when asked to serve. Now you are turning your back on them. I for one, along with my family, will never ever vacation, or do business with entities of your State again if this goes through. I will not support a basically "treasonous" position; and ask you to please reconsider.

Sincerely-

Gordon D. [REDACTED] (a PROUD Confederate descendent)

Dear Governor Haley,

How did we reach this awful time? Who will be courageous enough to stand up and acknowledge this issue and take steps to fix it?

The Confederate flag needs to be moved from the front lawn of the State House. Remove it completely. There is already a monument to the Confederate dead of South Carolina. Politically wrong or right, they fought and died in the service to our state and should be remembered. But not with that flag. Not with a flowing symbol that causes so much divisiveness among so many citizens of South Carolina. There are those who will argue its mere presence in such a prominent place at Main and Gervais gives the hate-filled radicals implicit acceptance and justification by our government.

I love America and I love South Carolina. I am devastated by what unfolded in Charleston. One of my students lost her father and I lost a Sorority Sister. When time has passed and the raw grief begins to subside, change must happen. I'm standing on the side of love, compassion, acceptance, and faith. I am hoping you will stand with myself and so many others who know that is time for the flag to come down. #IStandWithCharleston #TakeItDownSC

Respectfully,

Dr. Robin [REDACTED]

Ms. Haley,

Unfortunately you have fallen prey to political correctness.
 If Offensive is the measure, what is the limit to which anyone will go to revise history, decide what the facts are and use any excuse to get their way.

You have now lost my current and future support for any of your initiatives, future political office and frankly anything that has to do with this state since you can not be trusted to do what the people (who have supported you and elected you to office) elected you to do- Govern.

Do you really believe that removing the flag will change anything or satisfy the "offended".
 It won't stop here.

What a shame and sham it is that you chose to side with the revisionist progressive left and the detractors of SC and South Carolinians.

I am embarrassed by you and the fact I voted for you...twice.

By the way - your form is offensive/ discriminatory - it requires a Prefix.

Governor Haley

I respectfully ask that you do not remove the Confederate Flag from its display in Columbia. I see it as a part of South Carolina's history. Some people may not be proud of it and may see it as something other than what it is. but it is history done the less.

Respectfully,

I think it is very poor policy to cave in to the Liberal Media regarding the Confederate Flag. The New Your Times and the rest of the Liberal media always uses Tragedy to advance thier Liberal agenda. Do what you want. but As far as I am concerned if you cave in to these jerk Liberal media clowns, you just encourage them to keep on trying to take away the freedom of every one who, they think might disagree with them, at any time for any reason. I am certain that they all think that any one woh disagrees with them on any issue, large or small, should. at the very least be hauled off to the Gualag for re-indoctronation, if not execution. They do not want to execute murderers. But if you dis-agree with them, all bets are off. Nuff said! [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

We moved to South Carolina in March of last year from California. As you know California has a LOT of politicians and most never accomplish anything.

I can't tell you how refreshing it is to have a Governor who stands up and gets things done. Getting rid of that flag is absolutely;y the right thing to do!! Congratulations!!!

I'm actually registered as a Democrat but I will support you anyway that I can.

Thank you for doing the right thing quickly, you are my hero!!!

 Greetings, Gov. Haley ~

Politics a messy blood sport. I really don't have the stomach for it. But since you first ran for the governorship I have admired your tenacity, levelheadedness, and wisdom -- especially since your tenure has endured more than your fair (and much of it unfair)share of challenges.

Today, I believe I should tell you that. Again, I appreciate your courage and forthrightness to call for what is moral, virtuous, and right concerning the existing battle flag. The events in Charleston present a striking contrast: who we are as South Carolinians versus what others want to believe about us. Yes, it's time to take that flag (and any other non-sovereign flag) off of Statehouse grounds.

Thank you -- blessings to you and your family.

Rob

Governor,

We are liberal Monterey Bay, California residents. Please, search your conscience and even if you don't "have the power" to remove the hateful, disrespectful flag from above your state house, do so anyway. Now. You know what the morally right thing to do is. Just do it. Show what true strength looks like. We would actually consider you for higher office if you show the strength to act in the face of pressure from a small (literally and figuratively) racist group of dividers.

My goodness! Don't you realize that you simply do not need to bow, bend and scrape to the way oversensitive politically correct crowd. They need to be pushed to understand that they can't always get their own way.

Who wants them in the state anyway since they are not-very-nice people anyway since they've always got something to whine about.

Be an adult and leave the flag above the memorial where it belongs for goodness sakes.

Dear Governor. I just wanted to let you know how very proud you have made me to be an American citizen! Your speech regarding taking down the confederate flag, and moving the flag to a more suitable environment was inspiring! You should run for President! You are the first politician I have witnessed in along time saying the right thing, and taking action! You have done the right thing, quickly! My family mourns for the taking of human lives in Charleston, and will pray for you and all the citizens of South Carolina. May God bless you and keep you. Tim [REDACTED]

Concerning the removal of the Confederate Flag . You are asking our Country to ignore and change history for the wishes of a minority. If the Black peoples agree to stop their separation tactics, such as "Black Miss America," "Black Caucus", "Black Chamber of Commerce", "Black Television network", and the list continues. Then we, as Americans, would feel more equal about trying to remove a historical icon. I consider myself an American, not Black, not African American, not White American-simply an American! I happen to be Caucasian. The division has been created by the minorities. Why must the majority always have to "give up." sacrifice, and write the checks? Governor, stand up for those of us that have kept our lives to the laws of order and continue to pay, one way or another! Keep the FLAG if they (Blacks) refuse to be "Simply Americans."

Dear Governor Haley,

Removing the Confederate flag would be an insult to our ancestors who fought to defend against an illegal invasion. Inanimate objects (flags and guns) can't be blamed for the actions of a lunatic. In 1991 the NAACP declared war on everything Southern. They were appeased with the removal of the flag from the Capitol building. Now they want it completely removed. These Marxists are never satisfied. Please do not give in to the demands of the anti-Southern, historically ignorant crowd. Everything they say can be easily debunked. It is time to stop slandering and trashing Southern heritage and culture.

Thank you,

you received my vote twice but never again because you are pandering to the public about something that had nothing to do with the horrible tragedy in charleston. What's next? I am offended by the NAACP and any other racist organization in this state but you are ok with their racist behavior

Where are you and the president when blacks do bad things to the whites. Not a word said! What this kid did was evil and horrible but no less horrible than what is done to whites but there are no apologizes or eulogies deploring that because it doesn't fit the presidents racist agenda. Go ahead and jump on their band wagon ride their shirt tails blame it on everything but the real problem that's what you politicians do.

Next time a black does something to a white person I expect to see you on tv making a statement about that but somehow I don't expect to see it because it isn't politacally beneficial to take a stand for whites. That is where the real problem is not enough guts to stand up to the special interest groups but willing to roll right over the rest of us to make yourself look good for the next election. What a wasted vote! Never again!

How can you advocate the removal of the Confederate Battle Flag from its current location? You are just a temporary custodian that apparently does not realize the importance of that flag. Why must you politicians always have a knee-jerk reaction to social problems? Do you really think removal will change things? It will only increase the distrust that citizens have for the current government. The most despised group of politicians are RINOs. Is that what you are?

While I am not a citizen of your State, your actions will have an impact on me as well as others throughout the Country. Are you trying to do this because you are a minority and now it's " your turn"? You are tearing down the very fiber of America!! Signed, William R. I watched your speech on the national news. I was very impressed with your performance, your message, and your decision to remove the Confederate flag from state property and place it in museums and historical sites, which is where it belongs. With the controversy drawing attention, you appropriately reminded the nation that the focus is on the tragic loss of nine lives, and the families in pain. It has been a long time since any politician has earned my respect. You have, and I wanted to congratulate you, and thank you for working to remove the flag.

Sincerely,

Congratulations to you, and the people of South Carolina, on the bipartisan and multiracial initiative to peacefully remove the Confederate battle flag from the grounds of the State Capital in South Carolina, at this time of racial tension. Removing this flag from the capital grounds, 150 years after the end of the war in which it was used, will make South Carolina more welcoming to all people of your state, and our country.

Thank you for your leadership!

this is a part of our history not hatred, yes lives were lost but thats one reason to fly the flag in honor of those lost, just like we fly the American flag for reasons including honoring our soldiers both those still fighting and those lost.

I was disappointed to learn on TV that my governor had yielded to outside pressure to remove a piece of our history from the Capitol grounds. I had in the past admired you for standing firm on your beliefs! Very disappointed in you!

Dr. Governor Haley,

Congratulations on caving to the progressive movement in this country. A crazy 21 year old massacres innocent people and the left makes it about racism. Do you not think white people found the crime as heinous as black people or any other rational human being of any color for that matter? You have merely opened the door for the victim mentality of the left to start their crusade on anything they don't like. Next they will be demanding statues to be removed, school names to be changed, street names to be changed, and anything else they can complain about. Liberals are miserable people and want everyone to share in their misery, like it or not.

I think you have done a great disservice and considerable damage to the reputation of the State of South Carolina by bowing to political pressure from a vocal few.

Respectfully,

Michael [REDACTED]

I cannot believe you want to remove this FLAG. It is a FLAG that many people died fighting for. Much like guns, Flags do not kill people, crazy people kill people! I am sorry you feel a proud symbol of the south needs to be removed just to placate a small percentage of people. You may be the greatest Governor in the country for all I know, but this will more likely then not end your political career. Sad really as people seem to blame everything on objects and not the real cause of problems in this once great country. This action will do nothing more then divide people of different race even more...Pathetic.

Dear Governor Haley,

I applaud your position to remove the old confederate flag. I'm certain there are strong emotions associated with its symbolism of its history, and understand you're likely to take some heat for this position. I applaud your conviction to move a divisive historical artifact to the museum.

All should remember how it goes, "we pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America."

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Thank you for your courageous stand on the issue of removing the Confederate flag from the state capitol grounds.

I am a native Mississippian with over 25 Confederate soldiers in my ancestry. The flag belongs in a museum.

I know you are being heavily criticized from some because of your position. You are doing the right thing.

Dear Governor Haley,

I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Gov. Haley's remarks today in her news conference were PERFECT on this issue. We in America, and in South Carolina, must use this moment to move beyond hate and division. We must use the incredible example of grace and true Christianity of those in Charleston and especially of the Emanuel AME Church to make a leap forward in race relations. This is exactly how to turn against the division inspired by the Obama administration of hate, and to use sensible Christian values to move our American society in the right direction --- of love, tolerance, and equality. THANK YOU Nikki Haley! You made me so proud today to be a South Carolinian. God bless you!

Hi!

I am a fan of your office and think you have brought a sullen SC into the light economically during your tenure. Jobs that are available to all who qualify, for the most part and I hope one day soon all of SC will be middle class. There is a great disparity in voting for African Americans, and for education and jobs as well, but that is easing slowly.

Since the hate shootings at the AME I feel this divide has become much clearer the more press we get.

Anger will be brewing and it is possible for to remedy this, not in fear, but in justice and future peace for all in SC.

You may have heard this many times before. I feel both spiritually convicted and morally compelled to write my viewpoint.

I have been there before, having grown up during The sixties Detroit riots and I see it starting to happen here again.

You can prevent this from becoming extreme and widespread by your goodwill removal of the battle flag from the capital,

& as a legislative act combined with making hate and racial terror criminal offenses, supported by your office, will show both that their deaths are not in vain and that SC will not tolerate police brutality.

It is not only the guns but what people do with once they have them; gun control is a red herring issue since it was a b-day gift, so you don't have to go there. This is very much a government affairs issue, for you as governor need to act quickly and assertively on this. To date no other leader has made this a significant issue and for the people who are beginning to fear the lack of gov't support it is indeed a very grave issue for all of SC and the rest of our beloved country.

Other local SC governments will surely take up this legendary mandate if you can do this. Only you have the credibility for it to work. If you do the effects can be globally reaching and secure your legacy as no other governor has ever done here and perhaps beyond party politics as a supporter of peace and human rights. Please do not let this fester into seething hatred leading to more violence. This is not placation but a step into a peaceful future literally for everybody. I implore you please do this; the flag is only history, our divided past memorialized inappropriate in this modern age and adding this legislation will show you are serious about these shootings, both made of hatred, that hatred will not be tolerated by the law. You can lead it as genuine bi-partisanship if you act first and show all the voters and the world that SC puts the safety of all its citizens first.

This will also let black people, who are devoted voters, know they really do matter and they will support you in this for the fairness you have shown and there will be no more need to fear the black vote. This can dissipate everyone's fear.

Ans would be a first in the country and you will be irrevocably legendary despite the pressures of the tea party...certainly it will enhance your national status as well when voting are looking for someone to do the right thing. It is all around win-win!

With the Warmest Regards and Respect,

Ka [REDACTED]

PS I am OK with you using any parts of this email to get things done.
Please please please save everybody by acting quickly!

As a property owner in South Carolina and a concerned American, I am thrilled that you have asked to have the Confederate flag removed from the Capitol grounds. The shootings in Charleston last week were criminal and tear at the fabric of our beautiful State. The alleged shooter's use of the Confederate flag to reinforce and "justify" his unbelievable actions is more than heinous. It sets us all back more than 100 years. Please count me as one of your strong supporters in your courageous initiative.

I support the Confederate Flag. Its a First Amendment right. Its the same as Rap Music that calls for killing white people. police, pimping, gun use and drug use. Also, illegal immigrants are parading around with signs stating "stop deporting us and we'll stop killing cops"!

The hypocrisy, the double standards and brown nosing for votes is disgusting.

I suggest that you play some Rap music during your hearings on the Confederate flag.

I admire Governor Haley for taking this stand and I feel it is totally appropriate at this time. The family and friends of the victims in Charleston have given us all an amazing example of choosing love over hatred. We need to follow their example for unity in this country. Thank you.

 <MSG>

Thank you Governor Haley for supporting the removal of the Confederate flag from the state capitol and for your active presence during this difficult time for the members of Emmanuel AME and the greater Charleston community. This is a wonderful first step in honoring the legacies of Senator Pinckney and the other 8 loving South Carolinians who were murdered by hate in what was meant to be a sanctuary of faith.

As you know, Senator Pinckney was a proponent of the universal 4K funding that has catapulted SC to 11th in the nation for providing that vital resource. We can be so proud of that achievement! Thank you for announcing that you will be calling an Early Childhood Summit this fall. To optimize the state's investment in universal 4K, and do even more to promote educational opportunity for all of SC's children, it is imperative to increase our state's investment in high quality child care. First Steps does not meet this need. Child care provided in the critical brain development period of birth -age 3 has life-long impact on educational attainment, social functioning, executive skills (including empathy and leadership) and earning potential.

An Advisory Board from across the state has come together with Children's Trust, The United Way Association of South Carolina, the Institute for Child Success. Thompson Family Services and various philanthropic community foundations to begin the work of increasing strategic investment in high quality child care through public-private partnerships. Many of our biggest employers, including Boeing, Cummins, Intertech, and BMW, recognize this as a critical need to increase attendance and productivity in today's workforce and develop the educational capacity of the next generation and already invest in early care.

In taking down the flag, you and the General Assembly have an opportunity to heal something from the past, something SC has pushed forward from. By increasing the state's investment in high quality child care you have the opportunity to seed hope for brighter futures -- among children at risk in all communities, for low income working parents who need child care to work, for the 25,000 South Carolinians who care for SC's youngest children as small business owners in child care centers and family child care homes, and for the businesses and school districts who need all of us to realize that a child's capacity and destiny are developed more during the critical brain development of the birth - three years than at any other time.

Senator Pinckney believed in investing in our children proactively. Currently, we spend over 163 million on remedial education in public schools, a disproportionate share of this in Title I Schools of course, and just 7 million state dollars in child care. That's not proactive and, without addressing that, the investment made in 4K won't yield the desired results. I believe you will address these issues in the summit you are planning: thank you for your heart for children and families and for your commitment to bringing the family of SC together to keep moving forward.

Please consider doing something before that summit however. Please consider increasing investment in child care this year. Even a small investment will signal your willingness to grow public-private partnerships to the companies who stand ready to invest in South Carolina's children with you, the Growing Together Advisory Board and various nonprofit partners. Our state's investment of just 7 million dollars yields has been well stewarded in a QRIS, one of the most successful TEACH programs in the nation, and many strong partnerships yet, we can not compete with the accomplishments of neighboring states investing 193 million (GA) and 248 million (NC) respectively. Our children are losing ground from birth and our workforce is struggling to be prepared for 21st century jobs. Doubling the state's investment to 14 million dollars would be a wonderful first step in seeding public private partnership. I believe one of the Advisory Board members, Cathy Marino, has also contacted you regarding this critical need.

Thank you again for your heart - for Charleston, for the families of Emmanuel AME, and for all the children and families of SC.

Know that, you are in our prayers along with Charleston' leaders and the AME leaders as you respond to the tragedy with hope and healing.

My husband and I have visited SC in the past, specifically for vacation purposes. We are birdwatchers and in this month's issue of Bird Watching magazine, Francis Beidler Forest in Harleyville, was featured prominently.

It would be difficult to financially support a state who publicly displays a symbol of racial divisiveness.

We hope that you take into consideration our concerns.

Governor Haley,

Thank you for your stance with regards to the Confederate Flag. I'm proud of you, I don't know you, I do not know your politics and I've never reached out to a politician this way before... For whatever that is worth. Ultimately, I hope you and your fellow South Carolinian politicians are taking this stance for the right reasons but even if you're not, that flag needs to come down.

All the best to you and to those around you affected by another senseless act of gun violence. I'm sorry and sad for your community and any African American who feels the deep wounds of hate.

Gov. Haley,

I've been a big fan of yours since you came to Greenwood before your first election win. In fact, I offered to draw some editorial cartoons in support of your campaign. It never worked out for me to do that and it's ok. I watched your speech today about moving/removing the confederate flag and I have to tell you, I've never been more proud to call myself a South Carolinian or you my Governor than I was at that moment. I'm attaching a write-up that was done about my editorial toon. Thought you might enjoy.

Dear Mrs. Haley. It is of pleasure to be writing this but sad due to the cause. Our citizens world wide are at war with each other over race, religion, history, beliefs, and territory. The Confederate Flag of peace and end of a vicious killing war is now a symbol of hate and I of many agree it should be placed in a history museum and left there. Unfortunately Mrs. Haley it does not end there. Our children are being taught every day, start at early age, in the school systems all about the slavery and the negative impact on the African Americans as well as many different Indian Tribes which is a huge part of my heritage. Children are being taught at the early age to pass judgments and learn to hate by our own schools, law, and sadly our government. If I among others, American Indians, were to hold prejudice for our heritage having to chose death or be kidnapped for slavery, where would that hold in today's world? It is not about the history, it is what it ALL represents in a world of many diverse and hate of another's skin color because of the "HISTORY" printed in our children's school books and taught to them daily. I PRAY YOU, A LADY OF PRESTIGE AND A MOTHER HONOSTLY LISTENS TO THIS ONE GENUINE GRASP, CRY, FOR PEACE AND UNDERSTANIND THAT ALL THE RACIAL HISTORY OF SOUTH CAROLINA SHOULD BE REMOVED FROM SCHOOLS HISTORY BOOKS AND OUR SCHOOL SYSTEMS NO LONGER DEMAND TEACHINGS OF THE "BLACK HISTORY MONTH" AND OTHER RACIAL DESCREPENCIES TO OUR CHILDREN, OUR FUTURE. GOD BLESS YOU AND YOURS.

Governor,

Keep the Stars and Bars. It is absurd to suggest a causal relationship between Roof and the flag. South Carolina took him in custody and will try him. In NYC, for example, the police kill black people all the time and get off. In Chicago, with stringent gun laws, black people are shot every day and you hear nothing from Washington. What flags are flying in NYC and Chicago?

All this breast beating from Obama is simple opportunism. It's not about gun control, it's about people control. Obama hates the Second Amendment. You will notice that he is not the least concerned about all the firearms shipped to Mexican drug dealers, or the result of shipping hundreds of thousands of firearms to Iraq, or Syria, or Africa, or Afghanistan. Especially is he not concerned about, but on the contrary proud of the murder and mayhem caused by his drones.

Tell 'em to take a hike.

Best Regards,

just a quick note to say I am very disappointed to hear you cave on the issue of the so called confederate flag ...it is a very important part of our history as south Carolinians and has nothing to do w racism ! If we cave on this be prepared we will forfeit other important symbols in the future as well ...it's a slippery slope. Have always been happy to see u stand up for right before ...this was rather an unpleasant surprise. Lindsey Graham ...that was expected ...u not so much. Getting harder and harder to believe anyone appreciates and stands for truth and righteousness anymore. Really sad. Gay marriage ...lost heritage ...politicians agendas ...slippery slope. Disappointing to be American since 2008 ...becoming disappointed w being a south Carolinians now too ? U were one of the only shining stars left ...please reconsider. Thank you.

I retired from the Navy in Charleston and always loved the local people. It saddened me when innocent people were killed by a misfit of humanity in a house of worship. It broke my heart for the governor to ask for removal of the battle flag. I suppose no monuments to honor will be safe in the future regardless if it was a compromise or not. It's good that Dylann Roof did not start a racial civil war, the people of SC are too smart. The governor has started a civil war among SC republicans and the liberals will be the winners. It is unfortunate that so-called conservatives cave so easy- just like the governor of Indiana when even religious liberties are at state.

You have led--and led strongly through hard times. And it takes an especially strong person to introduce change. Fuck you Nikki Haley. It ain't a goddamn great day in South Carolina unless your idea of heaven is living inside the Third Reich in the Nazi Capital of the Red State South where you and your ilk have never met a minority you would not demonize or throw under the bus with code for their coming to take your freedoms away if it meant you could divide and conquer and win the right to govern, absent any ability to actually do so other than a sick talent to divide the bacon for your fascist backers for an ass load of money none of you could ever earn in the private sector without being traitors to those that voted you into office while in effect telling your constituents, stop your whining and go fuck yourself.

This is precisely why I have never voted for you, the war mongerer girly boy Lindsey Graham, the uncle Tom senator from the low country, Tim Scott, or the Benghazi on the brain dickhead congressman Jeff Duncan who huffs and puffs but can't move any meaningful legislation forward other than holding yet another hearing on Hilary. But hey, that's what the third district does, they waste their time trying to knee cap the Clinton's without a clue of what is important in the grand scheme of making the trains run on time.

Here's a concept congressman, how was it we ended up in Iraq 3 trillion dollars ago, 4000+ American deaths and still counting with no end in sight. Can't you freaking prioritize which was worse you ass wipe, Behghazi or unilaterally invading Iraq? I hope you political fucks who caused those deaths of all of the brother and sister South Carolina worshipers of color as much as anything with a wink and a nod to your supporters with a dog whistle here and a dog whistle there do your constituents a favor and trample each other to death in your mad dash to jump on the band wagon of taking the new Nazi flag down and we really, really like our black Geez we really had no idea that working in hand in hand with the NRA, making inflammatory speeches about minority's day in and day out would lead to anything so evil it would cause the death of innocents in their place of worship!

Collectively you incompetents make me sick to my stomach and mortified to be a South Carolinian with leadership that is too racist to lead and too stupid to govern. And no you incompetents, we ain't drilling for no oil off our coast in order to send this money everywhere but here in the state with global warming closing in as you read this AND an industry that already counts on the tourism dollars that this bull shit premise for a certainty will put at risk in the next decade, easy, if your made passing grades in science to understand the cause and effect of bad outcomes with experiments gone bad.

Dear Gov. Haley,

I am a resident of Virginia, but I was moved to congratulate you and offer you words of encouragement for your wisdom, insight and courage. You have obviously formed a close relationship with God, and you have really made an impact on me. I was moved to tears when you cried after the shootings, but I honestly never thought that you would be the one to initiate the removal of the confederate flag. It has always been the swastika of our land. Unlike Germany, the US has chosen to honor the horror inflicted on the people of the US. Not many understand this analogy, but for us it is the same. The same terror, the same suffering, and even more brutality and death than teh holocaust, but it is honored (?) I know your citizens appreciate you, and you will go down in history. Im so happy that a woman is the one to do it! I hope it goes through. I just wanted you to know you have soooo much support across the country. Kudos Nikki!

Governor: You have wounded all southerners of Confederate descent by siding with the voices of unreason, hate and bias. I had respect for you, but you have proved that you are just another spineless politician who will bend to hate. You think that you can count of our support even if you stab us and our proud heritage in the back. Many young South Carolina men fought under that flag to protect the state from vicious invaders. You are certainly not worthy to be the governor of a state that is supposed to represent those men and their descendants. You have solved no problems, you have only exacerbated hard feelings between the races.

Replace the ANV battle flag with a rotating series of SC unit battle flags. An example from The Flags of Hampton's Legion website:

SC Zouave Volunteers Company H, (2nd), Infantry

A square of blue and white silk, gold trimmed - embroidered by "the Nuns of Columbia" - Presented October 29, 1861 - Congaree House, SC College, Columbia, SC - by Augustus Baldwin Longstreet, president of the college, on behalf of the "Ladies of Columbia" - to color bearer William G. Gardner

These are all about history, and should be much less inflammatory to the general public. A small sign explaining a little about each unit would be very good.

I'm just a history buff trying to help focus on the heritage without the hate.

Governor...first let me say that as an out of state commentator on your recent appearances, I would more than welcome your bright light to shine publicly much more often. It was an unfortunate act that put you into that national spotlight. but I personally cheered your words. You spoke eloquently and most sincerely and most accurately that it wasn't the gun that caused all of the destruction, but the unstable mind that thought pulling the trigger would be a solution to a problem. I know deep in my heart that he would have found some way to accomplish his mission, regardless of the method.

I applaud your being forthright. You spoke sensibly. We all mourn the loss of beautiful, law abiding and god fearing people who had so much to offer. Please continue to stand up for your beliefs. Thank you.

PS. It is time to end the Civil War...time for the Confederate flag to be archived in a museum with the piece of history it represents.

I listened to the speech this afternoon concerning the Confederate flag and our State and I must tell you that my heart soared with pride! Governor, you are representing our state and our people in an outstanding way. Glad you are our Governor during this tragic time. Wish you well. God bless.

Thank You Gov.Haley! I am a 65 year old white woman from Cross, SC and I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for your call to remove the confederate flag from the state house grounds. God Bless You! You are standing now on the right side of history and on the right side of human rights. I am so proud to have you as my governor, as a woman, a woman of color and a woman of God you have let the light of love shine on all south carolinians. Please continue with your courageous leadership and open a dialogue on racism in our culture here!

Sincerely, Mary [REDACTED]

I have always supported you and shocked you knowing this young man 21 years old who killed 9 people in the church was sick and insane and yet you as a Christian want him to die. What he did was ugly and shameless but being in health care all my life for 48 years there is no problem seeing this young man is insane and very sick. I as a pro-life Christian Republican don't support states or governments putting anyone to death. Not talking about war with ISSI who are out to kill people who don't see eye to eye to with them but permitting states or governments to kill people is the answer. What would Jesus the Lord do??? Sorry I don't support you in this and fine you as a good person but shocked. As for the Confederate flag its history and does not anyway hurt or kill people. I went to school in Mississippi and southern people was good to me. Sorry we no longer agree. Very hurt for would have voted for you to be in the W/H. Killing the insane is shocking to me. Hope your heart will be moved knowing that even Dr. Charles K. on Fox News said the young man was very sick and needed medical help and is insane.

Dear Governor Haley,

You made us proud to be women this afternoon- proud mothers, sisters, daughters who take care of our families, work fulltime, and have the courage of our convictions. We changed the Georgia flag a number of years ago because it was a symbol of hate that grated on the fiber of fairness and sensibility. It was not easy, you occasionally see them flying in certain parts of our state, but the clear statement that hate will not govern or dictate Georgia's image and symbols made us a better state. SC will be a better state tomorrow than it is today for the many things you have accomplished (Volvo, etc.) but we will remember you with grateful hearts because of your stand today. Thank you Governor Haley. Sincerely, Nancy [REDACTED] Atlanta GA

If you take down the confederate flag, what next? Freedom of expression, freedom of speech? You and I both know it won't stop there..Through out history someone will always take if to the next level. Black America needs to get over that period of our history and stop thinking white America owes them. Besides, aren't there more important issues; like homelessness and hungry Americans? Thank you for your time and cooperation.
