Pat Stroud 15 minutes from my house so lucky to be able to enjoy it as much as we do. A very well maintained state park and great place to spend a day beach.

The only negative, there are days it is a pain to get into if you don't get there early enough.

Wayne Speer Martha Coyne I live about 30 miles from there and go there or Myrtle Beach State Park a couple times a week. I no longer go to the beach by the hotels in Myrtle Beach. It's much prettier in person. And I'm a photographer that knows how to edit in both lightroom and photoshop so I know what you mean. I haven't taken any of my cameras , Canon 5DSR , 5DIV or R5 with me for sunrise photos in either park . But here's a cellphone photo unretouched for you.
