You are right, I will send an email tomorrow explaining that even if he is in Columbia he will be just able to get here for Session from that event. I will do so in a more eloquent manner than I have in this email.

Good Morning Ms. Allman, We are waiting to find out the schedule for the Senate before we know the Lieutenant Governor's schedule. Most likely, if the Senate is not in that Wednesday then he will not be in Columbia. However, we don't know for sure just yet. I am happy to follow up once we know more. Thank you.

Hi Catherine,

I hope you are doing well. I'm a board member of the South Carolina Home Care and Hospice Association and we are planning to host a Legislative Advocacy Day on April 4th. I learned yesterday that the Senate is planning to be furlough. Do you know if the Lieutenant Governor will be in or off as well? If he is in, I would love to meet with him if possible and have him even stop by the tables to see the group. We will be in the lobby right outside of his office.

Thanks in advance,

Melissa Allman

Good Morning Ms. Allman,

The Lieutenant Governor asked me to try to set up a time for your to come by his office next week. It looks like he could be available for ten minutes at 1:45pm on Tuesday. If that time doesn't work I will consult with our Chief of Staff on other possible times. Thank you.

Good morning,

Thank you for taking the time to respond. I'll be back in Columbia next week and would love to stop in. Do you have anytime available on your schedule next week?

I hope you have a great weekend.

Thank you again,

Melissa Allman

Dear Lieutenant Governor:

Hello. It was great meeting you last week at the Opioid Summit in Rock Hill. It's a horrible and sad situation and I thankful we have the support of government to help assist in this fight. I have 3 small children, and it breaks my heart to know what the future may hold for them.

As I mentioned in our brief conversation, I will be in Columbia on Wednesday, Jan 31 and would love to stop by (if you have time). Also, do you mind if I use our picture in our internal publication?

Thank you for all you do! I look forward to seeing you again soon.

Sincerely,

Melissa Allman
