CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT – SOUTH CAROLINA

Eddie Brown is a senior partner and principal in SwaimBrown PA and its related company, SwaimBrown Wealth Management LLC.

He focuses his practice on complex corporate and individual taxation issues, both domestic and international, while serving clients desiring business planning and consulting, merger-acquisition support and estate/succession planning. While he works with clients in numerous arenas, he has particular depth of experience in the manufacturing, real estate and construction industries.

After serving in the United States Air Force, Eddie began his public accounting career in May, 1974 in Columbia, SC. He is a graduate of the University of South Carolina, where he earned his B.S. in Business Administration. In 1978, he relocated to Spartanburg where he currently practices, joining today's SwaimBrown PA firm as a partner and principal.

Today, SwaimBrown PA serves multiple clients in South Carolina, across America and internationally – always with an eye on helping every client achieve success.

Married to the former Jacqueline Melfa and has two adult children and three grandchildren. Eddie's current active memberships include:

- American Institute of CPA's (AICPA)
- South Carolina Association of CPA's (SCACPA) (Past President in 2010)
- Foothills Chapter of SCACPA (Past President)
- Estate Planning Council of Spartanburg (Past President)
- Baptist Foundation of South Carolina (Ambassador)
- Cooley Springs Baptist Church

Volunteer activities have previously included service in Rotary, Sertoma, Boy Scouts of America, Treasurer of the Franklin Graham Festival 2001, Executive Committee of the South Carolina Baptist Convention (Finance Committee), Trustee with Baptist Foundation of SC, as well as a variety of other community and civic organizations. He has frequently participated as a volunteer on short-term foreign trips to various parts of the world on behalf of his church and civic organizations, including visits to Central and South America, Europe, Africa, Asia and most recently to Rwanda.
