It's KING MACKEREL season at Myrtle Beach State Park. We've just had the first catch of the year from our pier by Sal Ciolino, of St. Louis, Missouri. The fish weighed in at 20 lbs. 12 oz. You too can come fish from our pier!

Sue Ann Tarkenton Wow! What do you use for bait when you fish for something like that?

Barclay Clarke Sue Ann, they normally use menhaden, which are bait fish you catch with a cast net. That is what Mr. Ciolino used today!

Sue Ann Tarkenton Thanks for the information. I don't think I have tasted King Mackerel.
