Subject: The Year Ahead

Dear Friend,

Along the road to become Nevada's Attorney General, I made a number of promises about how I would fight every day to make this office and state stronger. I promised to stand up for Nevada's rule of law, to defend us from an overreaching federal government, to seek justice for victims of sexual assault, to create legal assistance for our veterans, and to fight crime and fraud to protect our citizens. And I am proud to say that in my first year since taking office, we accomplished all of those things and even more.

As we look to the year ahead, my team and I will continue to strive for excellence and will work tirelessly to ensure that the office of Attorney General is a proactive office with our focus always on the horizon ahead.

Today, I'd like to thank you for the integral part you played in building this momentum. Without you, we wouldn't be in a position to make these great changes that are already positively affecting the lives of Nevadans from every corner of this great state. These are as much your successes as they are ours.

If you would, please consider making another contribution to my campaign today so we can continue to plan for the great years ahead in Nevada's Office of Attorney General. A contribution of \$10, \$20 or even \$50 will help ensure that I will be able to continue this great work, paving the way for a better Nevada for all.

Adam
